The London Gazette.

Publified by Authority.

Frim Saturday May 14. to Cuesday May 17. 1715.

St. James's, May 15.

HE following Address having been transmitted from Ireland to the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, were, in his Lordship's Absence, presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable James Stanhope, Esq, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addrefs of the High-Sheriff, Juffices of the Peace, Grand-Jury and Gentlemen, Freeholders of the County of Weltmeath.

An humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Alder men, Sheriffs, Burgeffes, and other Inhabitants of the County and Town of Carrickfergus.

Which Addreffes his Majelty was pleafed is receive very gracioufly.

Vienna, May 8. A Guard of 20 Men of the Garrifon of this City, is placed at the Gate of the House where Ibrahim Aga the Turkish Envoy is lodged, to prevent his being incommoded from the Curiofity of great Numbers of People, who otherwife would prefs in to fee him. He is allowed for his Subfiftance 85 German Florins a Day. 'Tis faid he will not have his Audience of Prince Eugene of Savoy before the End of this Week; and that the Court will delay his Departure from hence as long as poffible, in order to fecure M. Fleischman (the Emperor's Relident with the Port) from an Insult, in case Hostilities fhould be begun on our Frontiers before he has Notice to retire. The Empress Dowager Amalia, with the twon young Archdutcheffes her Daughters, made a Visit Ye-sterday to the Emperor and Empress at Laxembourg. They were received with great Ceremony, and dined with their Imperial Majefties in the Apartment of the Emprefs, who gave the upper Hand to the Emprefs Amglia. After which their Imperial Majeflies took the Deversion of Hunting; And the Elector of Trier arriving st Laxembourg at 6 in the Evening, went and met theil Majefties as they were returning from Hunting. His E lectoral Highness is lodged in the Caftle of Laxembourg with the Gentlemen of his Court, and fuch of his House with the Gentlemen of his Court, and uch of his Houle hold as are necessary about his Person; the reft of his Domeflicks are longed in the Villages, adjacent to the Seat and to this City. 'Tis talked at Court, that th Elector Palatine is expected here very fhortly. The Im parial Cuiraffiers of Schelling which is one of the fineffi Regiments among the Emperor's. Forces, has received Orders, as have also fome others as well Horfe as Foosy is held themefore in a Beachage to pare built hor is to hold themselves in a Readiness to march, without its being certainly known whither; but 'tis fuppofed it will being certainly known which your is impored it with be towards the Frontier of Silefia, there to form a Body of 4000 Men; who may observe the Motions of the Swedes, in case they floud attempt to penetrate into Poland, or to diffurb the Peace of the Empire. General Wackerbaart WEAS this Day to Laxembourg with Prince Eugene, having received Orders to fet out Poft in 4 or, 5 Days to go and take upon him the Command of the Saxon Forces which are marched to the Pruffian Camp near Sterin, Ratisbon: May 13. On the roth Inflant the Dyet took Into Confideration the Means of repairing and providing the Fortreffes of Kehl and Philipsbourg at the common rExpence of the Empire. General Roht'in a Letter of the Sth Inflant has given Notice, that the high Waters 'of the Rhine have worn away already part of the Dam and Glatis at Kehl, and that the Counterform would be in Danger, if not prevented by timely Repair, to which end ho demands a fpeedy fupply of Money. The Imperial Commiflioner Prince Lowenstein is not yet arrived, being detained at Vienna by his private Affairs. Count Furthemberg, who has been employed by the Emperour for fome Years in the Upper Circles, went thro' this Place laft Week for Vienna, being named a principal Judge or chief Officer of the Imperial Chamber at Wetzlar.

Stetin, May 13. The Marquis de Croiffi, Envoy Exraordinary from the Court of France, had Audience of the King of Pruffia on the 9th Inflant in the Camp, and delivered two Letters to his Majefly: On the 12th that Minister fet out for Stralfund. 'Tis affirmed that his Pruffian Majefly has declared he will wait till the 20th Inflant the King of Sweden's Resolution on certain Terms of Accommodation, which the Marquis de Croiffi is to propose to him; and in the mean time the March of the Prince of Anhalt-Deflau, with aBody of Pruffians in order to diflodge the Swedes from the Island of Usedom, is suspended: All the Saxons from Lubben have joyned the Pruffian Army.

joyned the Pruffian Army. Hague, May 21. The States of this Province of Hol-land and Westfrifeland adjourned themselves on the 18th to this Day, and accordingly they met again this Morning. The Men of War which are to form the Dutch Squadron defigned for the Baltick, are to rendez-vous in the Texel to Morrow; Rear Admiral de Veth is appointed to command it, and 'tis faid he has Orders to make directly to the Kattegat near the Sound, there to meet and join the British Squadron, to proceed with them into that Sea, and to affilt in feeing the Merchant Ships of both Nations bound for the Places there now in the Possession relations bound for the rates there note in the Possession of the Muscovites fafe into their respe-dive Ports. The young Princes's Carolina Daughter of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, continues in very good Health: The Ladies of her Court will be treated to Night by Mrs. Cadogan: Her Highness waits only for a fair Wind to imbark at Rotterdam for Eng-land, her own and her Retinue's Baggage having been lent Yesterday on board the Yatchts. Prince Kurakia, Minister of the Czar of Muscovy, went from hence as Evening to pais over to England in the Packet-boat. the Bilhop of Munifer baving for fome Years kept a Gar-ilon of his own Troops in Bentheim, the Count of that Name has lately represented to the States General, that those Troops are very burthensom to the Inliabitents, that the former Bilhop of Munfter had promifed to withdraw that Garrison, and therefore defires them b use such Inflances as may prevail with the present relate of that See to withdraw the fame, the rather becaple that Place is fituate on the Frontiers of the Province of Over-Yffel: Their High Mightineffes have fent this Remonstrance to their Deputies at Antwerp, with order to prefs Count Koningfeck to use his good Offices to the End the faid Troops of Munfter may be now withdrawn.

Edinburgh, May 6. On the 4th Inflant the General Alfembly of the Church of Scotland methere, and chofe for their Moderator Mr. William Carftares one of his Masfty's Chaplains. His Majefty's Commiffion to the Right Honourable the Earl of Rothes was read, as was likewife his Majefty's molt gracious Letter to the Affembly. His Majefty's High Commiffioner made a Speech to the Affembly, which was anfwered on their Part by the Moderator, and a Committee was appointed to draw up a dutiful Anfwer to his Majefty's molt graciotis Letter, which being reported this Day was unanimoufly approved and prefented to the high Commiffioner to be tranfmitted to his Majefty.

Edinburgh, May 9. Mr. James Maitland Minister of Innerkethnie, and his Brother Mr. John Maitland Minister of Forgue, having been fulpended by the Provincial Synod of Aberdeen for not observing the 20th of January laft as the Day of Thankfgiving for his Majefty King George's happy Acceffion to the Crown, and for not praying for his Majefty by Name, they did appeal from the faid Synod to the General Allembly: Who having confidered •