CAMBRIDGESHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL

The County of Cambridgeshire (Northern Historic City Centre, Cambridge) (Pedestrian Zone and Peripheral Streets) Experimental Variation Traffic Order 1994.

Notice is hereby given that on 3rd October 1994, the Cambridgeshire County Council made an Order under sections 9 and 10 and Part IV of Schedule 9 to the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 ("the Act") as amended and of all other enabling powers after consultation with the chief officer of police in accordance with Part III of Schedule 9 to the Act, the effect of which is to permit public service vehicles, being used by or on behalf of a zone permit holder for the provision of a free bus service, to proceed through the bollard barrier in Senate House Hill in a southerly direction to gain access to King's Parade.

The reason for proceeding by way of an experiment is to assess the effects of the Variation Traffic Order for a trial period and if found necessary, to modify the Variation Traffic Order in light of the experience gained, before consideration is given to making the provisions of the Experimental Variation Traffic Order permanent.

A copy of the Experimental Variation Traffic Order, which comes into operation on 11th October 1994, a map showing its effects, a statement of the reasons for having made the Experimental Variation Traffic Order and a copy of the Orders varied or suspended by the Experimental Variation Traffic Order for its duration, may be inspected at the offices of the undersigned, during normal office hours.

The experiment can continue in force for up to 18 months before a permanent Order is considered. Within a period of 6 months from the coming into operation of the Experimental Variation Traffic Order any person may object to the making of an Order making permanent the provisions of the Experimental Variation Traffic Order. Any objection should be in writing, giving the grounds on which it is made and be addressed to the Director of Transportation at the address given below. Any comments in support of the Experimental Variation Traffic Order are also invited during the period available for the lodging of objections.

Any person wishing to question the validity of the Experimental Variation Traffic Order or of any of its provisions on the grounds that it is not within the powers of the relevant enabling Act or that a requirement of any such enabling Act or of any relevant regulations made thereunder has not been complied with may, within 6 weeks from the date on which the Experimental Variation Order was made, make application for the purpose to the High Court.

If any person requires further information on the effects of the Experimental Variation Traffic Order they should contact Richard Preston on Cambridge (0223) 317727.

J. M. Sharpe, Director of Transportation

Castle Court,
Shire Hall, Cambridge CB3 0AP.

4th October 1994.

Hansard

The Official Verbatim Report of Parliamentary Proceedings

Hansard reflects opinion on all topics of the day and is of great interest to a wide range of business and professional groups. In addition to a factual word-for-word transcription of speeches in debate, it contains the answers to all Parliamentary Questions, complete Division Lists, and following each session details of the composition of the House. Proceedings up to 10 p.m. each day are reported in the issue on sale at 8.30 the following morning at the Government Bookshop in Holborn. A Weekly Edition is also published, and bound volumes are issued periodically during the session. Standing Orders can be accepted, if a suitable deposit is sent, for debates on definite subjects.

NOTICE

All Notices and Advertisements are published in the London Gazette at the risk of the Advertiser and at the discretion of the Editor. Whilst every endeavour will be made to ensure that the publication is made in accordance with the advertiser's requirements the Crown accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage howsoever arising from either a failure to meet those requirements or in respect of any errors or omissions which may inadvertently be made in respect of those requirements or in connection with any notice or advertisement.

Notices and Advertisements by Private Advertisers may be tendered at or sent direct by post to HMSO, The London Gazette Office, Room 418, Publications Centre, 51 Nine Elms Lane, London SW8 5DR, for insertion at the authorised rates of payment. All Notices and Advertisements must be pre-paid. The Office hours are from 8.30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays to Fridays, inclusive. Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post must be accompanied by postal orders or cheques made payable to The London Gazette.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes (other than under Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925 and section 28, Water Resources Act, 1963) or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, by a member of any body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised by the Board of Trade for the purposes of Section 389 (1) of the Companies Act, 1985, or by a member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators. Notices of Dissolution of Partnership which are signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives will be accepted if signed or attested as above. A Notice not signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such Notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925, will not be inserted unless they are signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court or by a duly authorised official of a London Clearing Bank or the Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration relating to the estate to which the advertisement refers is produced for inspection at the time the advertisement is submitted.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.
