FORESTRY COMMISSION

The Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, the Secretary of State for Scotland and the Secretary of State for Wales acting jointly in exercise of the powers conferred on them by section 2(2) of the European Communities Act 1972 hereby give notice that they have made Regulations entitled The Environmental Assessment (Forestry) Regulations 1998

These Regulations come into force on 1st September 1998

1 The Regulations supercede the Environmental (Afforestation) Regulations 1998 which are revoked (regulation 20(1)) The Regulations provide for further implementation of Council Directive 85/337/EEC on the assessment of the effects of certain public and private projects on the environment (OJ No L175, 5 7 85, p 40) in relation to specified projects relating to forestry These are defined as "relevant projects" in regulation 2(1) The definition includes a limitation to projects which are likely to have significant effects on the environment

2 The Regulations require that consent shall be obtained from the Forestry Commissioners ("the Commissioners") for relevant projects (regulation 3) A person who proposes to carry out a project may apply to the Commissioners in accordance with regulation 4 for their opinion whether consent is required Regulation 5 provides for the Commissioners to give notice of their opinion to the person who proposed the project and makes provision for them to give an opinion of their own motion If the Commissioners' opinion is that consent is required, the person who proposed the project may, by regulation 6, seek a direction in the matter from the appropriate forestry Minister (defined in regulation 2)

3 Applications for consent are to be made to the Commissioners and must be accompanied by material specified in regulation 7, including an environmental statement conforming to the requirements in the Schedule The Regulations provide for the Commissioners to seek further information from the applicant (regulation 8), and for publicity for applications and for representations to be made to the Commissioners by interested persons (regulation 9) Regulation 10 provides for information to be provided to other Member States of the European Community

4 Regulation 1 deals with the determination of applications by the Commissioners, including matters they are to take into consideration The Commissioners must give notice of their decision to the applicant and publicise it in accordance with regulation 12 The decision of the Commissioners is subject to appeal by the applicant to the appropriate Minister (regulation 13) Regulation 14 specifies conditions as to time which must be included in every consent Persons aggrieved by a grant of consent may apply to the court in accordance with regulation 15

5 Where work in relation to a relevant project is or has been carried out without consent or in breach of a condition of consent, the Commissioners may issue an enforcement notice (regulation 16) There is a right of appeal to the Minister against an enforcement notice under regulation 17 Failure to comply with an enforcement notice constitutes an offence (regulation 18) The Regulations provide for powers of entry and for a person authorised by the Commissioners to carry out works where an enforcement notice is not complied with (regulation 19) There are transitional provisions in regulation 20

6 The Regulations apply to Great Britain (regulation 1) The Regulations will be published as Statutory Instrument No 1731 Copies may be purchased at £2 80 net direct from The Stationery Office, at the addresses shown on the last page of this Gazette, or from any bookseller

NOTICE

All Notices and Advertisements are published in the London Gazette at the risk of the Advertiser and at the discretion of the Editor. Whilst every endeavour will be made to ensure that the publication is made in accordance with the advertiser's requirements the Crown accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage howsoever arising from either a failure to meet those requirements or in respect of any errors or omissions which may inadvertently be made in respect of those requirements or in connection with any notice or advertisement.

Notices and Advertisements by Private Advertisers may be tendered at or sent direct by post to The Stationery Office Limited, The London Gazette Office, PO Box 7923, London SE1 5ZH, for insertion at the authorised rates of payment. All Notices and Advertisements must be pre-paid. The Office hours are from 8.30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays to Fridays, inclusive. Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post must be accompanied by postal orders or cheques made payable to The London Gazette.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes (other than under section 27, Trustee Act, 1925 and section 37, Water Resources Act, 1991) or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, by a member of any body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised by the Board of Trade for the purposes of section 389 (1) of the Companies Act, 1985, or by a member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators. Notices of Dissolution of Partnership which are signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives will be accepted if signed or attested as above. A Notice not signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such Notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of section 27, Trustee Act, 1925, will not be inserted unless they are signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court or by a duly authorised official of a London Clearing Bank or the Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration relating to the estate to which the advertisement refers is produced for inspection at the time the advertisement is submitted.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.
