

- Miss Marie HARTLEY. For services to the Culture and History of Yorkshire.
- Miss Gillian Avila HARTNOLL, lately Head of Library and Information Services, British Film Institute. For services to Film and Television Culture and to the Film Industry.
- Betty Nanette, Mrs. HATTON. For services to the Engineering Council.
- Susan, Mrs. PARKE-HATTON, Principal Fire Control Officer, Lancashire County Fire Brigade. For services to the Fire Service.
- Roy Lawrence HAWKRIDGE. For services to the community in Highgate, and South Ruislip, Middlesex.
- Kenneth John HAYDON. For services to War Disabled People.
- John Michael HAYMAN, lately Chief Commandant, Leicestershire Special Constabulary. For services to the Police.
- Kenneth James HEADSPEATH, Farm Manager, Glengorm Estate. For services to Agriculture.
- Arthur William HEALEY, Revenue Collector Customer Service, Seaboard plc. For services to the Electricity Industry and to the community in Kent.
- Raymond HEDGECOCK. For services to the Submarine Old Comrades' Association in Merseyside.
- Professor Stanley HEPTINSTALL. For services to the community in Bramcote, Nottinghamshire.
- Michael John Rowland HERON, Director, Employment Policy, British Footwear Association. For services to the Footwear Industry.
- Bertha, Mrs. HEYES. For services to the League of Friends, St. Helens Hospital, Merseyside.
- Stanley HILL. For services to the Royal Tank Regiment Association and to the Territorial Army in Nottingham.
- Frank HILTON, Works Convenor, Dynamics Division, BAe plc. For services to the Defence Industry.
- Karen Maria, Mrs. HILTON. For services to Ballroom Dancing.
- Marcus Edward HILTON. For services to Ballroom Dancing.
- David HIORNS, Production Manager, Bruntingthorpe Gravels. For services to the Quarrying Industry.
- Robert George HITCHINGS, Quality Assurance Manager, Remploy. For services to the Employment of Disabled People in Bristol.
- Christopher Beauchamp HOBART. For services to the community, particularly Young People, in Oxfordshire.
- Charles Arthur HOGG, lately Director, NEWVOL (North East Wales Voluntary Services Council). For services to the community in Clwyd.
- Miss Anne HOLMES. For services to Music in Grimsby, Lincolnshire.
- Richard HOLMES. For services to the Royal British Legion.
- Muriel Semple, Mrs. HOLROYD, Clinical Nurse Manager, Greater Glasgow Health Board. For services to Health Care.
- Margaret Joan, Mrs. HOOD. For services to the British Red Cross Society in East Sussex.
- Doreen Frances, Mrs. HOW, Administrative Officer, Highways Agency, Department of Transport.
- Margaret Anita, Mrs. HOWELLS. For services to the Citizens' Advice Bureau in Radnor, Powys.
- Ethel Maud, Mrs. HUGGARD. For charitable services in South Wales.
- Margaret, Mrs. HUMES. For services to Health Care.
- Elizabeth Junia, Mrs. HUMPHREYS. For services to Elderly People.
- Myrtle Joan, Mrs. HURRELL. For services to the National Schizophrenia Fellowship in Welwyn Garden City, Hertfordshire.
- Patricia, Mrs. HUTCHINSON. For services to the Citizens' Advice Bureau Movement.
- Miss Joan Alicia INGILBY. For services to the Culture and History of Yorkshire.
- Nikos IOANNIDES, lately Chief Security Force Police Officer, Ministry of Defence.
- Carolyn Margery, Mrs. IRELAND. For services to the Alzheimer's Disease Society in Guildford, Surrey.
- Peter JACKMAN. For services to the Royal Star and Garter Home, Richmond, Surrey.
- Denis William JACKSON, lately Office Services Supervisor, British Waterways. For services to British Waterways.
- Michael Charles JACKSON, Superintendent, Essex Police. For services to the Police and to the community in Harlow.
- Charles Frederick JAGO. For services to the Ex-prisoners of War Association.
- Shirley, Mrs. JAMES. For charitable services to the community in Aberdare, South Wales.
- Lester Percy JARVIS. For services to the Elderly and Disabled People and to the Royal British Legion in Tingewick, Buckingham.
- Cynthia, Mrs. JEFFERY, School Crossing Patrol Warden, Devon County Council. For services to Road Safety.
- Margaret McCarter JERVIS. For services to the community in the Rhondda Valley.
- Sarah Janet, Mrs. JOHNSTON, Manager, Dover Counselling Centre. For services to the Shipping Industry and to Counselling.
- David JOHNSTONE, Linesman, Scottish Hydro-Electric. For services to the Electricity Industry.
- Irene Gillan, Mrs. JOLY. For services to the Hampshire Probation Service.
- John Thomas Henry JONES. For services to Coventry and Warwickshire Chamber of Commerce and Industry.
- Maurice JONES, lately Director, Leicester Victims of Crime Support Scheme. For services to Victim Support.
- Thomas Owen JONES. For services to Local Government in Wales.
- Robert Stanley JORDAN, Door Keeper, 10 Downing Street.
- Barry Richard JOYCE. For services to Architectural Conservation in Derbyshire.
- Kanwarjit Singh JUJ, Sub-Post Master. For services to the Post Office and for charitable services in London.
- Bernard KASHKET, Tailor. For services to the Armed Forces.
- Lilian, Mrs. KEARNS. For services to the community on the Johnson Fold Estate, Bolton, Lancashire.
- Helen Ruth, Mrs. KEGIE. For services to the Housing Association Movement in South East Wales.
- Dorothy Margaret, Mrs. KELLY. For charitable service to the community on the Isle of Man.
- Patrick Joseph KELLY, Driver, Ministry of Defence.
- Peter Gordon KELLY, General Medical Practitioner, Gloucestershire. For services to Medicine.