MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE FISHERIES AND FOOD

Notice is hereby given that, as provided by Article 4 of the Importation of Animal Products and Poultry Products Order 1980 (as amended) the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and Welsh Office Agricultural Department have with effect from 28th October 1998 issued the following licences, as detailed below

New General Licence

Licence No

(A) TAY/GEN/98/1405 (in England)

(B) WQAD/GEN/98/11 (in Wales)

Subject Semi Moist Petfood

Country of Origin Canada

Conditions attached to this Licence

1 Each consignment must be accompanied by a certificate in accordance with the terms of Commission Decision 94/309/EC concerning animal health conditions and veterinary certification for import of certain petfoods containing low-risk animal materials (taken under Council Directive 92/118/EEC), signed by a duly authorised veterinary officer of the Government of the exporting country stating

- (i) details of consignment (species of animal, nature of packaging, number of parts or packages, net weight),
- (ii) address of the premises of production,

(iii) destination of petfood, (place of loading, country and place of destination, means of transport, number of the seal if appropriate) names and addresses of consignor and consignee

2 Health Attestation

I, the undersigned official veterinarian, certify that the petfood described above

(a) was produced in such a way that the ingredients of animal origin have been subject to a heat treatment of at least 90°C throughout their substance,

(b) was examined by a random sampling of at least five samples from each processed batch taken during storage at the processing plant that complies with the following standards<sup>(1)</sup>

— salmonella absence in 25g,  $n = 5$ ,  $c = 0$ ,  $m = 0$ ,  $M = 0$ , enterobacteriaceae  $n = 5$ ,  $c = 2$ ,  $m = 10$ ,  $M = 3 \times 10^2$  on Ig,

(c) was produced by (*) using ruminant protein

(*) was produced without using ruminant protein

(*) delete as appropriate

(d) was not produced from

— animals kept for agricultural production, which died but were not slaughtered, including stillborn and unborn animals, and without prejudice to instances of emergency slaughtering for reasons of welfare, farm animals which have died in transit,

— animals which were killed in the context of disease control measures either on the farm or in any other place designated by the competent authority,

— animal waste including blood originating from animals which showed, during the veterinary inspection carried out at the time of slaughtering, clinical signs of diseases communicable to man or other animals,

— those parts of an animal slaughtered in the normal way which were not presented for post mortem inspection, with the exception of hides, skins, hooves, feathers, wool, horns, blood and similar products

— meat, poultry meat, fish, game and foodstuffs of animal origin which were spoiled,

— animals, fresh meat, poultry meat, fish, game and meat and milk products, which in the course of the inspections provided for in Community legislation failed to comply with the veterinary requirements for their importation into the Community,

— animal waste containing residues of substances which posed a danger to human or animal health and milk, meat or products of animal origin rendered unfit for human consumption by the presence of such residues,

— fish or offal from fish which was excluded from human consumption because of clinical signs of an infectious disease,

— processed animal protein derived from high risk material,

(e) has undergone all precautions to avoid recontamination with pathogenic agents after treatment,

3 The certificate required above must be the original certificate except in the case of products entering Great Britain via another Member State which, in accordance with Article 10 of Council Directive 90/675/EEC<sup>(2)</sup>, must be accompanied by a copy of the original certificate authenticated by and provided by the official veterinarian at the border inspection post of entry into the Community, together with a document signed by the official veterinarian at the border inspection post of entry to the Community confirming that veterinary checks have been carried out to his or her satisfaction. However in the case of products transported by air or sea which have been transhipped in a port or airport in another Member State and which, in accordance with Article 8 4 of Council Directive 90/675/EEC, have not been subject to veterinary checks in that Member State the certificate must be the original certificate

4 All consignments of products to which this licence refers are subject to the terms of the Products of Animal Origin (Import and Export) Regulations 1996, and any material imported under this licence shall be made available, if so required, for inspection and/or sampling by an officer of the Ministry at a place nominated by him/her for such inspection and/or sampling. In the case of consignments which enter Great Britain via another Member State, the provisions of Regulation 13 of the above Regulations in particular shall apply. The importer or his agent shall afford all assistance necessary to such an officer to enable him/her to carry out the inspection and/or sampling in such a manner as he/she shall determine and the importer shall be responsible for meeting any costs of carrying out such an inspection and/or sampling

Footnotes

(1) where

$n$  = number of units comprising the sample,

$m$  = threshold value for the number of bacteria, the result is satisfactory if the number of bacteria in all sample units does not exceed  $m$ ,

$M$  = maximum value for the number of bacteria, the result is considered unsatisfactory if the number of bacteria in one or more sample units is  $M$  or more,

$C$  = number of sample units the bacterial count of which may be between  $m$  and  $M$ , the sample still being considered acceptable if the bacterial count of the other sample units is  $m$  or less

(2) Laying down the principles governing the organisation of the veterinary checks on products entering the Community from third countries (OJ No L373, 31 12 90 p1) as amended by Council Directive 91/496/EEC (OJ No L268, 24 9 91, p 56)

NOTES

1 Nothing in this licence gives exemption from any requirement, prohibition or restriction imposed by the Products of Animal Origin (Import and Export) Regulations 1996 (which restrict importation to border inspection posts approved to handle the category of products concerned and require that imports are notified in advance to the enforcement authorities), the Imported Food Regulations 1984, the provisions of the Food Safety Act 1990 and Regulations made under it, the Animal By-Products (Identification) Regulations 1995, the Marketing Authorisations for Veterinary Medicinal Products Regulations 1994, or by any regulation superseding or amending the same. Further information is given in leaflet XMC 631, available from the address below

2 This is not a Department of Trade and Industry licence and gives no exemption from any prohibition, regulation or restriction imposed by the Department of Trade and Industry

3 Please note that while this licence was current at the time of its issue, conditions can be subject to frequent change and importers are advised to check the latest position with International Trade, Animal Products (Import Section) (see below)

Caution

It is the importer's responsibility to ensure that any import covered by this licence complies with the terms and conditions as set out

Any breach of any conditions attached to this licence will constitute an offence against the Animal Health Act 1981

NOTICE

All Notices and Advertisements are published in the London Gazette at the risk of the Advertiser and at the discretion of the Editor. Whilst every endeavour will be made to ensure that the publication is made in accordance with the advertiser's requirements the Crown accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage howsoever arising from either a failure to meet those requirements or in respect of any errors or omissions which may inadvertently be made in respect of those requirements or in connection with any notice or advertisement.

Notices and Advertisements by Private Advertisers may be tendered at or sent direct by post to The Stationery Office Limited, The London Gazette Office, PO Box 7923, London SE1 5ZH, for insertion at the authorised rates of payment. All Notices and Advertisements must be pre-paid. The Office hours are from 8.30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays to Fridays, inclusive. Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post must be accompanied by postal orders or cheques made payable to The London Gazette.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes (other than under section 27, Trustee Act, 1925 and section 37, Water Resources Act, 1991) or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, by a member of any body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised by the Board of Trade for the purposes of section 389 (1) of the Companies Act, 1985, or by a member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators. Notices of Dissolution of Partnership which are signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives will be accepted if signed or attested as above. A Notice not signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such Notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of section 27, Trustee Act, 1925, will not be inserted unless they are signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court or by a duly authorised official of a London Clearing Bank or the Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration relating to the estate to which the advertisement refers is produced for inspection at the time the advertisement is submitted.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.
