This Order may be cited as the Sheep and Goats Identification (England) Order 2000 and shall come into force—

- (a) as respects all articles except for articles 8, 9, 12 and 15, on 1st September 2000; and

It requires any person who keeps sheep and goats to notify the Minister (article 3). The Order requires anyone keeping sheep or goats to keep movement records and, in the case of keepers who are sheepmeat producers for the purposes of Council Regulation 3493/90/EEC, laying down general rules for the grant of premium to sheepmeat and goatmeat producers (O.J. No. L337, 4.12.90, p.7) additional records relating to specified events (articles 4 to 6).

Subject to certain exceptions and transitional provisions, from 1st January 2001 marking is required for all animals born or first moved off the holding of birth after that date, and for all sheep and goats imported into England from outside the European Union (7 to 9). The Order prohibits bringing sheep or goats into England from another Member State or from another part of the United Kingdom, Channel Islands or Isle of Man, unless they are marked (articles 10 and 11).

The Order requires marking sheep and goats when they are consigned to a destination outside Great Britain (article 12), and to a destination within Great Britain (article 13). It also provides for documentation to be carried when sheep or goats are moved within Great Britain (article 14). It makes provision for the removal and replacement of eartags and tattoos and prohibits the alteration of eartags and tattoos (articles 15 to 17). It also makes provision for the production of records (article 18). With the exception of article 5, which is enforced by the Minister, the Order is enforced by the local authority.

NOTICE UNDER SECTION 12(6A) OF THE TELECOMMUNICATIONS ACT 1984 (AS AMENDED BY THE ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS ACT 2000)

MODIFICATIONS TO THE LICENCES OF ALL PUBLIC TELECOMMUNICATIONS OPERATORS EXCEPT BT AND CONCERT

During the period beginning on 26th April 1985 and ending on 23rd June 2000 the Secretary of State granted 315 licences under section 7 of the Telecommunications Act 1984 (the "Act") to particular persons which the Secretary of State has designated by order under section 9 of the Act as having public telecommunications systems. All of these licences which remain valid and subsisting, except for the licence granted to British Telecommunications plc ("BT") on 22nd June 1984 and the licence granted to Concert Communications Company ("Concert") on 18th December 1996, are collectively referred to hereinafter as the "PTO licences".

On 12th September 2000, the Director General of Telecommunications (the "Director"), in exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 12 of the Act, made the following modifications in Condition 31 in Schedule 1 of all PTO licences:

(a) Condition 47.6 was modified to create separate notice periods for Competitive Standard Services, on the one hand, and Prospectively Competitive Standard Services and New Standard Services, on the other; and

(b) the PTO licences were modified to allow the Director to vary the notice period required by Condition 55.4.

In accordance with section 12(6A) of the Act the Director hereby gives notice that his reasons for making the modifications were to provide consistency with modifications already made to the licences of BT and Concert on 11th May 2000 thus ensuring, in line with the Director's obligations under the EC Licensing Directive (97/13/EC), that licence conditions are not discriminatory, unless such discrimination can be objectively justified. The reasons for the modifications to the licences of BT and Concert, and a fuller description of their effect, are set out in OFTEL's Consultative Document of November 1999 entitled Competition in International Markets and OFTEL's Statement on Competition in International Markets of 9 March 2000. Post & Telecom

Telecommunications

NOTICE UNDER SECTION 12(6A) OF THE TELECOMMUNICATIONS ACT 1984 (AS AMENDED BY THE ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS ACT 2000)

MODIFICATION TO PUBLIC TELECOMMUNICATIONS OPERATOR LICENCES

During the period beginning on 26th April 1985 and ending on 23rd June 2000 the Secretary of State granted 315 licences under section 9 of the Act as having public telecommunications systems, collectively referred to hereinafter as the "PTO licences".

On 12th September 2000, the Director General of Telecommunications (the "Director"), in exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 12 of the Act, made the following modification in Condition 31 in Schedule 1 of all PTO licences which were valid and subsisting on that day:

Condition 31 was deleted in its entirety.

In accordance with section 12(6A) of the Act the Director hereby gives notice that his reasons for making the modification were to simplify the licence and avoid confusion following the coming into force of the Competition Act 1998 (the "Competition Act") on 1st March 2000. The Competition Act now prohibits anti-competitive agreements and conduct formerly covered by Condition 31. Condition 31.9(a) provided that the condition should cease to apply to any behaviour prohibited by new legislation that:

- "(i) contains a prohibition enforceable by the Director . . . of any behaviour prohibited (under Condition 31);
- (ii) gives to third parties in respect of a breach of that prohibition at least the rights they have under section 18 of the (Telecommunications Act 1984) in respect of a breach of a provisional or final order; and
- (iii) permits the imposition on the Licensee of monetary penalties in respect of the breach of that prohibition"

The Director has concluded that the Competition Act meets these criteria and that therefore Condition 31 would not have applied to agreements and conduct that would otherwise be in breach of both Condition 31 and the Competition Act. The deletion of Condition 31 therefore will help to avoid any potential ambiguity, whilst also serving to shorten and simplify these PTO licences. (998)
