Competition Commission

NOTICE ON ARRANGEMENT FOR CONSTITUTING APPEAL TRIBUNALS

This notice is published by the President of the Appeal Tribunals of the Competition Commission pursuant to Rule 4 of the Competition Commission Appeal Tribunal Rules 2000 S.I. No. 261 ("the Rules").

Appeal tribunals of the Competition Commission constituted pursuant to section 48 and paragraph 27 of Schedule 7 of the Competition Act 1998 ("the Act") must consist of a chairman (who must be either the President or a person appointed by him to be chairman from among the panel of chairman) and two other appeal panel members appointed by the President.

Pursuant to these provisions, an appeal tribunal will be constituted as soon as practicable following the receipt of an application under sections 46 or 47 of the Act introduced in accordance with Rule 6 of the Rules. Until further notice, and subject to any unforeseen circumstances, the President will sit as the chairman of appeal tribunals so constituted.

The appointment of the two other appeal panel members to hear particular appeals will, in principle, be made by the President according to a system of rotation. However, in rotating appeals among appeal panel members the President will also have regard to the need to ensure the balanced distribution of work among appeal panel members as a whole; the availability of appeal panel members, who are appointed on a part-time basis; the possibility of appeals covering the same decision or raising the same or similar issues being consolidated or heard together; and any specific regional or other features of the appeal to which an appeal panel member's experience or expertise may have particular relevance.

For those reasons, and also because appeal panel members might be "conflicted out" of particular cases, it will not be practicable to rotate appeals among members with mathematical precision.

In these circumstances, and until further notice, appeal panel members will be divided into two groups, Group 1 and Group 2, presided in each case by the President. Individual appeal tribunals will be constituted in rotation from among the members of either Group 1 or Group 2, as the case may be, and subject to any derogation that may be necessary in particular cases.

| Mrs Sheila Hewitt         | Mr Adam Scott      |
| Dr Arthur Pryor           | Mr David Summers   |

This notice will be reviewed from time to time in the light of experience and changes in the panels of member appointed under paragraph 2(1)(a), and (4), and paragraph 26, of Schedule 7 of the Act.
