

ry Time the Council meets, and to have 7000 Florins a Year, unless they have other Employments to that Value, in which Case they are to receive an Addition only of 3000 Florins a Year as Counsellours; and of five Counsellours of the long Robe, viz. the Baron d'Heilfem, the Heer Vander Ghoten, Director of the Finances, the Heers Vander Hagen and De Groef, and a fifth not yet named, who are likewise to receive 7000 Florins each per Annum, except the Heer Vander Ghoten, whose Salary is to be 12000 Florins a Year. These which follow are likewise to be of the Council, but are to attend only upon special Summons; the Archbishop, when such Matters are to be considered as relate to the Church, the General of the Forces when they are to treat of military Affairs, the Baron de Gussere, Chancellour, and the President Baillet, when their Advice shall be thought necessary upon Business of Law. In the Absence of the Governour General, and of the Minister Plenipotentiary, the eldest Counsellour of the Robe is to act as President, and upon all Questions they are to declare their Opinions, according to their Rank, beginning from the lowest. Monsieur Cuvelier is to be the first Secretary of this Council, and there are to be two other Secretaries for Affairs of State, and two more for Matters of Revenue. The Council is to meet daily, and to sit from Eight to Twelve before Noon; and two Days in the Week are to be set apart for the Business of the Revenue. There are to be three Principal Intendants or Directors of the Finances residing at Brussels, whereof two are to be admitted into the Council to give Information and Advice upon Affairs of the Revenue, at such Times as they shall be under Consideration. These Intendants are to have under their Direction the Revenues of the Districts of Brabant, Limbourg, Mechlen and Guelderland; and those of the remaining Provinces are committed to the Care of four Under-Intendants, whereof two are appointed for Flanders and the reunited Countries; another for Heynault and the Province of Namur, and the fourth for that of Luxembourg. There is to be a General Receipt or Exchequer, and a Military Chest, and a Receiver and Paymaster General to each. The Places of Director or Surveyor General of the Army, of Veador, Contador, and several other usefles and expensive Offices, are entirely suppressed.
