In addition, certain sections deleted from BT's licence condition dealing with private circuits where they appear in any licence will be deleted. Minor consequential modifications will also be made.

4. The Fair Trading Condition will, broadly, prohibit any acts or omissions by a Licensee which involves, in the field of telecommunications, either any abuse of a dominant position enjoyed by the Licensee in the United Kingdom or the making of anti-competitive agreements which have no countervailing benefits for consumers or efficiency. A full copy of the FTC will be provided on written application to the person specified below in paragraph 9.

5. The FTC is modelled on the principles of the EC competition rules. It will be enforceable using the procedure available to the Director under the Act. However, as an additional safeguard to the Licensees, the FTC lays down procedural steps which the Director must follow before enforcing it. These include a requirement that he give full reasons for his decisions and, if requested, consult the Advisory Body on Fair Trading before making a Final Determination.

6. The FTC provides that if it still has effect on 31st July 2001, it will expire on that date.

7. Incorporation of the FTC into the Licences will mean a uniform set of rules apply to all holders of telecommunications licences designed to foster effective competition in the United Kingdom telecommunications markets. The reasons for the proposed modifications are described more fully in the March 1997 Statement issued by OFTEL "Fair Trading Condition—Incorporation into existing telecommunications licences" copies of which can be obtained from OFTEL. The FTC has already been incorporated into the licences of BT and Mercury. Since last November, it has also been incorporated by the Department of Trade and Industry into International Facilities licences, the class licence on conditional access and other new licences.

8. The Director is required by section 12(2) of the Act to consider any representations or objections which are duly made and not withdrawn. Following consultation, the Director proposes to make the modifications forthwith following the licensees' agreement to them.

9. Representations or objections to the proposed modifications may be made to Neil Buckley, OFTEL, 50 Ludgate Hill, London EC4M 7JJ (tel. 0171 634 8880) no later than 28th July 1997. Any confidential material should be clearly marked as such and separated out into a confidential annex. All representations or objections received by OFTEL, with the exception of material marked confidential, will be made available for inspection in OFTEL's library. Short comments can also be e-mailed to OFTEL on press.office.oftel@gt.net.gov.uk.

10. In a second stage of consultation, interested parties are invited to send comments to OFTEL no later than 4th August 1997, on the representations and objections received in the first stage. Copies of the proposed modifications may be obtained from Neil Buckley at the above address.
