

and particularly in this Kingdom will take; Count Virzthum who has been sent by his Polish Majesty to the Czar, will endeavour to remove such Misunderstandings as may have arisen between the two Courts. The King is daily giving Audience to the Deputies of the several Palatinates of this Kingdom, who all represent after one and the same Manner, the great Misery of the Country, the Burthen of the Contributions, and the unanimous Desire of the Poles to have the Saxon Troops sent away: The Answer returned to them is in Substance much the same as that which was formerly mentioned to have been given to the Palatinate of Sandomir. Major-General Goltz, one of the two Ministers whom his Majesty lately had at the Ottoman Port, arrived here to Day; and the other, the Palatine of Mazovia, is expected to Morrow. The Velt-Marshal Flemming is preparing to go to Brunswick, to assist at the Conferences for the Peace of the North. Major-General Goltz reports, that the Turks make very great Preparations for War, especially by Sea, and he supposes their Design is against the Morea.

Hambourg, Nov. 20. N. S. The Imperial Ministers at Brunwick, in a late Conference with M. Rosenerantz the Danish Minister, acquainted him by Order from the Emperor, that his Imperial Majesty has approved the Resolutions passed by the Diet of the Empire on the following Points. 1. That Holstein ought to be restored. 2. That the Duke of Mecklenbourg ought to be reimbursed the Losses sustained by the Passage of the Danish Troops and others through the Duchies of Swerin and Gustrow, which by an Account taken amount to two Millions of Crowns. 3. That the Losses suffered by the Towns of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hambourg, from the said Troops, be made good to each Town respectively. The Danish Minister promised to communicate this to the King his Master. 'Tis advised from Copenhagen, that the 17th Instant the Swedish General Count Sreenbock was committed to close Confinement in the Citadel of that Place; and the King of Denmark's Minister here has received Orders to declare, that his Majesty will cause the Reasons of this rigorous Proceeding against the said Count to be made publick. 'Tis reported, that on the earnest Instances of General Duker, the Duke of Mecklenbourg has given Leave for 4 Regiments of Swedes, which are in Pomerania, to pass into his Territories for their more commodious Subsistence, Pomerania being no longer able to subsist so many Troops:

Ratisbon, Nov. 15. N. S. On the 5th and 6th Instant the Diet was assembled to draw up full Powers for General Roht to take Possession of Fort Kehl for the Empire, the Emperor having nominated him for that Employment. On the 9th the Ministers who have the Care of the Affairs of the King of Great Britain as Elector of Hanover and Duke of Zell, entered a Protestation in the College of the Electors, and in that of the Princes, for preserving his Rank as Eighth Elector, and his Office of High-Treasurer of the Empire, which must return to the Elector Palatine, if the Elector of Bavaria should be intirely restored to the Dignities he formerly enjoyed. In a Meeting of the Diet on the 12th the Swedish Minister gave in a Protestation against the plenary Restitution of the Elector of Bavaria, pursuant to particular Orders which he had received, to second the Protestation made in the Name of the Elector Palatine, for preserving the Rights of the Palatine Family, to which the King of Sweden is nearly related. We have no Advice yet of that King's being come into Transylvania. M. Frischberg, w^ho is newly appointed to reside at the Diet on the Part of his Britannick Majesty, as Elector and Prince of the Empire, arrived here the 10th.

Paris, Nov. 24. N. S. We have Advice from Nancy, that on the 12th of this Month the French Troops evacuated that place, and retired to Toul: The same Day the Duke of Lorraine's Troops entered Nancy, and took Possession of the Citadel, and of the Gates of the Town. The Queen of Spain arrived at Montpellier the 7th Instant, and on the 9th proceeded on her Journey. She takes her way by Toulouse, and St. Jean Pied de Port, to Pampelona. M. Fabius Bruflart de Silery, Bishop of Soissons, one of the Forty of the French Academy, died here the 20th.

Hague, Nov. 23. N. S. The 21st Baron Dalwick Minister of the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, set out from hence for Paris, in order (as is given out) to compliment the French King in the Name of the Landgrave his Master, on the Conclusion of the Peace between the Empire and France. The said Minister is from thence to pass over to England, by the way of Calais, to Congratulate his Britannick Majesty on his Accession to the Throne. Count Effren, Minister of the Elector Palatine, waits still for Letters from his Court, before he proceeds to England for the same purpose. Lieutenant General Cadogan having delivered his Credentials to the States-General, and had two or three Conferences on the Subject of the Barrier, designs to make a Tour to Amsterdam, and from thence to go back to Antwerp. M. Vander Dussen and Count Recheren, their High Mightinesses Deputies for regulating the Barrier, having received new Instructions, will likewise set out to Morrow for Antwerp. We are informed, that the March of part of the Imperial Troops into the Provinces of Limbourg and Luxembourg, is suspended 'till further Orders, Don Lewis d'Acunha, Plenipotentiary of the King of Portugal, came hither this Morning from Utrecht, and his Colleague Count Tarouca is expected this Evening.

St. James's, November 16. This Day Count Gazola had a private Audience of his Majesty, to deliver his Credential Letter as Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Parma, and to Congratulate his Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne.
