TEIGNBRIDGE DISTRICT COUNCIL

Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990 Designation of Conservation Areas

Notice is hereby given that the Teignbridge District Council's Resolutions, dated 22nd July 1996, to designate Conservation Areas at Higher Ashton, Lower Ashton, Doddiscombsleigh, Dunchideock, Holcombe Burnell and Kenn. Plans showing the boundaries of these Conservation Areas can be viewed at the Council's offices at Forde House, Newton Abbott. Development proposals within these Conservation Areas will be the subject of planning controls designed to safeguard their character and appearance which it is considered desirable to preserve or enhance.

In addition, the designations have the effect that the consent of the Local Planning Authority will be required to demolish all, or part of a building or structure, to cut down, top, lop, or uproot any tree (with minor exceptions). The range of works allowed without planning permission as permitted development is also restricted.

Advice and guidance regarding these controls may be obtained from the Council's Conservation team.

Schedule of Conservation Areas

Higher Ashton:

The area envelopes the nucleus of historic buildings close to the Parish Church and the cluster of buildings to the south-east. From Dear Leap farm the boundary follows the lane to Trusham for a short way before following France Brook north-west as far as the Pound House and Place Barton. Passing to the north of this group the boundary incorporates the field between Place Barton and the church of St. John the Baptist.

Lower Ashton:

The boundary includes most of the settlement. From Ashton Manor entrance piers in the north-east the boundary keeps to the south-east of Frnace Brook until crossing the River Teign just to the south of the ancient Spira bridge. Having followed the west bank of the Teign north the boundary turns east to include Ashton Mills, Blatchfords Farm and the village centre before following the Higher Ashton road back to Ashton Manor entrance piers.

Doddiscombsleigh:

The area includes Town Barton and St. Michaels church in the east then moves south-west to meet Shippen Brook. From the southern point it incorporates Dent House, Straithead and Tanglewood. In the north-west corner the boundary takes in the school house before turning east to include Pitt Farm, then south back to the through road which is followed back to Town Barton.

Dunchideock:

All of the old settlement centred on the church, rectory and barton is within the Conservation Area as well as a limited amount of farmland which provides the immediate setting of the historic group of buildings.

Holcombe Burnell:

The whole historic group of church, barton, school and estate cottages is included within the designated Conservation Area.

Kenn:

The boundary includes the cluster of buildings in the vicinity of St. Andrews church and the bulk of the central nucleus of the village. In the east the area extends to the Rectory but excludes the modern development at Mount Rise. To the west the boundary includes Townsend and Santa Cruz then moves south-west to take in Trehill farm.

To the south of the main village the Conservation Area extends into the countryside to include not only the historic houses of Trehill and Bickham but also thoses parts of their associated parkland settings which form an essential component of their special character.
