- Demolition of buildings in a conservation area: Most buildings within a conservation area shall not be demolished without the consent in writing of the Council. Details of the exemptions are available from the Local Planning Authority. - Development in a conservation area: The enlargement and alteration of properties in a conservation area without the need for planning permission is limited by the provisions of the Town and Country Planning General Development Order 1988. The following are included in the restrictions. Any building or enclosure within the curtilage of a dwellinghouse required for a purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwelling (including swimming pools and garden sheds) is limited to 10 cubic metres in extent. Planning permission is required for any addition to a roof (including dormer windows) or for any extension to a single family dwellinghouse whose cubic content exceeds 50 cubic metres or 10 per cent of the original dwellinghouse subject to a maximum of 115 cubic metres, whichever is the greater. Planning permission is also required for the application of cladding to the exterior of a dwelling with stone, artificial stone, timber, plastic or tiles.

- Trees in a conservation area: Any person wishing to cut down, top, lop or uproot any tree in a conservation area which is not already included in a Tree Preservation Order, must give six weeks notice of his intention to the Council. Where such work is begun or a tree is wilfully damaged or destroyed without due notice or without the Council's specific consent within the six weeks' period, the person concerned will become liable to the penalties applicable to similar contraventions of a Tree Preservation Order and the owner liable to replant with a tree of appropriate size and species.
