Vienna, July 22.

HE last Letters from Futack advise only, that Prince Eugene was returned thither from Peterwaradin, and that Preparations were making with all possible Diligence for passing the Save. All was yet quiet on the Frontiers. Some Letters say the Imperial Resident, M. Fleischman, is put under Consinement at Semendria; but this seems to want Consirmation.

Ratisbon, July 30. Letters of the 18th Inflant from Futack on the Frontiers of Hungary relate, that most of the separate Camps were advancing nearer, but had not then joyned the main Army. The Boats stopt some Days before, by the Imperialists, on the River Save, were laden with Plank, &c.
for a Bridge, ready fitted up, to be put together on Occasion. There was a Report that 20000 Tartars were come to Belgrade, but a Confirmation was expected. The Grand Vizier had written a Letter to Prince Eugene, to know what was the Meaning of the Imperial Troops being drawn together; that they, the Turks, were willing to keep the Peace, but were obliged on their Side likewise to take the necessary Precautions in case they should be attacked.

Stockholm, July 1. Letters from Carlscrona advise, that Admiral Wachtmeistersailed from thence about ten Days ago, towards Hanoe and Ysted, with 17 Ships of the Line and 2 Frigates. Two Days before he went out, an Express came to him from the King, which 'tis presumed brought him Orders to put, to Sea; and 'tis said the Express delivered to him also a Letter, to be opened when he came to an Anchor at the Island of Bornholm. On Sunday last a Placart, dated the 1st of February last, was published in all the Churches of this City, by which his Majefty commands all Executors, Truftecs, Overfeers and Inspectors of Churches, Schools and Hospitals within his Kingdom, forthwith to pay into the Chamber of Negotiation whatever Sums of Money they have in their Hands; for which they shall receive 6 per The last Letters from the Cent. Interest. King's Camp, brought an Account of Gene-ral Morner's being not only appointed Governour of the Provinces formerly mentions ed, but that he is created a Count, and has also the Title of a Senator given him. The Letters from Jonkoping advise, that the Hereditary Prince of Hesse Cassel would, as this Day, be going from thence, to drink the Waters of Medway in Warmland; and her Royal Highness the Princess, his Consort, defigns in a few Days to set out from hence to meet the Prince at those Wells, where 'tis probable they will pass most of the Summer Season.

Copenhagen, Aug. 1. Y sterday arrived Letters from Norway: By those of the treshest Date, which is on the 17th past, we learn, that the Swedes still continue on the Frontiers of Norway. On the 29 h arrived here 10 Muscovite Men of War, and 4 Frigates, but without any Land-Forces on board, from Peterebourg. The Czar has necesived by them an Account of the Death of the Princels his Sifter, whom he very much loved, and to whom, during his Absence, he had committed the Care of the Education of the Princes and Princestes his Children. The Russian Court is going into Mourning for her. By these Ships we are informed, that there are now no more than 3 Swedish Ships at Bornholm, which makes us think the other 19 are gone to feek the Muscovite Fleet in the Bothnick Gulph. Troops defigned to be employed in the Descena on Schonen, arrive daily from Holstein, 17 large Vessels being continually employed to transport them over the Great and Little Belt; and they are encamped at some Distance from this City. The Adjutant-General Leuenorn fet out from hence some Days ago for Pomerania, to hasten the Imbarkation of the Russian Troops; for transporting which the Town of Lubeck is to furnish ('tis said) 40 Ships, and the King of Prussia some others. On the 29th at Night the Lord Polwarth arrived here.

Brussels, Aug. 5. The Marquis de Deynse, formerly Governour of this City under King Philip, died Yesterday suddenly of a Fit of an Apoplexy. The Count and Countess of Kinigsegg, with several Ladies and Gentlemen, went Yesterday in the Astesnoon to Bois fort, where they are this Day to take the Diversion of Hunting, and afterwards to be entertained very splendidly. We have yet no certain Account of the Day being fixed for the Marquis de Prié's Departure from Vienna for the Netherlands.

fixed for the Marquis de Prie's Departure from Vienna for the Netherlands.

Whitehall, Aug. 3. The 1st Instant being the Anniversary of His Majesty's happy Accession to the Crown, it was celebrated with due Solemnity in all the Churches of London and Westminster, and at Night there were Illuminations and other publick Demonstrations of Joy.
