MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE FISHERIES AND FOOD

ANIMAL HEALTH ACT 1981

The Importation of Embryos, Ova and Semen Order 1980 (as amended)

The Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food by this licence issued under the Importation of Embryos, Ova and Semen Order 1980 (as amended) hereby authorise the importation into England, in accordance with the conditions set out below:

Fresh/frozen porcine semen from Member States of the European Community at ports/airports in England, until further notice or unless revoked by the Minister.

This licence hereby revokes England General Import Licence No. 92/PS/1.

This licence comes into force on 1st July 1992.

A. Valente, Officer of the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food.

CONDITIONS FOR THE IMPORTATION UNDER GENERAL LICENCE OF PORCINE SEMEN COLLECTED AND PROCESSED ON OR AFTER 1ST JANUARY 1992

1. All landings of semen must be in accordance with the provisions of the Importation of Embryos, Ova and Semen Order 1980 (as amended), and with the following provisions of this licence.
2. Each consignment of semen shall be accompanied at all times by a health certificate in accordance with Council Directive 90/429/EEC laying down the animal health requirements applicable to intra-Community trade in and imports of semen of domestic animals of the porcine species. The certificate must be signed by an official veterinarian of the exporting country, consist of a single form drawn up in at least English and be made out to a single consignee. The certificate must state that the semen was collected from boars on a collection centre which contains only animals that have not been vaccinated against Aujeszky's disease and which have reacted negatively to the serum neutralisation or to the ELISA test for Aujeszky's disease in accordance with the above Directive.
3. Each consignment of semen must be transported in a flask sealed in the presence of the certifying veterinary officer.
4. The flask shall be clearly marked with the name and address of the dispatching collection centre and the number(s) of the health certificate(s) referred to at 2 above.
5. Consignees must notify, in writing, the local Divisional Veterinary Officer of the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, of their intention to import semen, in particular the nature of the consignment and the anticipated arrival date. Such notifications must arrive at least 24 hours in advance of the expected date of import.
6. On entry the health certificate must be presented to HM Customs and Excise for checking and endorsement and then accompany the consignment to its final destination where it should be retained for a minimum period of 12 months for presentation to the Ministry on request.
7. A veterinary inspector shall have power to inspect all consignments (and accompanying certification) imported into Great Britain from another Member State at the place of destination.
8. A veterinary inspector shall have power to inspect consignments and accompanying documentation at any place and at any time where the Ministry has information leading it to suspect an infringement.

NOTE

Any expressions used in this licence have the same meaning which they bear in the Animal Health Act 1981.

This licence applies only to consignments of porcine semen collected and processed in Member States on or after 1st January 1992. Any person wishing to import porcine semen collected and processed before 1st January 1992, should apply for a specific import licence to the appropriate address below:
