SOCIAL SECURITY ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Notice of Submission of the Income Support (General) Amendment (No. 3) Regulations 1992

The Social Security Advisory Committee gives notice that it has been asked by the Secretary of State for Social Security under section 172 of the Social Security Administration Act 1992 to consider and report on proposed regulations which would be to ensure that single people and couples without dependent children who are not actively seeking work have no access to Income Support payments on grounds of hardship. However, where the partner of an unemployed person is in receipt of an Income Support Disability Premium the proposal is to retain the existing access to hardship payments.

A short explanatory note provided by the Department of Social Security is appended to this notice. The Committee will consider representations on the subject received not later than Wednesday, 16th September 1992. These should be addressed to Mr. L. C. Smith, The Secretary, Social Security Advisory Committee, Room 458, New Court, Carey Street, London WC2A 2LS, from whom a note setting out the changes may be obtained. Representations will be accepted from Northern Ireland where similar provisions will be introduced.

Explanatory Note

At present, all people who fail the actively seeking work test are brought back within the scope of the income support scheme if they can satisfy an adjudication officer that they would otherwise suffer hardship. The proposed amendment would debar a single person or member of a married or unmarried couple not responsible for a dependent child who fails to actively seek work from access to the hardship provision and so preclude them from receiving income support. However, the exclusion from income support will not apply if the partner of the unemployed person is in receipt of a disability premium.

Unemployed people who are members of married or unmarried couples responsible for dependent children will continue to retain access to the hardship provision. Single parents with dependent children in receipt of income support are not required to actively seek work.

Statutes in Force

A vital reference work on the law of the land

What is Statutes in Force?

Statutes in Force is the official revised edition of the statutes. It provides the text (without commentary) of the current statute law of the land, in a way which is comprehensive convenient

constantly updated

The complete edition consists of 107 looseleaf binders which contain hole-punched crown quarto (246 x 189mm) booklets - giving a total of some 60,000 pages. The Acts are arranged, not in purely chronological order, but classified into 125 groups according to subject matter.

Statutes in Force is intended to be a permanently renewable edition of revised statutes. It is kept up to date in a number of ways:

- The issue of new Acts for insertion into their appropriate groups (they are published in complete text form usually within two months after Royal Assent)
- The issue of instructions for the removal of repealed Acts
- The publication of revised reissues of heavily-amended Acts
- Cumulative supplements for each affected group giving particulars of amendments and partial repeals (pending their eventual incorporation in revised reissues of the affected Acts).

Customers may obtain copies of any individual Act in the Statutes in Force edition. This service will be of most benefit when ordering heavily amended Acts which have been revised and re-issued or Acts which are now out-of-print in the original (Queen's Printer) version.

There's a free leaflet on Statutes in Force available from:
