Notice is hereby given that the above Council, acting in pursuance of its powers under section 70 of the Town and Country Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990, has altered the boundary of the Welwyn Garden City Conservation Area.

THE SCHEDULE

Variation to the Welwyn Garden City Conservation Area Boundary

The existing Conservation Area has been slightly reduced in size by the movement of part of the south-eastern boundary a few metres to the north-west. The section in question is adjacent to the Gosling site; the movement of the boundary is a technical procedure to remove the existing policy anomaly that exists on the site.
