The A232 Local Road (Sutton) Red Route (Side Roads) Experimental Traffic Order 1998

Notice is hereby given that the Council of the London Borough of Sutton, following a direction given by the Secretary of State for Transport under section 57(1) of the Road Traffic Act 1991 to implement a Local Road Local Plan, made the above-named experimental traffic Orders on Monday, 2nd March 1998, under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, as amended by the Local Government Act 1985, and the Road Traffic Act 1991. The Orders come into effect on Monday, 16th March 1998, and can remain in force for up to 18 months.

2. (a) The principal objective of the Orders is to introduce Priority (Red) Route controls on that length of the A232 lying within the London Borough of Sutton. These controls include:

The genuine needs of residents and businesses are allowed for so far as is reasonably possible.

(c) The new Red Route controls will be introduced on an experimental basis to allow for minor amendments to be made in the light of operational experience. The Council will be considering making a permanent Order in like terms in due course.

4 The general effect of The A232 Local Road (Sutton) Red Route (Side Roads) Experimental Traffic Order 1998 will be to introduce Red Route controls in the side roads of the A232 lying within the London Borough of Sutton. The roads affected are specified in the Schedule to this notice with the extent of the Red Route controls in these roads, measured in metres from an imaginary line extended from the kerb-line of the A232, indicated in brackets after the road name.

5. While the Orders are in force the Council may modify or suspend the Orders or any of their provisions if it appears essential to do so for certain purposes.
