Venice, Dec. '11. General Schulenbourg having imbarked at Corfu on the 21st of last Month, arrived here on the 5th Inftant. He came a-fhore at the old Lazaretto, where he is to perform Quarantain 28 Days: On the 6th the Senate fent Deputies to make him their Compli-ment on his Arrival: And on the 7th M. Cunningham, the British Resident, complimented him on the same Occasion. When his Excellency leaves the Lazaretto, he will come and lodge in the King of Great Britain's Palace here, to which he has been invited. They are hard at Work in this Arsenal, to fit out some Ships for reinforcing the Fleet early in the Spring. M. Schulenbourg is lately come hither from Hanover, to fee the General his Brother.

Vienna, Dec. 12. M. Fleifchman, the Emperour's Refident in Turkey, made his publick Entry into this City, according to Cuftom, on the 10th Inftant, and went directly to Court to give the Emperour an Account of his Negociations. Letters from Tranfylvania of the 29th paft, give an Account, that a Detachment of the Empe-ouve Troops had preserved into Walachia as rour's Troops had penetrated into Walachia, as far as Buchoreft, where they furprized Mauro Cordato the Hospodar or Prince of the Coun-try, and took him Priloner; and the Detach-ment got fafe back into Transylvania with him. The Commander of this Detachment, whole Name is Dettine, gave on this Occasion a great Proof of his Integrity; for the Hospodar offering him 500000 Crowns for his Liberty, he rejected it, though he is known to be poor. From on board His Majesty's Ship the Exeter, in Copenhagen Road, Dec. 1.
