TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACTS

BIRMINGHAM CITY COUNCIL

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACTS

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990

Extension to the boundary of Edgbaston Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given in pursuance of sections 69 and 70 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990 that the City of Birmingham considers it expedient that the boundary of the said Conservation Area be extended to include the area described in the Schedule of this notice on 17th September 1992.

The character of Edgbaston as a garden suburb was established in the early 19th Century. Efforts to preserve the spacious and green nature of Edgbaston have for the most part continued into the 20th Century with high quality design and good landscaping. The Conservation Area Boundary has been extended because of the higher value now placed on Victorian, Edwardian and 1930's buildings. It is thought that the inclusion of the areas listed in the Schedule will enhance the character and appearance of the Conservation Area as a whole.

The effect of designation of the Conservation Area may be summarised as follows:

- Where any application for planning permission for development of land in or adjacent to the Conservation Area is made to the Council and the development would in the opinion of the Council affect the character or appearance of the Conservation Area the application will be subject to the special procedure in section 73 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990.
- Anyone wishing to demolish a building or part of a building situate within the Conservation Area must apply for consent for demolition to the Local Planning Authority. Some buildings may be exempt from these requirements.
- Anyone wishing to cut down, top, lop and uproot a tree situate within the Conservation Area must give 6 weeks prior notice of his intention to the Local Planning Authority.

A map of the Conservation Area may be inspected free of charge during normal office hours at the Department of Planning and Architecture, Baskerville House, Broad Street, Birmingham B1 2NA.

SOUTH OXFORDSHIRE DISTRICT COUNCIL

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990—SECTION 69

Designation of Extension to Henley Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that the South Oxfordshire District Council in pursuance of its powers under section 69 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990 has designated a further part of Henley as an extension to the existing Conservation Area.

Notice is further given that the designation of this area as a Conservation Area makes it an offence, subject to certain exceptions, to demolish any building or structure within the area without the consent of the Council as Local planning authority. It is also an offence to fell, top, lop or in any way damage or destroy a tree within the Conservation Area, unless 6 weeks prior notice in writing is given to the Council. Designation of this area also has the effect that development permitted under the Town and Country Planning General Development Order 1988 is subject to restrictions and exclusions which do not apply to other areas.

Further information may be obtained from the Chief Executive, PO Box 21, Council Offices, Crowmarsh, Wallingford (telephone Wallingford 35351) to whom any notices relating to trees in the Conservation Area should be sent.

Statutes in Force

A vital reference work on the law of the land

What is Statutes in Force?

Statutes in Force is the official revised edition of the statutes. It provides the text (without commentary) of the current statute law of the land, in a way which is comprehensive

constantly updated

The complete edition consists of 107 looseleaf binders which contain hole-punched crown quarto (246 x 189mm) booklets - giving a total of some 60,000 pages. The Acts are arranged, not in purely chronological order, but classified into 125 groups according to subject matter.

Statutes in Force is intended to be a permanently renewable edition of revised statutes. It is kept up to date in a number of ways:

- The issue of new Acts for insertion into their appropriate groups (they are published in complete text form usually within two months after Royal Assent)
- The issue of instructions for the removal of repealed Acts
- The publication of revised reissues of heavily-amended Acts
- Cumulative supplements for each affected group giving particulars of amendments and partial repeals (pending their eventual incorporation in revised reissues of the affected Acts).

Customers may obtain copies of any individual Act in the Statutes in Force edition. This service will be of most benefit when ordering heavily amended Acts which have been revised and re-issued or Acts which are now out-of-print in the original (Queen's Printer) version.

There's a free leaflet on Statutes in Force available from:

A Weekly Edition is also published, and bound volumes are issued periodically during the session. Standing Orders can be accepted, if a suitable deposit is sent, for debates on definite subjects.
