TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACTS

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS & CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990

CONSERVATION AREA IN THE VICINITY OF DIGBETH, DERITEND AND BORDESLEY HIGH STREETS, NECHELLS

Notice is hereby given, in pursuance of sections 69 and 70 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990, that the City of Birmingham has determined that the area described in the Schedule notice is an area of special architectural and historic interest the character and appearance of which it is desirable to preserve and enhance and accordingly designated the said area a Conservation Area on 31st May 2000.

The area covers much of what can still be discerned of Birmingham's mediaeval townscape in its street pattern and surviving building plots. The Old Crown Public House on Deritend High Street, identified as the fifteenth century Guildhall of St. John provides a well-known and distinctive focus for the conservation area. The other buildings within the area date from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries and represent the later development of Birmingham from market town to industrial city.

The effect of the designation of the Conservation Area may be summarised as follows:

(a) Where any application for development of land on or adjacent to the Conservation Area is made to the Council and the development would in the opinion of the Council affect the character or appearance of the Conservation Area the application will be subject to the special procedure in section 73 of the Planned (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990.

(b) Anyone wishing to demolish a building situate within the Conservation Area must apply for consent for demolition to the Local Planning Authority. Some buildings may be exempt from these requirements.

(c) Anyone wishing to cut down, top, lop or uproot a tree situate within the Conservation Area must give six weeks prior notice of his intention to the Local Planning Authority.

A map of the Conservation Area may be inspected, free of charge, during normal office hours at the Department of Planning and Architecture, Baskerville House, Broad Street, Birmingham B1 2NA.
