St. James's, April 20.

T HE following Address has been presented to His Majesty.

An humble Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Air, met at Glasgow April 5. 1716. Prefented to His Majetty by Mr. Stirling, Principal of the University of Glasgow; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Loudun.

Which Addrefs His Majesty was pleafed to receive very graciously.

Madrid, April 13. Their Majefties have been lately taken up with the Ceremonies of the Paffion Week, and the Vifiting of Churches, according to the usual Manner. The 11th the Equipages of the Court began to go towards Aranjuez; the Princes will follow to Morrow; and on Wednefday the 15th the King and Queen let out for that Place. The four Secretaries are ordered to be attending, which shews that Application and Dispatch of Bufinels is intended. The Dutchels of Arcos is dead; and as the Duke has to Children, 'tis faid his Family will perfuade him to marry again. The three Ships of the Marquis Mari, which by reafon of the contrary Winds have been a whole Month in getting from Barcelona to Malaga, are ordered to convoy fome Veffels with Provisions for the Garrifon of Melilla in Africa, before they go to Cadiz to be put into the Hands of the King's Officers. The Marquis of Valdecaunas is gone away in haste to take upon him the Employment of Captain-General of the Kingdom of Valencia. 'Tis faid, that the General Don Gonzalo Chacon, formerly Governor of Ceuta, will fucceed him in the Council of War. Advices from Catalonia tell us, that the Intendant of that Country was gone to Vinaros to confer with the Intendant of Valencia, in order to fettle together the Method of making a proportionable Repartition of the Contributions in Three Spanish Ships were both Provinces. careening in the Port of Barcelona, which are to go to Majorca and take on hoard three Batralions, defigned to r lieve the Garrifon of Porto Longone This Morning the Baron de Riperda, Amhaffador from the States General of the United Provinces, made his publick Entry, and had Audience of the King being introduced and attended in the usual Form. This Mini and attended in the ulual Form. This Mini fler, to be near r the Cour, has taken a Houle at Bayona, two Leagues from Aranjuez. The Marquis Hannibal Efcoti, Envoy Extraordinary from Parma, is arrived here; he comes with a Compliment of Congratulation upon the Queen's happy Delivery. Orders are given for performing a folemn Funeral Service for the Soul of the late Most Christian King Lewis the 14th, in the Church of the Nuns of the Incarnation.

Hamburg, April 21. We have no freher Letters from Norway than those of the 7th Inflant 3 but 'tis believed that if the Danish General Lutzau has been able to maintain the Posts he guarded against the Attacks of the Swedes, till the Reinforcement which was carry'd by Vice-Admiral Gabel comes up to him, the Swedish Army will find themselves obliged to rerire. Now Wismar has surrendred, the King of Sweden is dispossed of all his Provinces in Germany. It is faid, that at the Surrender of that Town, Prince Repnin with a Detachment of the Muscoute Forces advanced to enter the Place with the other Troops, but Major General Pens having taken Post with 600 Horfe between the Gate of Lubec and the Muscoutes, acquainted them that he had Orders not to let them pass, whereupon they retired to their Camp. Count Fuchs, the Imperial Envoy to the Circle of Lower Saxony; having notified his Arrival to all the Foreign Minitiers, the British Resident Mr. Wich has been to wait on him. The 19th that Envoy received the joyful News of the Birth of an Arch-Duke on Easter Monday the 13th at Eight in the Evening.

at Eight in the Evening. Invernefs, April 10. The Countels Dowager of Sea orth has fent hither to acquaint Lieutenant General Cadogan, that her Son's People having refolved to fubmit, will bring in their Arms by the 14th Inftant; in the mean Time, for making all fure, the Parties ordered to that Side of the Country continue their March. To Morrow the Lieutenanl General will march to Fort-William, and from thence will forthwith fend a Detachment to reduce the Clan of the Macdonalds of the Iflands, which will effectually finish the little that remains to be done. Directions are given to the Coaft, to have a watchful Eye on all Veffels they shall meet and to fuffer none to go to any Port without strictly fearching them.

St. James's, April 20. His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Samuel Shute. Esq; to be Governor of New England, in the room of Elizeus Burgels, Esq; who has resigned that Government.
