To the north of the River Arrow the Conservation Area boundary incorporates Monks Court Scheduled Ancient Monument and Staik House, an imposing Grade II Listed Building. It then runs along the rear paddocks of properties lying on the north side of the approach road from the west as it enters the village. At this point, the houses and curtilages of Arrowlea (north side) and Swandrift (south side) mark the eastern edge before the boundary sweeps south then eastwards again to encompass Glen Arrow Mill, another of the Listed Buildings within the village. The eastern boundary travels south from Glen Arrow Mill, skirting Ordnance Survey field parcel No. 2148 and cutting across field parcel 2637 just to the east of School House and Court House Bungalow, as far as the drainage ditch lying just to the south of the village. The boundary follows this ditch westwards for a short distance before diverting along field boundaries to incorporate The Brouch. Skirting this group of buildings, it then retains a westerly direction along the lane from Burton Court and then the minor road as far as Tadpole Cottage, where it turns north-west and then northwards predominantly following field boundaries to the west of Green Lane and The Elms. Just to the North of The Elms, the boundary zig-zags along the edge of a number of fields around Broom Lane Cottage and Riversdale before returning back across the River Arrow to rejoin the boundary just to the north-west of Monk's Court Mound.

A plan showing this area can be inspected at the offices of the Planning Services Division, Lion House, Broad Street, Leominster, Herefordshire HR6 8BT—the office is open between 9 a.m. and 4.30 p.m. Mondays to Thursdays and from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Fridays.

The effect of the Conservation Area designation will be that:

1. the demolition of certain buildings and structures is brought within Conservation Area control;
2. 6 weeks written notice must be given to the local planning authority of any works proposed to trees in the Conservation Area;
3. permitted development rights under the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 1995 are more restricted;
4. planning applications for development which would in the opinion of the local planning authority affect the character or appearance of the Conservation Area must be given publicity;
5. the Council will give special attention to the desirability of preserving or enhancing the character and appearance of the Conservation Area, and
6. grants and loans may be payable by Historic Buildings and Monuments Commission for England towards expenditure incurred in the preservation or enhancement of the character or appearance of the Conservation Area, and for the repair of buildings in the Conservation Area.

Offences against the first three provisions may result in heavy fines or imprisonment.

Any enquiries regarding the above should be addressed to the Planning Services Division, Leominster District Council, PO Box 3, Leominster, Herefordshire HR6 8LU.
