The said Commissioners do hereby give Notice to all Persons who have any Assignments made by the Officers of the Regiments that served in Flanders, during the late War, upon their Arrears of Pay due in the said Regiments, that they forthwith enter their said Assignments with the Agent of the Regiment to which the Officer under whom they claim did belong; and the said Agents are hereby required, upon the Assignees producing the original Assignments, to make true Entries thereof, expressing the Assignor's Name, Quality and Company in which he served, the Assignees Name, the Sum assigned, and Date of Assignment, and to lay the same before the said Commissioners, at their Office in Dorset-Court, Westminster, on the 20th Day of September next; at which Time the Commissioners will proceed to adjust and determine what is due to the Officers respectively, and to those who claim by, from, and under them, according to the Direction of the Acts of Parliament in this Behalf: And all the Officers whose Pay stands charged with such Assignments may have Access to the Agent to examine and view the Assignments by them made on their said Pay respectively. And where any Disputes shall arise touching any Assignments, the Parties concerned may apply to the Commissioners.

By the Commissioners for Examining, Stating, and Determining the Debts due to the Army.

Whereas the Colonels, Agents and Officers of the under-written Regiments have been frequently called upon by the Commissioners, to ascertain before them the respective Times on which the said Regiments were reduced, but have not hitherto given the said Commissioners Proofs of the Times of the said Reductions; The Commissioners do therefore give Notice to the said Colonels, Agents and Officers, That they or some of them, do forthwith bring before the Commissioners, Proofs upon Oath, of the precise Days of such their Reduction; without which the Commissioners cannot proceed to make out Certificates of the Arrears due to any Persons belonging to the said Regiments, viz.
