KENT COUNTY COUNCIL

The Kent County Council (The Canterbury City Council) (Canterbury) (Traffic Regulation and Street Parking Places) (Amendment No. 16) Order 1996.

Notice is hereby given that Kent County Council proposes to make the above-named Order under sections 1, 1(1) and (2), 2(1) to (3), 3(2), 4(1) and 4(2), 32(1), 35(1), 45, 46, 49 and 53 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, and of all other enabling powers, and after consultation with the Chief Officer of Police in accordance with paragraph 20 of Schedule 9 to the Act.

This Order proposes to implement changes to the PARC Plan On Street Parking Scheme and will introduce parking and waiting restrictions to a number of roads which have previously been unrestricted, or will alter some restrictions currently in force. Additionally, this Order will seek to address some of the environmental problems caused by all day parking which residents have identified.

Residents of any road having two-hour or four-hour time limit parking places will be eligible to apply for a resident's parking permit. Resident's Visitors "all day" parking permits will be available for these bays. The charges for residents parking to remain unaltered for 1996:

City Centre Zone, £60 per annum; Outer Zones, £16.50 per annum; Voucher Zones, £30 per annum; Resident's Visitor Permits, £1.50 per day; Excess Charge, £30 (£20 if paid within 28 days).

The Order also proposes to:

- (i) Prohibit waiting in residents parking bays by any vehicle which is larger than the individual marked bays on the carriageway (i.e. Coaches and Heavy Goods Vehicles).
- (ii) Delete the current clause which allows the transfer of residents permits when holders sell their property to new residents, in zones where the scheme is fully subscribed. Such permits will now be made available to the next person on the waiting list.
- (iii) Permit waiting in the Voucher Parking Zones by Health Visitors, Local Inspectors (Health, Highways, Social Services etc.) and business vehicles, providing those vehicles are clearly displaying current parking permits issued by Kent County Council.

The charges for Parking Permits other than for residents shall be £80 per annum.

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990

Amendments to the Old Market Square Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that, in accordance with section 69 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990, Nottingham City Council has amended the boundary of the Old Market Square Conservation Area as set out below.

The principle effects on properties now within the conservation area are as follows:

subject to certain exceptions, buildings, or parts of buildings, within a conservation area may not be demolished without the prior consent of the City Council;
trees in a conservation area are protected by the Act against cutting down, topping, lopping, uprooting, wilful damage or destruction.

A plan showing the amended boundary of the conservation area may be seen at the Development Department, Exchange Buildings, Smithy Row, Nottingham, between 8.30 a.m. and 4.45 p.m. on Mondays to Fridays.

Brief description of amendments to the boundary

At the south-east corner of the land to the rear of 24 Low Pavement, the amended boundary will proceed further south then west following the building line of the north elevation of the Broad Marsh Centre, then turning north following the adjoining building line to return to the original boundary at a point adjoining the south-east corner of the buildings behind 14 Low Pavement. This alteration includes the open space and cliff face below Low Pavement.

At a point south of 8 Stamford Street, the new boundary turns south and then west following the building line of the Broad Marsh Centre and its access ramp. The boundary continues west up to the kerb-line of Maid Marian Way which it follows northwards to meet the original boundary.

Immediately north-west of the Salutation Public House the revised boundary extends 10 metres along Maid Marion Way where it turns north-east to run along the southern boundaries of 71 Maid Marion Way and 13 Spaniel Row to rejoin the original boundary in the centre of Spaniel Row.

At the northern end of Spaniel Row the revised boundary continues up to the centre line of Friar Lane where it turns north-east for 20 metres before turning north-west and continuing on the boundary between 34 and 34c Friar Lane. At the rear of the land behind 34c Friar Lane, the boundary turns south-west for 10 metres, then turns north-west following the south-western boundary of the building behind 21 St. James's Street. The boundary then turns south-west and then north-west to follow the rear and side boundaries of the property at 23 St. James's Street before joining the original boundary.

At the rear of 28 St. James's Street the revised boundary extends north following the property boundary and enclosing the open space to the rear of 26 and 28 St. James's Street. The boundary then follows the south-western and north-eastern boundaries of the garden to the rear of Bromley House, including the garden walls within the Conservation Area. It then turns north-west and then north-east to include the building adjoining and to the rear of 10-12 Angel Row and rejoining the original boundary.

The original boundary continuing to the north-west is now extended to include the frontage building of 3 Angel Row and all of 1 Angel Row and on to the centre line of Mount Street. From here the revised boundary continues south-west down the centre line of Mount Street for 30 metres before turning north-west to include the frontage building of the cinema and returning to cross Chapel Bar along the boundary between 9 and 11 Chapel Bar. The boundary continues north-east on the boundary between 6 and 8 Chapel Bar before returning eastwards along the rear of 91 and 93 Upper Parliament Street and 32-37 West End Arcade and 81-85 Upper Parliament Street. The boundary turns north between 79 and 81 to the centre line of Upper Parliament Street before turning east to rejoin the original boundary.

The final boundary change turns off Goldsmith Street to run in an easterly direction between the Concert Hall and the Theatre Royal. It then proceeds northerly along South Sherwood Street to meet the original boundary.
