FOR all Indispositions of the Stomach, and Impurities of the Blood; for the Scurvey, and all its Attendants; to create an Appetite, and help Digestion; to prevent Infection from contagious Air or Diseases, and to keep the Body in a due State of Health and Vigour, &c. Dr. Stroughton's great Cordial Elixir excels any one Preparation in the World. 'Tis now famous throughout Europe; and is sold in most Cities and great Towns thereof, and taken to Sea by most that go: And being such a pleasant and agreeable Bitter, most Gentlemen drink it in Wine, Ladies in Tea, &c. and is of such use to perfect the Digestion two or three Hours after Dinner, and create a fresh Appetite, suppress Vapours, and raise the Spirits when dull and low, that few Ladies drink Tea in an Afternoon without the Drops in it, 8 or 10 whereof dropt upon the Sugar first, to each Dish, is enough. Prepared only by him at his House in Bartholomew-lane near the Royal Exchange, London, he having her late Majesty's most gracious Letters Patents for the sole making thereof. 'Tis so great a cleanser of the Blood and expeller of Wind, that Hundreds have been cured of Agues and Colicks by this Elixir only, taken as the Bills direct, being in French, Dutch and Spanish, as well as English: And 'tis desired they may be carefully read over and observed,
