And that nothing may be wanting for the more effectually putting an End to the faid Piracies, His Majefty has also been graciously pleased to issue the following Proclamation.

By the King,

A PROCLAMATION, For Suppreffing of PIRATES. GEORGE R.

W Hereas we have received Information, that feveral Perfons, Subjects of Great Britain, have, fince the Twenty fourth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thoufand feven hundred and fifteen, commitfeed divers Piracies and Robberies upon the high Seas in the Welt-Indies, or adjoining to our Plantations, which hath and may occasion great Damage to the Merchants of Great Britain, and others, trading into those Parts; and though we have appointed fuch a Fonce as we judge fufficient for fupprefling the faid Piracies, yet the more effectually to put an End to the fame, we have though fit, by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, to iffue this our Royal Proclamation; and we do hereby promise and declare, that in case any of the faid Pirates shall, on or before the fifth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eighteen, furrender him or themselves to one of our Principal Secretaries of State in Great Britain or Ireland, or to any Governour or Deputy Governoar of any of our Plantations or Dominions beyond the Seas, every fuch Pirate and Pirates fo furrendring him or themselves, as aforefaid, shall have our gracious Pardon of and for such his or their Junch have our gracious ration of and of finite first Piracy or Piracics, by him or them committed before the fifth Day of January next enfuing. And we do hereby firitily Charge and Command all our Admiralse Capatains, and other Officers at Sea, and all our Governours and Commanders of any Forts, Caftles, or other Places in our Plantations, and all other our Officers Civil and Military, to Jeize and take fuch of the Pirates who shall refuse or neglect to furrender themselves accordingly. And rejuje or neglect to juriender shenger of detoraing of 2000 we do hereby further declare, that in cafe any Perfon or Perfons, on or after the fixth Day of September, One thousand feven hundred and eighteen, shall discover or fize, or cause or procure to be discovered or seized, any one or more of the faid Pirates, fo neglecting or refuging to furrender themselves, as aforefaid, fo as they may be brought to Justice, and convicted of the faid Offence, fuch Person or Persons fo making fuch Discovery or Seizure, or caufing or procuring fuch Difcovery or Seizure to be made, shall have and receive as a Reward for the fame, viz for every Commander of any Pirate Ship or Veffel the Sum of One hundred Pounds ; for every Lieutenant, Master, Boatswain, Carpenter, and Gunner, the schan, majer, boaigwain, carpenter, and Gunner, the Sum of Forty Pounds; for every inferior Officer the Sum of thirty Pounds; and for every Private Man the Sum of twenty Pounds. And if any Perfon or Perfons belonging to, and being Part of the Crew of any fuch Pirate, Ship or Veffel, fhall, on or after the faid fixth Day of September One cherded of the the faid fixth Day of September or Veljsi, ball, on or after the jaid just n Day of September Oue shouland f ven hundred and eighteen, feize and de-liver, or caufe to be feized or delivered, any Conmand-er or Commanders of fuch Pirate Ship or Velfel, fo as that he or they be brought to fuffice, and convicted of the faid Offence, fuch Perfon or Perfons, as a Reward for the fame, fhall receive for every fuch Commander the Sum of two hundred Pounds; which faid Sums the Lord Traduers or the Commutificences of our Trealway for the Treasurer, or the Commissioners of our Treasury for the Time being, are bereby required and directed to pay accord.ngly.

Given at our Court at Hampton Court, the fifth Day of September, 1717, in the fourth Year of our Reign. God fave the King.

And whereas it has also been reprefented to His Majefty, that in March, 1705-6, the Houfe of Lords did in an Addrefs to Her late Majefty fet forth, 'That the French and Spaniards had twice, du-'ring that War, over-run and plundered the Bahama Iflands; that there was no Form of Government there; that the Harbour of the Ifland of Providence might be eafily put in a Pofture of Defence, and that it would be of dangerous Confequence fhould those Iflands fall into the Hands of an Enemy; wherefore the Lords humbly befought her Majefty to ufe fuch Methods as fhe fought her Majefty to ufe fuch Methods as fhe fould think proper, for taking the faid Iflands into her Hands, in order to fecure the fame to the Crown of this Kingdom, and to the Security and Advantage of the Trade thereof; But that there were not any Means ufed, in Compliance with that Addrefs, for fecuring the faid Bahama Iflands; and that at this Time the Pirates have a Lodgement with a Battery on Harbour-Ifland, one of the Bahamas; as alfo that the ufual Retreat and general Receptacle for Pirates is at Providence, the Principal of those Iflands : His Majefty has been further gracioufly pleafed to give Directions for diflodging those Pirates who have taken Shelter in the faid Iflands, as well as for fecuring those Iflands, and making Settlements and & Fortification there, for the Satety and Benefit of Trade and Navigation in those Seas for the future.
