Lake District National Park AuthorityPLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990*RAVENGLASS CONSERVATION AREA BOUNDARY REVIEW

Notice is hereby given that on 22 May 2001 the Lake District National Park Authority reviewed under the provisions of section 69(2) of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990 the Ravenglass Conservation Area. The effect of the review is firstly to extend the area by adding and deleting those parts of Ravenglass described in the Schedule and, secondly, to enable the Authority to preserve or enhance the special architectural or historic interest of the designated area as extended. This will be achieved by applying special controls to the demolition or alteration of buildings and the carrying out of work to trees within the Conservation Area, together with other works of enhancement or preservation.

The amendments to the boundary of the designated area are described in the Schedule hereto, copies of which (together with a map showing the newly designated boundary of the area outlined) are available, free of charge, during office hours from the National Park Office, Murley Moss, Oxenholme Road, Kendal, Cumbria and Copeland Borough Council offices at Catherine Street, Whithaven.

C J Chapman, Solicitor to the Authority

SCHEDULE

The following amendments have been made to the designated boundary of the Ravenglass Conservation Area.

Land at the north-eastern corner of the village bounded by the C4057 road on the south, field 6859 on the east and the Ravenglass and Eskdale Railway stone engine shed and railway lines on the west.

2. Additions:

(i) A large triangular piece of land on the north-eastern side of the village commencing at a point on the original Conservation Area boundary at the base of the main line railway embankment where it meets the C4057 road, opposite the Beeches. The boundary runs in a clockwise direction along the southern boundary of C4057 road to a point where the public footpath no 418009 leaves the junction with Walls Drive, then south-west for 120 metres along the northern boundary of footpath 418009, north of the playground, turning south for 50 metres, west then north around the southern boundary of the signal box to meet the southern boundary of the footbridge, then in a general north-west direction for 211 metres along the eastern boundary of the main line railway property, to include the Ravenglass and Eskdale railway buildings and yard, to a point at the base of the main line embankment where it meets Main Street (road C4057).

(ii) A small piece of enclosed land to the rear of the Old Reading Room on the western side of Main Street.

(iii) A small piece of land at the south-eastern corner of the Conservation Area forming the extended curtilage of Rose Cottage, commencing at a point where the original Conservation Area boundary meets the sea wall 30 metres south of Rose Cottage. In an anticlockwise direction the boundary follows the sea wall west for 22 metres, then turns north for 50 metres, then west for 45 metres, to join the line of the original Conservation Area boundary, 10 metres north of the original Rose Cottage curtilage.
