Genoa, June 18.

THIS Week arrived here the Marquis de los Balbases, on a Galley belonging to this Republick, which was sent to receive him at Antibes. Another of our Gallies is gone to Marseilles, there to take on board Sig. Durazzo, who has been Envoy Extraordinary from this State to the Courts of Great Britain and France, and is daily expected here. Mr. D'Avenant, his Britannick Majesty's Envoy to the great Duke of Tuscany, is arrived at Florence. Three Companies of Soldiers are returned hither from Final, being part of those employed in demolishing the Fortifications there: That Demolition is continued, tho' slowly, for fear of damaging the adjacent Houses by blowing up the Works.

Vienna, June 19. The Emperour, the Empress, and the Elector of Trier, arrived yesterday at the Favorita, a Palace in our Suburbs, from a Journey which they had made for Devotion to Marrenzell. The Presents which their Imperial Majesties offered there at the Shrine of the Blessed Virgin, were a Crofs of Silver and a golden Heart enriched with Diamonds; and his Electoral Highness gave a pair of Candlesticks of considerable Value. The Government of Comorra, which became vacant by the Death of Prince Mansfeld, is given to the Prince of Beveren. Count Traun, the chief Imperial Commissioner at Presbourg, having delivered to the Dyet of the States of Hungary their Articles or Acts approved and signed by the Emperour, those States have deputed the Cardinal of Saxe-Zeits and the Palatine Palfi, to make their Compliments of Thanks to his Imperial Majesty. Count Trautsmansdorff being made President of the Chamber of Finances at Gra'z, will 'tis supposed be soon recalled from his Ambassy in Swisserland. This Week a considerable Sum of Money has been sent to Hungary, to pay the Imperial Troops: Men are kept continually at Work in repairing and augmenting the Fortifications of Buda; and some Regiments are ordered to advance into Transylvania.

Ratisbon, June 24. Count Metternich, the Son, has by the last Post from Berlin received the Title of Privy-Counsellour, and full Powers from the King of Prussia to be his Minister in the Electoral College, in the Room of his Father who is gone to the Court of Vienna. On the 21st the Ministers of the Dyet had again the Affair of Kehl and Philipsbourg under Deliberation, but did not bring it to a Conclusion.

Hambourg June 21. The Prussian Troops appointed to assist in blocking up Wismar, having marched on the 23d from Lentzen, have by this time joined the Danes who are to form that Blockade; the Number of those Prussians is 6000. Yesterday arrived here two Ships from Holland, laden with Cannon-Bullets for the King of Prussia's Service, which are to be sent to Berlia and thence to Pomerania. 'Tis advised from Copenhagen, that Vice-Admiral Seefted is using all Diligence to get the Squadron fitted out and manned there, which is appointed to Sail to the Coast of Pomerania, to assist in the Attack which 'tis supposed will be made on the Isle of Rugen, soon after the Junction of the Danish and Prussian Armies, which 'tis reckoned will be within 8 or 10 Days. That Squadron will consist of 1 Man of War of the Line, 7 or 8 Frigates, 2 Bomb-Vessels, 2 Fireships, and 4 Prames or large Flat-bottomed Boats, one of which is to carry 20 Guns, another 12, and a third 10, the fourth is to serve only to carry Artillery or other Stores from on Board the Ships to Land. 'Tis said that Admiral Rabe, who continues with 13 Men of War at Bornholm, will see this Squadron to the Place where it is designed to act. These Letters from Copenhagen add, that Vice-Admiral Gabel's Return thither through the Sound was daily expected: 'Twas thought he would bring under his Convoy a good Number of Merchant-Ships from Norway; or that if they were not ready to come with him at a short Warning, he would leave 2 Men of War and 3 Frigates in the Categat to take Care of them. We have Advice, that the Duke of Mecklenbourg refusing to let the King of Denmark have Possession of Rostock, where his Danish Majesty would keep his Magazines, has already formed a Garrison there of 2000 Militia and 500 Men of regular Troops, and set 2000 Peasants to work upon the Fortifications; and his Highness seems determin'd to stay in Person in the Place to defend it.

Hague July 2. The extraordinary Deputies from North-Holland, who arrived here the 26th past, and have since had some Conferences with the ordinary Deputies of the States of Holland, concerning Means for regulating and settling the Finances of the Province on such a Foot, as that the Arrears due to the Troops may be paid and the publick Credit re-established, are gone home, without bringing that Affair to a Conclusion, having referred it to the next Session of the States of the Province: In the mean time the Quarter of South Holland has consented to give two Months Pay, of 6 Weeks each Month, to the Troops which are on the Reparition of North-Holland. The Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg left this Place on the 30th to go to Rotterdam, and thence to Flanders and Brabant. He expects to find at Brussels his Father's Leave to travel through France; he has a Retinue of 36 Persons.
