

ged for avoiding them to enter the Green-Sund, where being frozen up they still continue. It was intended to send out some Frigates from hence in Chace of those Swedish Privateers; and the Delmenhorst a Man of War, was appointed for that Service; but those Privateers having disappeared, that Design is changed, and the said Man of War which had lain in the Road four or five Weeks, is ordered into Port again.

Berne, Feb. 9. On the 3d Instant arrived here two Deputies from Zurich, and the Day following had their Audience of the Sovereign Council of Two Hundred, to whom they delivered what they had in Commission from their Superiors, which consisted in a Representation of the Justice of several Demands their Canton insisted upon in the new Treaty of Baden, desiring this State to go hand in hand with them, and to give their Deputies at that Congress the same Instructions their own had, and exhorting them to make a good Use of the present favourable Opportunity of coming to an advantageous Agreement with the Abbot and Chapter of St. Gall. Whereupon the Sovereign Council appointed a Committee to examine into this Affair, and to confer with those Deputies of Zurich, who accordingly have since been several Times in Conference with the Committee, and 'tis said are come very nigh an Agreement, which 'tis hoped will bring Matters to an Accommodation. They write from Milan the 1st Instant, that Count Staremberg was arrived there with his Family; but that it was not known yet what Character he would take upon him.

St. James's, February 13.

This Day the Right Honourable Robert Earl of Holderness was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn one of the Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Whitehall, February 14.

On the 12th Instant at Night the Corpse of the late Prince George William, Son of their Royal Highnesses, was carried from Kensington in His Majesty's Coaches, His Majesty's Servants with Yeomen of the Guard and Horse Guards attending, to the Abbey Church of Westminster, and was privately interred in the Royal Vault in King Henry the 7th's Chapel, the Lord Bishop of Rochester reading the Funeral Service.

Advertisements.

WHEREAS it was advertised in the Courant of April 2, and since in other Papers, that 110 l. was deposited with Mr. Warner, Goldsmith, to be distributed in Prizes of Silence and Poetry on the 1st of March next, her Royal Highness's Birth-Day, and that before that Time Judges should be appointed to open, examine, and compare the several Performances on the subject thereof, and determine to whom the Prizes should justly belong; and to prevent any Mistake, it was desired that every Gentleman would by some Motto, Number, or other Mark to his Oration or Poem take Care, that it might be distinguished from those of others. Now this is to give Notice, That the Performances have been examined in the manner proposed, and that the Prizes are adjudged as follows, viz. That of 14 l. to the Latin Oration on Gloria Deo in excelsis, with the Motto, Jovis omnia plena. That of 12 l. to that with the Motto, Quod prout, prout. That of 10 l. to, Caelum ejus solium. To the Poems on Pax in Terris, the Prize of 14 l. to the Pastoral with the Motto, Quam Pulchri super Montes. That of 12 l. to, Pacem te possumus omnes. That of 10 l. to, Quid tentare nocuit. To the English Oration on, Benevolentia erga homines, the Prize of 14 l. to that with the Motto, Bonum qd communis, id melius. That of 12 l. to, Quas dederis fides semper habebis opes. That of 10 l. to that with the Motto, Immortal Love to Mortal Men, Milton. And whereas it was intended that the Gentlemen should be invited to Dine on next St. David's Day at Draper's-Hall, with the Lords and Gentlemen who were to meet there to celebrate her Royal Highness's Birth-Day, and to receive their Prizes in the most Publick Manner before that Honourable Assembly: That Solemnity being put off for the present, the Gentlemen are now directed to meet at Ten that Morning, in Bowwell-Court, at the House of Sir Thomas Jones, Secretary to that Society, where Mr. Warner will distribute the several Prizes, as above adjudged.

†† The Present State of Europe, containing an Historical and Political Account of the Interests, Pretensions, and Transactions of the several Courts: For the Month of January, 1718. Vol. 29. To be continued Monthly from the Original Published at the Hague. Printed for H. Rhodes, at the Corner of Bride-lane in Fleet-Street, and the Assigns of Eliz. Harris.

TO be sold before John Hiccocks, Esq; one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, on Monday the 3d of March next, at Six in the Evening, at his Chambers in Lincoln's-Inn, a Copyhold Estate, whereon is a very good House, five Rooms on a Floor, all Sailed, with Coach-house, Out-houses and Stables, in very good Repair; and a Garden very well walled and planted with all Sorts of Fruit-Trees and Greens, the Garden Ground containing about two Acres, situate on Brooke-Green, Hammer-smith: Together with a Leasehold Estate held from Corpus Christi College, Oxon. and now on Leases at 140 l. per Annum, on which is a very good House with Out-Houses, situate in the Parish of Selling, near Evertham, in the County of Kent: And also three Leasehold Houses situate in St. Martin's Lane, Westminster, Lett on several Leases at 115 l. per Annum, late the Estates of Mr. Garrett Jenfon, deceased: Particulars may be had at the said Master's Chambers in Lincoln's-Inn.

THE Estate of Mr. John Walton, Jun. situate in Dock-lane, Prittleton, alias Portelton, Humber, Stoke, Pryor and Eaton, in the County of Hereford, being of the yearly Value of 45 l. in Possession, and 23 l. in Reversion, is to be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, to the best Bidder, before John Meller, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn, Chancery-Lane, London; where Particulars may be had.

WHEREAS Daniel Richards, late of London, Scrivener, who lived in Hatton-Garden in the Year 1698, did, in or about that Year become Insolvent, at which Time he was indebted to a Person (now unknown) who was by Trade a Coach-maker; And whereas the Widow of the said Daniel Richards, who dyed about four Years since, did, by a Codicil to her last Will, leave a Legacy of 100 l. to the said Person in the following Words [All to a Person who was a Coach-maker by Trade One Hundred Pounds] which Person, although strictly enquired after, cannot be heard of; Notice is therefore hereby given, That in case the said Person, if living, or his Executors or Administrators, in case of his Death, will apply to Mr. Reynolds, Executor to Mrs. Richards, at the Victualling-Office on Little Tower-Hill, or to Mr. Robert Walton at his House in Norfolk Street in the Strand, they may receive the said Legacy, so as such Application be made within Three Months now next ensuing; after which Time the said 100 l. will be paid over to the Residuary Legatee.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded against Sir Joseph Hodges, Bar net, of London, Merchant, and he being declared a Bankrupt; this is to give Notice, that the Commissioners will meet on the 19th Instant, at Three in the Afternoon at Guildhall, London, to appoint Assignees; where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and pay their Contribution-Money: All Persons that are indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any Goods or other Effects of his in their Hands, are not to pay or deliver the same to any Person but such only as the Commissioners shall appoint, but are desired forthwith to give Notice thereof to Mr. William Whitaker, Attorney at Law, in Aullin-Fryars, London.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded against John Sibley, late of London, Woolen-Draper, and he being declared a Bankrupt; this is to give Notice, that the Commissioners intend to meet on the 24th Instant, at Three in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London, to appoint Assignees; where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and pay Contribution-Money: All Persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any Goods, or other Effects of his in their Hands, are not to pay or deliver the same to any Person but such only as the Commissioners shall appoint, and are desired to give Notice thereof to Mr. Thomas Clendon, Attorney at Law in Sheer-Lane, London.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded against William Saunders, late of London, Grocer, and he being declared a Bankrupt; This is to give Notice, that the Commissioners intend to meet on the 21st Instant, at Three in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London; where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and pay Contribution-Money: All Persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any Goods or other Effects of his in their Hands, are not to pay or deliver the same to any Person but such only as the Commissioners shall appoint, but are forthwith to give Notice thereof to Mr. William Dandy, Attorney at Law, the Corner of Aldermanbury, London.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against William Bennett, of Guilford, alias Goldesford, in the County of Surry, Vintner, intend to meet on the 3d of April next, at Three in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London, to make a Dividend of the said Bankrupt's Estate; when and where the Creditors who have not already proved their Debts and paid their Contribution-Money, are then to come prepared to do the same, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend.

THE Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Jane Stevens, of the City of Norwich, Salt-woman, intend to meet on Monday the 3d of March next, at Three in the Afternoon, at the House of Mr. Ralph Say, called the Lower Half Moon in the City of Norwich, in order to make a Dividend of the said Bankrupt's Estate; where the Creditors who have not already proved their Debts and paid their Contribution-Money, are then to come prepared to do the same, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Dividend.