ADVICE FOR CUSTOMERS

Circumstances may arise which lead to the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority—set up by Parliament to protect customers' interests—revoking an electricity supplier's licence. In this situation, arrangements need to be in place to ensure customers continue to receive a supply of electricity.

Southern Electric plc, Scottish and Southern Energy plc or South Wales Electricity plc may be directed by the Gas and Electricity Markets Authority to supply electricity to the customers of the supplier whose licence has been revoked. To allow this to happen, Parliament has passed a law—the Utilities Act 2000—which requires us to ensure that from a certain date these customers will be deemed to have entered into a contract with Southern Electric plc, Scottish and Southern Energy plc or South Wales Electricity plc for the supply of electricity. These contracts are known as Deemed Contracts.

The terms and conditions of our Deemed Contracts which would apply in these circumstances came into effect on 1st March and any person can obtain a copy from:

Southern Electric plc, Westacott Way, Littlewick Green, Maidenhead, Berkshire SL6 3QB.
