TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

Stopping-up of Highway

The Secretary of State for Transport hereby gives notice that he proposes to make an Order under section 247 of the above Act which will authorise the stopping-up of an area of Highway at Magna Close, Great Abington, Cambridgeshire.

If the Order is made, the stopping-up will be authorised only in order to enable the development described in the Schedule to this notice to be carried out in accordance with the planning permission granted to and by South Cambridgeshire District Council on 7th February 1997, under reference S/1685/96/F.

Copies of the draft Order and relevant plan may be inspected at all reasonable hours during 28 days commencing on 16th December 1997, at the offices of South Cambridgeshire District Council, 9-11 Hills Road, Cambridge CB2 1PB, and may be obtained, free of charge, from the Government Office for Eastern Region (Planning and Transport), (quoting reference GT/W0530/35/1/10), at the address stated below.

Any person may object to the making of the proposed Order within the period of 28 days commencing on 16th December 1997, by notice to the Secretary of State for Transport, quoting the above reference, at the Government Office for Eastern Region (Planning and Transport), Heron House, 49-53 Goldington Road, Bedford MK40 3LL.

In preparing an objection it should be borne in mind that the substance of it may be imparted to other persons who may be affected by it and that those persons may wish to communicate with the objector about it.

SOUTH STAFFORDSHIRE DISTRICT COUNCIL

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990, SECTION 69

Notice of Designation of a conservation area for land adjoining Himley Hall in the Parish of Himley in South Staffordshire

Notice is hereby given that South Staffordshire District Council (hereafter referred to as "the Council") as the Local Planning Authority, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon it by section 69 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990, has designated an area of land adjoining Himley Hall as a conservation area.

The new designation extends the existing Himley conservation area in a northerly and easterly direction to include the following areas of land. In general, the conservation area now includes:

The Desmesne;
Park Farm;
Himley Golf Course;
land off High Arcal Road.

The boundary of the conservation area coincides with and includes the following walls and fences.

The wall along the eastern side of the carriageway of the A449 trunk road from the traffic lights at the junction of Stourbridge Road and School Road to the lodge opposite the junction of Stourbridge Road and Beggars Bush Lane.

The walls and fences alongside or near to public footpath No. 30 in the parish of Wombourne which run in an approximate north-easterly direction from Stourbridge Road at its junction with Beggars Bush Lane to the ruined buildings shown on an Ordnance Survey map as White Houses.

The walls and fences which run in an approximately south-easterly direction from this point alongside the woodland shown on an Ordnance Survey map as Woody Park and roughly parallel to public footpath S.E.24 in the Parish of Himley and through that part of Baggeridge Country Park known as Whites Wood to the rear gardens of the houses in Himley Gardens off High Arcal Road.

The walls and fences which run in an approximately southerly direction from this point to the houses known as Rose Cottage and The Woodlands but excluding the immediate curtilage of these properties.

The boundary runs along the northern edge of but does not include High Arcal Wood nor High Arcal House.

The wooden oak fence along Dudley Road which forms the boundary of Himley Park.

The conservation area will be known as "The Himley Village, Hall and Parkland Conservation Area", and its boundaries are shown on a map which accompanies the designation.

The effect of the designation is as follows:

- (1) The Local Planning Authority has a duty to formulate and publish proposals for the preservation and enhancement of the area.
- (2) In the exercise of their planning functions, the Local Planning Authority must pay special attention to the desirability of preserving or enhancing the character or appearance of the area.
- (3) Planning applications for development which would, in the opinion of the Local Planning Authority, affect the character or appearance of the conservation area must be given publicity, and representations received must be taken into account in determining the application.
- (4) With certain exceptions, buildings within the conservation area may not be demolished unless conservation area consent has been granted.
- (5) The Local Authority may carry out urgent works for the preservation of an unoccupied Listed Building which is important for maintaining the character or appearance of the area.
- (6) The Historic Buildings and Monuments Commission for England (English Heritage) is empowered to give grants or loans for works which will make a significant contribution to the preservation or enhancement of the character or appearance of the conservation area.
- (7) With certain exceptions within the conservation area, trees may not be cut down, topped, lopped, uprooted or wilfully damaged or destroyed, unless the Local Planning Authority has been given 6 weeks notice that the work is to be carried out.
- (8) Within the conservation area, certain permitted development rights under the Town and Country (General Permitted Development) Order 1995 are restricted.
- (9) Within the conservation area certain classes of advertisements with deemed consents under the Town and Country Planning (Control of Advertisements) (Amendment) Regulations 1994 may not be displayed.

The extension to the conservation area boundary coincides with the site of the Himley Hall entry in the Historic Buildings and Monuments Commission for England "Register of Parks and Gardens of special historic interest in England".

A plan of the area is available for inspection during normal office hours at the Council Offices, Wolverhampton Road, Codsall, South Staffordshire WV8 1PX.

All Notices and Advertisements must be pre-paid. The Office hours are from 8.30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays to Fridays, inclusive. Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post must be accompanied by postal orders or cheques made payable to The London Gazette.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes (other than under section 27, Trustee Act, 1925 and section 37, Water Resources Act, 1991) or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, by a member of any body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised by the Board of Trade for the purposes of section 389 (1) of the Companies Act, 1985, or by a member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators. Notices of Dissolution of Partnership which are signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives will be accepted if signed or attested as above. A Notice not signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such Notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of section 27, Trustee Act, 1925, will not be inserted unless they are signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court or by a duly authorised official of a London Clearing Bank or the Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration relating to the estate to which the advertisement refers is produced for inspection at the time the advertisement is submitted.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.
