Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 26. to Saturday November 30. 1717.

St. James's, November 27.

THIS Day the Right Honourable George Earl of Hallifax was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn one of the Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Berne, Nov. 17. The Differences between the King of Sicily and the State of Geneva, are not yet accommodated, nor is there any Advice what has been the Effect of the Letter sent some Time since to the Court of Turin by the Protestant Cantons, in Favour of that State. The new Proposal sent hither on the Part of the Abbot of St. Gall, having been communicated to the Canton of Zurich, their Answer is to be laid to Day before the Council of Two Hundred, and it is expected some Resolution will be taken with Regard to the Time and Place of the Conference desired; in which the Deputies on the Part of the two Cantons are principally to insist on the Abbot's Re-establishing the People of Tockembourg in their religious and civil Rights. By Letters from Genoa we have an Account, that the Spaniards are now possessed of all the Places of Strength on the Island of Sardinia.

Dublin, Nov. 22. On the 20th Instant his Grace the Duke of Bolton, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, went with the usual State to the House of Peers, and gave the Royal Assent to some Acts. On which Occasion the Speaker of the House of Commons made the following Speech to his Grace.

May it please your Grace,

HIS Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons, resolving to make an ample Provision for His Majesty's Establishment, and finding that the necessary Dispositions to hinder the late unnatural Rebellion from extending itself into this Kingdom, had laid the Nation under an unavoidable Debt, they have unanimously granted such Supplies as may honourably support the one, and be sufficient in a great Measure to discharge the other.

This the Commons have done with the greatest Chearfulness, being fully persuaded that they can never sufficiently approve their Gratitude and Fidelity to His most sacred Majesty, whose solicitous Care for the Prosperity of His People fully answers the great Hopes His Princely Virtues had justly raised in the Minds of all honest Men.

The Commons, led by so great and good an Example, have shewn their tender Concern for the Interest of their Country, in raising the Supplies by Ways and Means the most easie and agreeable to His Majesty's Subjects.

And I must in Justice to the Commons observe, that their perfect Harmony and Unanimity through the whole Course of the Session, not only Demonstrates their inviolable Duty and Affection to His Majesty, but is also a convincing Proof of their just Regard for your Grace's Person and Administration.

The Protestants of Ireland can never forget those Brave and Worthy Patriots, who so Gloriously defended their Religion and the Liberties of their Country at the late Happy Revolution. And as your Grace eminently distinguish'd your self self upon that Great and Memorable Occasion, and has ever since steadily adher'd to the same Principles, your Grace will always be esteemed and honoured by those who wish well to the Protestant Interest of Europe.

May it please your Grace,

The Bills prepared by the Commons for the Supplies I have already mentioned, are Entitled,

An Act for continuing to His Majesty the Additional Duties on Beer, Ale, Strong Waters, Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes.

An Act for continuing to His Majesty an Additional Duty on all Wines and Strong Waters, and Spirits perfectly made, and upon all Spirits made and distilled of Wine, and also a Tax on all Salaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Pensions therein mentioned, and for granting a further Additional Duty on Ale, Beer, and Strong Waters, and Spirits perfectly made, and upon all Spirits made and distilled of Wine, and for securing the Repayment of Fifty Thousand Pound Sterling formerly advanced unto His Majesty for the Use of the Publick, together with the Interest thereof.

Which they now humbly present to your Grace for the Royal Assent.

St. James's, Nov. 29. On Thursday last in the Evening, the young Prince, Son of their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, was christened by the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and named George William, the King and the Duke of Newcastle Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, being Godfathers, and the Duchess of St. Albans Godmother.
