PLANNING ACT 1990THE HISTORIC BUILDINGS AND MONUMENTS
COMMISSION FOR ENGLAND*PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990Designation of the Latchmere Estate Conservation Area Extension*

The Historic Buildings and Monuments Commission for England (otherwise known as "English Heritage") hereby gives notice that under sections 69 and 70 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990 ("the 1990 Act") as made exercisable in Greater London by English Heritage under section 70(1) of the 1990 Act and after having consulted the London Borough of Wandsworth and after having obtained the consent of the Secretary of State for National Heritage the land and buildings at and in the vicinity of Latchmere School, Burns Road S.W.11, in the London Borough of Wandsworth and more particularly shown on a plan No. EH/1 have been designated as an extension of the Latchmere Estate Conservation Area with effect from 22nd February 1995.

9.30 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Mondays to Fridays excluding Bank Holidays.

A conservation area is an area of special architectural or historic interest, the character or appearance of which it is desirable to preserve or enhance. The demolition in whole or in part of any building within a conservation area, with certain exceptions, requires conservation area consent from the local planning authority.

Any person wishing to cut down, top, lop or uproot any tree in a conservation area must notify the local planning authority at least six weeks before undertaking the work to enable the authority to consider making a Tree Preservation Order.

A local authority is required to pay special attention to the desirability of preserving or enhancing the character or appearance of a conservation area when exercising its planning powers and to formulate and publish proposals for the preservation and enhancement of the area. Special publicity and notification arrangements apply for planning applications for development within conservation areas and permitted development rights under the General Development Order 1988 are more restricted than in areas not so designated.

Details of the full effect of designation can be obtained from the 1990 Act and other relevant legislative provisions.
