PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990

NOTICE UNDER SECTION 70—CONSERVATION AREA AT BOURTON-ON-THE-WATER

Notice is hereby given that Cotswold District Council has reviewed and amended the boundary of the Bourton-on-the-Water Conservation Area in the county of Gloucestershire, pursuant to section 69 of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990.

Copies of the map of the amended conservation area can be inspected (during normal office hours) at the Council Offices, Trinity Road, Cirencester, Gloucestershire, and at the Council Offices, High Street, Moreton in Marsh, Gloucestershire.

The boundary has been revised to include an area of open countryside to the south of the River Windrush and north of Pockhill Lane, the front boundaries, verges and trees on the south side of Letch Lane, and the footpath connecting Station Road and Cemetery Lane, the cemetery itself, the house called Burghfield, its gardens and grounds, and the meadows to the south of Burghfield and to the north of Rissington Road (between the cricket field and the existing conservation area boundary). One area has been removed. This contains one of the garages on High Street, on the edge of the current conservation area boundary.

The purpose of the original designation and this revision is to preserve or enhance the character or appearance of the said conservation area which the Council considers is of special architectural or historic interest when proposals for development are under consideration, in accordance with section 72 of the Act. The designation affects permitted development rights appertaining to properties within the area and proposals for demolition of buildings and other structures including walls, subject to certain exceptions, would require conservation area consent. Regarding trees within the area, subject to certain exceptions the Council must be given 6 weeks prior notice of any intention to cut down, top, lop, uproot, cause wilful damage to, or wilfully destroy any such trees. Failure to obtain the above consents or give such notices may constitute a criminal offence.
