

Hambourg April 16. Letters from Copenhagen give an Account, that 8 Men of War with a like Number of Frigates had put to Sea from thence; and there being 4 Swedish Men of War with as many Frigates at the Mouth of the Trave. 'tis likely an Action may happen between these two Squadrons. 'Tis advised from Petersbourg the 26th past, that the Czar, Admiral Apraxin, and Vice-Admiral G. uys, went on the 21st to Cronflot, to view the Russian Fleet, which was lying ready, and give Order for its putting to Sea. Letters from Stralfund say, that a Packet-boat was arrived there with Advices from Sweden, importing, that the Inhabitants of the Country adjacent to Stockholm, were under Apprehension of an Irruption by the Muscovites who were reported to be marching round the Bothnick Gulph: Those Advices added, that most of the Troops designed to be transported hither, and which were arrived in Schonon, were countermanded, and are to remain in Sweden for the better Security of that Kingdom; and that the Prince of Hesse Cassel had taken great Pains to put the Country into as good a Posture of Defence as the present Circumstances of Affairs will permit. We have an Account from Berlin, that the King of Prussia has ordered a Detachment of the Regiment of Wartensleben, and of the Battalion of Leben, to march to reinforce the Posts possessed by his Troops in Pomerania.

Ratisbon, April 11. On the 8th Instant the Dyet came to a Resolution for furnishing 5000 Florins to repair the Fortifications of Kehl; and will desire the Emperour to levy that Sum by Execution from such States of the Empire as are yet in Arrear of the six Roman Months voted for this Service in the Year 1703. Letters of the 7th Instant from Guntzburg on the Danube relate, that the Elector of Bavaria, accompanied by the three eldest Princes his Sons, arrived there that Day, and continued their Journey next Morning. His Electoral Highness with his Consort and all his Court, is now at Dachau, a Country Seat three Leagues distant from Munich; but will not make his Publick Entry into that Capital before next Month.

Brussels, April 13. Mr. Cadogan arrived here the 11th Instant from Vienna, and proceeded this Afternoon on his Journey to Holland. During his stay here he was twice in Conference with the Imperial Minister Count Koningseck, as also with M. Vandenberg Deputy of the States General. The Count will set out to Morrow for Antwerp, in order to prepare for renewing the Conferences with the Plenipotentiaries of the States-General at Mr. Cadogan's Return thither; and M. Vandenberg sets out the 16th for the Hague, having received Leave from his Principals to take a Turn thither.

Hague, April 16. Mr. Cadogan his Majesty of Great Britain's Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to this State, arrived here yesterday Morning from Flanders. He had a Conference immediately with the Deputies for Foreign Affairs, and with those of the Council of State (at which Mr. Walpole, the British Minister, was present) and made a Report to them of the Success of his Negotiations at Vienna relating to the Treaty of Barrier.

Hague, April 19. This Morning the Deputies for Foreign Affairs communicated to Mr. Cadogan the Resolution of the States upon the Report he had made on Monday last concerning his Negotiations at Vienna. The States of Holland separated this Day; it is said they are come to a Resolution to agree to a Project for taxing each Family in Proportion to their Riches. This Tax we are told will be divided into seven Classes, and that the Families which are taxed the highest will pay 100 Crowns a Year, and those who are taxed the lowest, will pay five Florins.

St. James's, April 9. This Day Count Schonborn, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Mentz, had a private Audience of his Majesty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Townshend, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Master of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards Audience of their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales; to both which he was conducted by the Master of the Ceremonies.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint
