WILDLIFE AND COUNTRYSIDE ACT 1981 SECTION 29

Notice is hereby given that on 31st March 1998 the Secretary of State for Wales acting under section 29 of the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981, made the Cefndeuiddwr Nature Conservation Order 1998. This Order applies section 29(3) of the Act to the land described in Schedule 1 to the Order and specifies the operations described in Schedule 2 to the Order which appear to the Secretary of State likely to destroy or damage both the grassland community and the lichen flora present by reason of which the site is of special scientific interest and of national importance.

The general effect of the Order is to prohibit any person from carrying out the operations specified in Schedule 2 to the Order on the land described in Schedule 1. In certain circumstances this prohibition does not apply. These circumstances are set out in section 29 of the Act.

The Order took effect when it was made and will cease to have effect 9 months after it was made unless the Secretary of State previously gives notice that he has considered it and does not propose to amend or revoke it or that he has amended or revoked it.

Representations about or objections to the Order may be made to the Secretary of State for Wales, Environment 4 Welsh Office, Cardiff CF1 3NQ, before 30th April 1998. They should be in writing and should state the title of the Order. In the case of objections, the grounds on which they are made should be stated.

Copies of the Order and the map referred to in it have been deposited at the offices of the Countryside Council for Wales,

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984

The A205 Trunk Road (Greenwich) Red Route Experimental Traffic Order 1997 Variation Order 1998

The Traffic Director for London, following a direction given to him by the Secretary of State under section 58(1) of the Road Traffic Act 1991, to implement a Trunk Road Local Plan, hereby gives notice that he made the above-named experimental Order under sections 9 and 10 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 on 6th April 1998. The Order comes into effect on 17th April 1998, and can remain in force for up to 18 months

2 The general nature and effect of the Order is to vary the A205 Trunk Road (Greenwich) Red Route Experimental Traffic Order 1997 in Westhorne Avenue in the London Borough of Greenwich. The variation will extend the double red lines on the south side of Westbourne Avenue to cover a repositioned bus stop in the vicinity of No 406

3 The road affected by the Order is the A205 Westhorne Avenue, in the London Borough of Greenwich

4 While the Order is in force the Traffic Director for London, or some person authorised by him, may modify or suspend the Order or any provisions in it if it appears essential to do so for certain purposes

5 In due course the Traffic Director of London will be considering whether or not the provisions of the Order should be continued in force indefinitely. Within the period of 6 months from the coming into force of the Order, or if the Order is subsequently varied by another Order or modified, from the coming into force of that variation or modification (whichever is the latest), any person may object to the making of an Order to continue indefinitely those provisions. Any such objection must be made in writing, giving the grounds on which it is made, and sent to the Traffic Director for London, College House, Great Peter Street, London SW1P 3LN, quoting reference A814 TO/399. Any objection may be communicated to other persons who may be affected

6 A copy of the Order, a statement of the Traffic Director for London's reasons for the proposals and for proceeding by way of experiment, a map indicating the location and effect of the Order and copies of any Order revoked, suspended or varied by the Order can be inspected during normal office hours at the offices of the Traffic Director for London, College House, Great Peter Street, London SW1P 3LN and the London Borough of Greenwich, Greenwich Engineering and Property Management, Peggy Middleton House, 50 Woolwich New Road, London SE18 6HQ

7 The documents will be available for inspection during the period within which objection can be made in accordance with paragraph 5 above (490)

limited to activities arising in the course of the practice of accountancy or insolvency carried on within the United Kingdom by such Member or other person

- (a) as a sole practitioner, or
- (b) in partnership or a corporate practice with others who
 - (i) hold the like qualifications, or
 - (ii) hold a qualification authorising such activities under any other group licence issued by the Director, or
 - (iii) together comprise a practice which, under regulations made by the Association, is registered to carry on audit work or permitted to describe itself as "Chartered Certified Accountants" or "Authorised Public Accountants"

The Director is minded to make the proposed variations for the following reasons

On 24th June 1996, the Association assumed responsibility for administering the affairs of the Association of Authorised Public Accountants ("AAPA"), which became a wholly owned subsidiary of the Association. All members of AAPA are now subject to the rules and regulations of the Association, as applicable. AAPA, like the Association, is a Recognised Supervisory Body for audit purposes under the Companies Act 1989

On 1st January 1997, the name of the Association was changed to "The Association of Chartered Certified Accountants", approval having been given by the Privy Council for the necessary changes to the Association's Charter and bye-laws on 15th October 1996

The Director has taken into account the fact that the Association has asked him to make the proposed variations, and he has had regard to the regulations of the Association in deciding to propose these variations

All licensees are invited, in accordance with section 34 of the Act, to submit representations to the Director, either in writing or orally, about the proposed variations within 21 days of the publication of this Notice

LONDON BOROUGH OF MERTON

*The Merton (Loading Bays) (No 4) Experimental Order 1998
Crusoe Road*

Notice is hereby given that the London Borough of Merton, after consulting the Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis, have made the above-mentioned Order under section 9 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984. The Order was made on 8th April 1998 and shall come into effect on 13th April 1998.

The general effects of the Order will be to establish a loading bay operating Monday to Friday, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., in Crusoe Road (north side), from a point 1 metre west of a point opposite the party wall of Nos 46-48 Crusoe Road and a point 1 metre west of a point opposite the party wall of Nos 52-54 Crusoe Road.

The Order provides that, pursuant to section 10(2) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, the Director of the Environmental Services Department of the London Borough of Merton or some person authorised in that behalf by him, may, if it appears to him or that person, essential in the interest of convenient, expeditious, and the safe movement of traffic or for preserving or improving the amenities of the area through which any road affected by the Order runs, modify or suspend the Order or provisions thereof.

A copy of the Order, a plan identifying the area affected by the Order, and the Council's statement of reasons for making the Order can be inspected during normal office hours on Mondays to Fridays inclusive, at the London Borough of Merton, Main Reception, Merton Civic Centre, London Road, Morden, Surrey, until 14th October 1998.

The London Borough of Merton as the Order making authority will consider in due course whether the provisions of the Order which is an Experimental Order made under section 9 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, should be continued in force indefinitely by means of an Order made under section 6 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

Any person desiring to object to such an Order being made under section 6 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, should send a statement in writing of their objections and grounds thereof to the Head of Legal Services, at the Merton Civic Centre, London Road, Morden, Surrey SM4 5DX, no later than 14th October 1998, quoting Ref CS/JRP.

Any person desiring to question the validity of the Order or any provision contained in it on the grounds that it is not within the powers conferred by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, or on the grounds that any requirement of the Act or of any Instrument made under it has not been complied with in relation to the Order, may, within 6 weeks from the date on which the Order was made, apply to the High Court for this purpose.

The Sutton (Prescribed Route) (Cycle Lane, One-Way and No Entry Plug) (No 1) Order 1998

The Sutton (Waiting and Loading Restriction) (No 5) (Amendment No 3) Order 1998

Notice is hereby given that the Council of the London Borough of Sutton made the above-mentioned Orders on Monday, 6th April 1998, under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, as amended by the Local Government Act 1985, and the Road Traffic Act 1991.

The principal objectives of the measures are to provide a facility to promote the free passage of cyclists in both easterly and westerly directions along Camden Road, Sutton on an essential link in the London Cycle Route Network.

The general effect of The Sutton (Prescribed Route) (Cycle Lane, One-Way and No Entry Plug) (No 1) Order 1998 will be to

- (a) reduce the length of one-way working in Camden Road, Sutton, currently between Robin Hood Lane and Sherwood Park Road to between Robin Hood Lane and the entrance to Gibson Road Car Park,
- (b) introduce a no entry plug at the junction of Camden Road with Sherwood Park Road,
- (c) introduce a cycle lane in Camden Road between its junction with Robin Hood Lane and the entrance to Gibson Road Car Park and,
- (d) introduce 6 metres of cycle lane in Camden Road, eastward from the eastern kerb-line of Sherwood Park Road to enable cycles to pass through the no-entry plug.

The general effect of The Sutton (Waiting and Loading Restriction) (No 5) (Amendment No 3) Order 1998 will be to

- (a) amend the existing waiting restrictions in Camden Road, Sutton, on the side between its junction with Robin Hood Lane and a point 33 metres east of the eastern flank wall of No 17 Camden Road, and in Robin Hood Lane, from Camden Road Northwards to the first pay and display bay, to "no waiting at any time", and,
- (b) introduce "no loading or unloading at any time" restrictions in the areas referred to in (a) above.

A copy of the Orders, which will come into effect on Monday, 20th April, 1998, plans indicating the location and extent of the restrictions and the Council's statement of reasons for making the Orders may be examined at Environmental Services, 24 Denmark Road, Carshalton Monday to Friday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Civic Offices, St Nicholas Way, Sutton, Monday to Friday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

If any person wishes to question the validity of these Orders, or any of their provisions on the grounds that they are not within the powers conferred by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, or that any requirement of that Act or of any Instrument made under that Act has not been complied with, that person may, within 6 weeks from that date on which the Orders were made, apply for the purpose to the High Court.

The A297 Local Road (Sutton) Red Route Experimental Traffic Order 1998

The A297 Local Road (Sutton) Red Route (Side Roads) Experimental Traffic Order 1998

Notice is hereby given that the Council of the London Borough of Sutton, following a direction given by the Secretary of State for Transport, under section 57(1) of the Road Traffic Act 1991 to implement a Local Road Local Plan, made the above-named experimental traffic Orders on Monday, 6th April 1998, under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, as amended by the Local Government Act 1985 and the Road Traffic Act 1991. The Orders come into effect on Monday, 20th April 1998, and can remain in force for up to 18 months.

2 (a) The principal objective of the Orders is to introduce Priority (Red) Route controls on that length of the A297 lying within the London Borough of Sutton. These controls include

- (i) double red lines which will prohibit stopping by any vehicle at locations where stationary vehicles cause congestion or safety problems at any time,
- (ii) single red lines which will prohibit stopping by any vehicle at locations where stationary vehicles cause congestion or safety problems during the working day,
- (iii) areas marking on the carriageway in "boxes" where parking and loading/unloading activities can take place at various times and for various periods, at locations where stationary vehicles do not cause congestion or safety problems

(b) The introduction of the new Red Route controls will improve traffic conditions so that people and goods can move freely and safely, and journey times and reliability, particularly for buses, will be improved. The genuine needs of residents and businesses are allowed for so far as is reasonably possible.

(c) The new Red Route controls will be introduced on an experimental basis to allow for minor amendments to be made in the light of operational experience. The Council will be considering making a permanent Order in like terms in due course.

3 The general effect of the A297 Local Road (Sutton) Red Route Experimental Traffic Order 1998 will be to introduce Red Route controls in the following constituent roads of the A297 lying within the London Borough of Sutton: St Helier Avenue, service road of Rosehill Court (St Helier Avenue).

4 The general effect of the A297 Local Road (Sutton) Red Route (Side Roads) Experimental Traffic Order 1998 will be to introduce Red Route controls in the side roads of the A297 lying within the London Borough of Sutton. The roads effected are specified below with the extent of the Red Route controls in these roads, measured in metres from an imaginary line extended from the kerb-line of the A297, indicated in brackets after the road name: Service road of Rosehill Court (Bishopsford Road) (70 metres).

5 While the Orders are in force the Council may modify or suspend the Orders or any of their provisions if it appears essential to do so for certain purposes.

6 In due course the Council will be considering whether or not the provisions of the Orders should be continued in force indefinitely. Within the period of 6 months from the coming into force of the Orders, or if the Order(s) are subsequently varied by another Order or modified, from the coming into force of that variation or modification (whichever is the latest), any person may object to the making of an Order to continue indefinitely those provisions. Any such objection must be made in writing, giving the grounds on which it was made, and sent to the Head of Planning and Transportation, London Borough of Sutton, Environmental Services Department, 24 Denmark Road, Carshalton, Surrey SM5 2JG. Any objection may be communicated to other persons who may be affected.

7 Copies of the Orders, plans indicating the location and effect of the restrictions, the Council's statement of reasons for making the Orders and for proceeding by way of experiment, and copies of Orders revoked, suspended or varied by the Orders may be examined at Civic Offices, St Nicholas Way, Sutton, Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Environmental Services, 24 Denmark Road, Carshalton, Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

8 The documents will be available for inspection during the period within which objections can be made in accordance with paragraph 6 above.

9 If any person wishes to question the validity of the Orders or of any of their provisions on the grounds that they are not within the powers conferred by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, or that any requirement of that Act or of any Instrument made under that Act has not been complied with, that person may, within 6 weeks from the date on which the Orders are made, apply for the purpose to the High Court.

CITY OF WESTMINSTER

The City of Westminster (Prescribed Route) (No) Traffic Order 199 Cleveland Gardens/Square

Notice is hereby given that the Westminster City Council propose to make the above-mentioned Order under sections 6 and 124 of and Part IV of Schedule 9 to the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, as amended by the Local Government Act 1985.

2 The general effect of the Order would be, in the City of Westminster, to convert to one way working that length of the western arm of Cleveland Gardens which lies between the northern arm of Cleveland Gardens and the western arm of Cleveland Square in a north to south direction.

Note that this would have the effect of making the whole of the western arms of Cleveland Gardens and Cleveland Square one way in a southerly direction.

3 The prohibition referred to in paragraph 2 above would not apply to

- (a) anything done with the permission or at the direction of a police constable in uniform, or
- (b) anything done in accordance with any restriction or requirement indicated by traffic signs placed on the highway by or on behalf of the Metropolitan Police.

4 Copies of the proposed Order and other documents giving more detailed particulars of the Order can be inspected between 9 a.m. and 4.30 p.m. on Mondays to Fridays until the end of a period of 6 weeks from the date on which the Order is made or, as the case may be, the Council decides not to make the Order, in One Stop Services, City Hall, 64 Victoria Street, London SW1E 6QP.

5 Further information may be obtained by telephoning Mike Wing of The Project Centre Limited, the Council's agents in this matter, on 0171-278 9396.

6 Any objection or other representation about the proposed Order should be sent in writing to the Council's agents, The Project Centre Limited, 61-71 Collier Street, London N1 9BE, quoting Ref PCL/PC/LB32/141/117 within a period of 21 days from the date on which this notice is published. All objections or representations must specify the grounds on which they are made.

NOTICE

All Notices and Advertisements are published in the London Gazette at the risk of the Advertiser and at the discretion of the Editor. Whilst every endeavour will be made to ensure that the publication is made in accordance with the advertiser's requirements the Crown accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage howsoever arising from either a failure to meet those requirements or in respect of any errors or omissions which may inadvertently be made in respect of those requirements or in connection with any notice or advertisement.

Notices and Advertisements by Private Advertisers may be tendered at or sent direct by post to The Stationery Office Limited, The London Gazette Office, PO Box 7923, London SE1 5ZH, for insertion at the authorised rates of payment. All Notices and Advertisements must be pre-paid. The Office hours are from 8.30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays to Fridays, inclusive. Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post must be accompanied by postal orders or cheques made payable to The London Gazette.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes (other than under section 27, Trustee Act, 1925 and section 37, Water Resources Act, 1991) or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, by a member of any body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised by the Board of Trade for the purposes of section 389 (1) of the Companies Act, 1985, or by a member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators. Notices of Dissolution of Partnership which are signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives will be accepted if signed or attested as above. A Notice not signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such Notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of section 27, Trustee Act, 1925, will not be inserted unless they are signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court or by a duly authorised official of a London Clearing Bank or the Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration relating to the estate to which the advertisement refers is produced for inspection at the time the advertisement is submitted.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.
