

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday, December 12. to Thursday December 15. 1670.

Full, Dec. 7.

THis week arrived here Three Ships from Burdax, laden with Wine and Prunes, and Four Ships from Holland: a Vessel coming in here from Hambourg has met with ill weather at sea, but we hear not of any loss at sea: one Flyboat laden with Rasse, was with some hazard, and the loss of her Masts, driven into Bridlington-Bay.

Warsaw, Nov. 25. The Heer de Wit, Ambassador from the States General of the United Provinces, hath had several Conferences with the Commissioners appointed by His Majesty to treat with him, where they have taken into their consideration, a Treaty of Commerce, whose Articles they have severally examined, and since presented to His Majesty to be farther considered by the Ministers of State, and in few days His Majesties resolution upon it, may be expected.

Most of the Senators, as well as the Nobles, are diverting themselves, at present, in their several Provinces, and assisting in the lesser Diets, according to custom, giving the people an account of what hath passed in the General Assembly. This week brings us no Letters from Ukraina, and raises our curiosities, even to an impatience, to be informed how the Affairs are there carried on between the two opposite Generals, whose Deputies according to their different entertainment here, will at their return sufficiently declare what esteem His Majesty hath for their Masters.

Yesterday the Deputies from Huzenka, took their leaves of the King, and received from him a present of a Commanders-staff, and a Standard, which sufficiently declare him General of the Zaporavian Cossacks.

His Majesty having but little confidence in Doraszko, who though he pretends to much tenderness for the interests of Poland, is nevertheless more then suspected, to hold a private correspondency with the Turks.

Our apprehensions of a new Confederacy in the Army, begin to vanish, the soldiery being generally (since the promise of the due payment of their arrears) inclined to obey the Kings Commands.

His Majesty has ordered a considerable Train of Artillery to be prepared, and a proportionable number of horses to be brought to draw it to Leopolis, it is ordered to set forward this week, to be there in readiness upon all occasions.

Several of the great persons of this kingdom are yet male contented, and dissatisfied with the issue of the late General Assembly; but the Nobles are resolved to hazard their lives and fortunes for the service of his Majesty, and the preservation of the peace of the kingdom.

Vienna, Nov. 30. The Count de Kathal, his Imperial Majesties Commissioner for the affairs of Hungary, has lately given the Emperor an exact account of the present posture of the affairs of that kingdom, and amongst other things, has informed, that it will be a business of great difficulty, if not impossible for the Hungarians to advance moneys, for the payment of 15000 men, but that they may be prevailed with to furnish an Equivalent in Provisions and Stuffs for the cloathing of his Army, which tis believed will satisfy the Council of War.

The Emperor is raising men for the recruits of his Horse and Foot, but may presently after Christmas give order for the raising of some new Regiments.

The Commissioners appointed by his Imperial Majesty, for the Trial of the Count Serini, and the Marquis de Frangipani, have exhibited their charges against them; of which they have given them Copies, and allowed them Council for their defence. The Two Hungarian Barons Paragozi and Petrozzi, who were suspected to have had their shares in the late rebellion, arrested; and another principal person of the same conspiracy, retired to the Castle of Arva, upon the frontiers of Poland.

Vienna, Dec. 3. The Count Nicolai, Envoy Extraordinary from the Great Duke of Tuscany, having finished his addresses to this Court, has taken his leave, and intends to morrow to depart from this place on his return home, well satisfy'd with his reception, and the Present made to him of the Emperors Picture set with Diamonds, to the value of One thousand Rixdollers.

The preparations made by the Turks seem to be only designed for sea service, which inclines us to believe, that the Vissers intentions are rather to fall upon some Island in the Mediterranean, then to invade either Hungary or Poland.

Genova, Dec. 3. Since the late dispute with the Rotterdam man of war about salutes, it is ordered here, that upon the appearance of any man of war before this Port, a vessel shall be sent out some Leagues to sea, to inform them what civilities are required from them upon their entry into the Port.

From Milan we are told that the Duke d' Ossuna has caused a Decree to be publisht, that none of the lesser Officers of Horse or Foot of any of the Regiments or Tercias, of what nation soever, shall be permitted to carry such Fire-Arms as are forbid by the old Ordinances, nor shall be exempted from such Contributions or Subsidies, as are imposed upon the other subjects of that State; and that upon all offences against the Law, they shall submit to the ordinary justice of the place.

On Friday last Signior Casati, a Member of the Council Royal, went thence on his way for Rome to defend the Interests of his Catholick Majesty in point of jurisdiction, which is said to have received much prejudice of late from the Ecclesiastical Court.

The Duke has ordered some Troops of Horse to march to joyne with several Companies of Foot which are to be drawn out of the Garison of Alexandria, to reduce the people of the Marquisate of Spigno to obedience, who have it seems, taken Arms against the soldiers which are in Garison in the Castle.

From Turin we are advised, that a Palace is there preparing for the reception of the Bishop of Laon, who intends on his way to Rome, to make a visit to Madam, to whom he is related.

Venice, Dec. 6. On Monday the first instant arrived here a Courier from Dalmatia, dispatched hither by the General, to inform, that the Bassa of Bosnia, had sent to desire him to withdraw his forges out of certain places upon the confines, which he pretends were not by any agreement to remain in the hands of this Republick; to which the General had answered, that it was not in his power to do it, the possession being by the late Treaty of peace left to the Republick: the Bassa seems resolved not to permit the Republick to enjoy any of the dependencies, but only such places which they conquered by force of Arms; intimating thereby, that only Cliffa with some small territory thereto adjacent shall continue to this Republick; but not the Campagne and Countrey, which has for many years been possessed by us.

By the same Pacquet we are farther advised, that the said Bassa had sent Four hundred Horse to Ternis upon the instigation of one Filiponich, a person of great wealth and interest in those parts, by whose authority, and assistance he hoped so to order affairs, as to oblige the Generals forces to quit their Quarters in those parts, whose principal Officer (of the Family of Cornaro) had refused to dislodge, without express order from his General; but upon the approach of these Four hundred Horse, he was seized on, and by them conducted to Sebenico, where they left him, telling him, that was the City where he ought to take up his Quarters.

The Bassa has since this, sent a message to the General to let him know, that he intends not to proceed any farther in the Treaty about the Limits, till the next Spring, and if by that time, he were not resolved to withdraw his forces, as was desired, he should be obliged to take up his Quarters there, with 30000 men at his heels.

On Wednesday last an extraordinary Council was held upon this subject, and Letters dispatched to Eayly Molino at Constantinople, ordering him to sound the mind of the Grand Segnior: our greatest doubts of the intentions of that Court, arise from our former Letters from those parts, which informed us, that the Bassa was instructed upon his Entry into his Government, to hold off, and not to be over-forward in compliance with the desires of this Republick, admonishing us so to order our affairs, that we might not be surpris'd by any accident.

The Spanish Ambassador is in daily expectation of the arrival here of the Marquis de Malagon on his return from his Ambassy to Vienna, with all his Family, on his way for Spain.

The Cavalier Verneda is restored to his former Charge and Employment in this Republick, as principal Engineer, and Overseer of all the Fortifications, with a liberal Salary of Two thousand Ducats a year, and a Present of a Chain of Gold, to the value of One thousand Ducats, in acknowledgement of the many services he has done to the Republick for the space of about 26 years.

Paris, Dec. 16. On Saturday last his Majesty with the Court returned hither from Versailles, where a Marriage was the night before consummated between the Duke of Nevers and Madamoiselle de Tiange; since this, for the greater solemnity of the said Marriage, the Court has been entertain'd at the Louvre in the Marquis de Montespan's apartment, with a Ball and Comedy; and his Majesty to shew his satisfaction with the Match, has been pleas'd to make rich Presents to the Bride.

The Ambassador from the King of Ardres in Guiny, called by the name of Matthos Lopez, is at present lodged at the Hofel de Luynes, and is in little time to make his entry with extraordinary Magnificence, and to remove to the house set apart for the entertainment of Extraordinary Ambassadors.

His Majesty intends immediately after Christmas day, to make a journey to Rochelet, to give order for the manning and fitting out of his Fleet to return again in 15 days, and afterwards to take order for his March, with a considerable force to Lille, where he designs to continue about a month.

The Count de Windisgratz, Ambassador from his Imperial Majesty, is lately arriv'd here, but appears not as yet in publick.

Hague, Dec. 18. The States of Holland are in daily consultation about the best ways of raising moneys for the Equipping of the Fleet, the levying of new forces, and recruiting the Old standing Regiments: most of the rest of the Provinces have already declared for the Recruits; only the Deputies of Zealand have suspended their Resolution, till a Fonds be established for the maintenance of the Army; but so, as not to oppose what shall be judged necessary by the rest of the Provinces. But the States General on Tuesday last, ordered an Express to be sent to them, to press them to a more vigorous and hearty assent to the Recruits, which they think convenient, to have supplied with as much speed as is possible, that so they may proceed to the new Levies presently after Christmas.

The Bishop of Munster hath given out Commissions for Fourteen Regiments, which is supposed to be a greater force then is necessary for the prosecution of his pretensions against the Duke of Brunswick Wolfenbutel, who is preparing for his defence; and hath placed a Garrison of 1000 or 1200 Men into the Town of Hochster, to which he pretends as Protector, but the Bishop of Munster as Lord; putting in his Claim to it, as a dependency upon his Abbey of Corby. The Duke of Zelle is said to have lately given out Commissions for the raising of Two thousand Horse.

The Duke of Newburgh hath a design to repair the Fortifications of Dusseldorp, a considerable Pass upon the Rhine, and to put it into such a posture, that it may not easily fall into the hands of such, as may that way give a disturbance to the Empire: He therefore sent to the States, to desire them to lend him an able Engenier, who may assist in that work. He is grown of late somewhat jealous of the intentions of the French, it having been confidently reported, that they have desired Winter Quarters (but for money) for 4000 Men in the Country of Fuillers.

Dublin, Dec. 6. One of the Pacquet-boats of this place, called the Guist, hither bound from England, was lately call away at Arkloe, to the Southwards of Wicklow, about 30 miles from this place; she had on board her Forty eight persons, whereof Twenty four finding her on ground, conveyd themselves with the Pacquet, into the little Boat, which immediately sunk, by reason of its overlading, and all the people upon her perished; the rest who remained on board, sent out a strong bodied able Swimmer, with a long Rope to Land, which was not above 30 yards distant from the vessel, where fastening the Rope, Twenty one persons with some difficulty were by that means preserved, but Three were drowned by the way; amongst those who perished on this occasion, are reckoned Doctor Tate Dean of Kilkenny, with his Brother, one Mr. George Coney, Mr. Penchan a London Merchant, Captain Knowles of Finglasse, Captain Cartwright of Waterford, with other passengers and seamen, to the number of 27 persons.

An Advertisement.

Novemb. 22. Lost from Ahan a Sad Brown Mare, about Five years old, betwixt 14 and 15 hands high, being a kinde of a Barbe; with a Whisk Tail, a long Neck; one White Foot behinde, and a small Star in the Forehead. Whoever shall bring tidings of her, to Mr. William Evans, over-against the Fleece Tavern in Bridges-street in Covent Garden, shall have Three pounds for his pains.