WEST DEVON BOROUGH COUNCIL

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT
1990, SECTION 69(1)

TOWN AND COUNTRY AMENITIES ACT 1974

Notice of Designation of Conservation Area at Bere Alston

Notice is hereby given, that West Devon Borough Council in exercise of its powers under the above Acts has designated the area of land at Bere Alston described in the Schedule attached hereto, as a Conservation Area—an area of special architectural or historic interest, the character of which it is desirable to preserve or enhance.

The effects of such a designation are that, subject to minor exceptions, no building or part of a building situated within a Conservation Area shall be demolished and no tree shall be cut down, lopped, topped, uprooted, damaged or destroyed, without the consent of the Local Planning Authority. Special consideration will be given to planning applications, which in the opinion of the Local Planning Authority affect the character and appearance of the Conservation Area and a notice will be published in a local paper indicating the nature of the application and where it is available for inspection for a period of 21 days. A notice will also be displayed on site in each case for 7 days.

Copies of the plan showing the boundary of the Conservation Area are available for public inspection during office hours at the Council Offices, in Kilworthy Park, Drake Road, Tavistock or in Oaklands Drive, Okehampton.

J. S. Ligo, Chief Executive

SCHEDULE

The Conservation Area is centred on the junction of Bedford Street and Fore Street. It extends north-eastwards to encompass the lower end of Bedford Street, The Mount Zion Methodist Church, Bedford Place, nos. 74-78 Broad Park and Bedford Villas. South eastwards, it runs down Bedford Park, skirting the rear of the properties in Pilgrim Drive, encompassing all the properties on the east side of Fore Street, as far as High Cross, including Edgcombe Terrace, running back up Fore Street, taking in no. 43 Fore Street and all the properties on the south side of Cornwall Street and The Square. It turns northwards along the path between no. 37 Cornwall Street and The Close (excluding the latter) to encompass the village hall and Victoria Social Club and properties on the south side of Station Road up to and including no. 47, together with nos. 1-7 Lockridge Road. It skirts the edge of the Drakes Park development, and into Chapel Street. (726)

SCHEDULE

The Hatherleigh Conservation Area has been extended

The Conservation Area is centred on Bridge Street, South Street, High Street, Higher Street, Victoria Road, Market Street, Park Road and Oakfield Road. At its southernmost point it encompasses the bridge over the River Lew, the Hatherleigh County Primary School and Reed House, before running north, beyond Coombe into Higher Street. It skirts the west side of Normandy Place, into Victoria Road, then runs west and northwards around Biddlecombe. Travelling north-westwards, the boundary encompasses the orchards and pastures which form the setting to Montague House. The boundary then crosses Red Lane to Sanctuary Lane, taking in the grounds of Hatherleigh Place. It extends northwards to include Oslo and the Vicarage, before turning southwards between the properties in Bridge Street and the cattle market, until it reaches the River Lew. (724)
