WEYMOUTH AND PORTLAND BOROUGH COUNCIL

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990

Weymouth and Portland Borough Council—Victoria Gardens Extension to the Underhill Conservation Area

Notice is hereby given that the Weymouth and Portland Borough Council has included the Victoria Gardens area in the Underhill Conservation Area under the provisions of the above Act; the area is more fully described in the Schedule to this notice.

The effect of designation is that special attention will be paid by the Council to the desirability of preserving or enhancing the character or appearance of the area concerned, which is defined in the Schedule. Future development or advertising in the Conservation Area will be subject to strict planning control designed to secure the preservation of the character and general improvement of the area, including alterations to unlisted buildings which will affect the character of the conservation area; where permitted development rights do not apply. Within the Conservation Area demolition of buildings will now require the approval of the Council as a Local Planning Authority, subject to certain exceptions. In addition certain trees within the Conservation Area cannot be felled, topped or lopped or uprooted without the consent of the Weymouth and Portland Borough Council. If the trees are subject to wilful damage or wilful destruction an offence may have been committed. The Borough Council will consider ways of improving or enhancing the Conservation Area through environmental enhancement schemes, subject to consultation with the public. Documents including the map showing the precise boundaries of the designated area, have been deposited at the office of the Chief Planning Officer at the Municipal Offices, North Quay, Weymouth, and may be inspected during normal office hours.

M. N. Ashby, Chief Executive

SCHEDULE

Victoria Gardens Extension to the Underhill Conservation Area

In 1896 the newly established Portland Urban District Council made a decision to celebrate Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee by transforming a derelict area of Great Verne Hill Common into recreation gardens. Victoria Gardens were opened in 1904.

A memorial stone, unveiled by the American Ambassador John D. Winant in 1945, commemorating Portland's role in the D-Day landings, is still to be found in the gardens.

Victoria Gardens stands on an elevated position overlooking Portland Harbour and Chesil Bank and provides spectacular views looking out towards the sea and Weymouth. The Gardens slope upwards from north-west to south-east and are roughly triangular in shape. The south-eastern boundary is bordered by a Police Station, Magistrates' Court and Police Houses, built in 1904 and listed in 1993. Adjoining these Edwardian buildings are the earlier Victorian Police House and all of these properties look out over the Gardens and clearly form part of its setting. To the north of Victoria Gardens is a small Portland stone walled burial ground. Across Castle Road, are Edwardian, Admiralty Houses (Hardy, Boscowen and Rodney). These Admiralty Houses are fine examples of large "villas" from this period and unusually for Portland, are built in red brick. Their architectural character and history as officers' houses for the Naval Base justify their inclusion in the extension to the Underhill Conservation Area.

The Victorian Gardens extension to the Underhill Conservation Area therefore also includes the Police Station, Magistrates' Court, Police Houses, 4 and 5 Castle Road and the Admiralty Houses as well as the Burial Grounds.
