TREASURY

RATES OF INTEREST ON LOANS BY THE PUBLIC WORKS LOAN COMMISSIONERS TO LOCAL AUTHORITIES

NOTICE

TREASURY MINUTE dated 23rd June 1992.
The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury read section 3(2) of the National Loans Act 1968 (1968 C.13 as amended) whereby any sums borrowed from the Public Works Loan Commissioners shall bear interest at such rates as the Treasury may determine from time to time in accordance with section 5 of the said Act.
My Lords understand that the Public Works Loan Commissioners will be operating arrangements under which local authorities are permitted to borrow from the Commissioners up to a specified quota at a certain fixed rate of interest and in excess of such quota at one of two higher fixed rates.

In accordance therewith the Chancellor of the Exchequer now recommends that with effect from 24th June 1992 and until the coming into operation of a further determination:

- (i) The rate of interest applicable to any such fixed rate loan will be that in force on the day the authority applies to borrow or, if the application is before noon three working days before the loan is credited to the account of the authority's banker, the rate in force at 11 a.m. two banking days before credit day;
- (ii) Different rates of interest shall be charged on such fixed rate loans according to whether the principal of a loan is repaid by instalments or at maturity and, if repaid by instalments, whether by equal instalments of the principal with interest paid on the decreasing balance of the principal (E.I.P.), or by instalments of equal repayments of the principal and interest paid thereon (E.R.);
- (iii) The rates of such interest shall be:

Other borrowing beyond the quota entitlement will be at the appropriate rate in the non-quota set of rates.
My Lords concur.

This includes the identification of routes in and around the town centre area for buses, taxis, cycles, and vehicles providing services, deliveries, etc. to shops, offices and other businesses in the area.

The Experimental Order will include associated measures such as waiting and parking restrictions, loading bans and box junctions and movement controls such as one-way streets and left and right turning restrictions.

Access to the pedestrianised area by vehicles will be restricted between the hours of 11 a.m. and 4 p.m., Mondays to Fridays and 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. on Saturdays. Slightly lesser restrictions will apply outside these times. There will be provision for access at all times by some types of vehicles for specified purposes. The Order will also provide for the granting of various kinds of permits which will allow holders to enter the restricted areas at certain times of the day for particular purposes.

These permits may be granted, for example, to residents, people with disabilities, private off-street car park users, cash and bullion vehicles, servicing and delivery and newspaper distributor vehicles. This list is not exhaustive and those interested should look at the draft Order to find out the detailed provisions.

Under the Experimental Order existing traffic regulations which are unaffected by the new proposals will still be in force. The Experimental Order will consolidate and suspend a large number of existing Traffic Regulation Orders affecting the town centre.

The Experimental Order comes into force on 12th July 1992.

The following documents may be inspected at the Civic Centre, Reading, Berkshire (Ask for Level 10) during normal office hours:

- (a) the Experimental Order.

- (c) existing Orders suspended by the Experimental Order.
- (d) a statement setting out the authority's reasons for making the Experimental Order.

If you wish to question the validity of the Experimental Order or of any provision in it you must apply to the High Court within 6 weeks from 10th July 1992. You can only object if the Order is not within the powers conferred by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, or if any requirement of that Act or any Instrument made under it has not been complied with in relation to the Order.

Reading Borough Council will be considering in due course whether the provisions of the Experimental Order should be continued in force indefinitely. To do so it would have to make a further Order. Within a period of 6 months from 12th July 1992 any person may object to the making of a further Order for this purpose. Any such objection must be in writing, must give the grounds on which it is made and must be sent to the Head of Legal Services, P.O. Box 28, Civic Centre, Reading RG1 7ER.

Statutes in Force

A vital reference work on the law of the land

What is Statutes in Force?

Statutes in Force is the official revised edition of the statutes. It provides the text (without commentary) of the current statute law of the land, in a way which is comprehensive

constantly updated

The complete edition consists of 107 looseleaf binders which contain hole-punched crown quarto (246 x 189mm) booklets - giving a total of some 60,000 pages. The Acts are arranged, not in purely chronological order, but classified into 125 groups according to subject matter.

Statutes in Force is intended to be a permanently renewable edition of revised statutes. It is kept up to date in a number of ways:

- The issue of new Acts for insertion into their appropriate groups (they are published in complete text form usually within two months after Royal Assent)
- The issue of instructions for the removal of repealed Acts
- The publication of revised reissues of heavily-amended Acts
- Cumulative supplements for each affected group giving particulars of amendments and partial repeals (pending their eventual incorporation in revised reissues of the affected Acts).
