HOME OFFICE

BETTING GAMING AND LOTTERIES ACT 1963

Directions Given by the Secretary of State for the Home Department under Paragraph 14B of Schedule 2 to the Betting, Gaming and Lotteries Act 1963.

The Secretary of State, in pursuance of the powers conferred on him by paragraph 14B of Schedule 2 to the Betting, Gaming and Lotteries Act 1963, hereby gives the following directions:

1. These directions shall come into force on 15th November 1994.
2. Insofar as the rules applicable to any competition held by a registered pools promoter (hereinafter a "promoter") provide that if none of the bets in the competition qualifies for, or for a share in, the first prize, the whole or part of the amount of that prize shall be carried over to the next relevant competition, those rules shall have effect subject to the following limitations.
3. The rules shall not operate so as to permit or require the whole or part of the first prize of a competition (the particular competition) to be carried over to the next relevant competition except:
 - (a) where:
 - (i) there has been no carry-over of the whole or part of the first prize in any previous competition, held by the promoter, to the particular competition; and
 - (ii) the promoter has, under paragraph 4 below, a roll-over credit available;
 - (b) where:
 - (i) the carry-over from the particular competition would be the second carry-over in sequence of the whole or part of the first prize between successive competitions held under the same rules by the promoter;
 - (ii) there has been, within the six months prior to the date on which the result of the particular competition was determined, a second carry-over in a sequence of successive carry-overs of the whole or part of the first prize in lotteries forming part of the National Lottery; and
 - (iii) the roll-over credit arising (under paragraph 4 below), from the first carry-over in that sequence of carry-overs in lotteries forming part of the National Lottery has either not yet been relied upon for the purposes of a carry-over under subparagraph (a) above or was relied upon for the purposes of the carry-over to the particular competition; or

(c) where:

(i) the carry-over from the particular competition would be the third carry-over in sequence of the whole or part of the first prize between successive competitions held under the same rules by the promoter; and in which case any amount authorised by the rules to be carried over to the next relevant competition shall be so carried over.

(ii) there has been, within the six months prior to the date on which the result of the particular competition was determined, a third carry-over in a sequence of successive carry-overs of the whole or part of the first prize in lotteries forming part of the National Lottery; and

4. For the purposes of paragraph 3(a), whether a promoter has a roll-over credit available shall be determined as follows:

(a) for each carry-over of prize money in a lottery forming part of the National Lottery (other than the second and third carry-overs in any sequence of carry-overs in successive competitions) a promoter shall be treated as having one roll-over credit available, that is a credit which entitles a promoter to carry over on a single occasion only any amount authorised by the rules to be carried over to the next relevant competition;

(b) once a roll-over credit has been relied upon to carry over an amount from a competition to the next relevant competition under paragraph 3(a) above, it shall cease to be available;

(c) roll-over credits shall be so relied upon in chronological order according to the date of the draw in the lottery forming part of the National Lottery which gave rise to them; and

(d) if a promoter does not rely upon a roll-over credit so as to entitle him to carry over any amount authorised by the rules to be carried over to a competition taking place within the period of 6 months beginning with the date of the draw in the lottery forming part of the National Lottery giving rise to the roll-over credit, that roll-over credit shall cease to be available.

5. Expressions used in these directions and paragraph 14A of Schedule 2 to the Betting, Gaming and Lotteries Act 1963 have the same meaning in these Directions as in that paragraph.
