Road Traffic Acts Corporation of London

REDUCTION OF ON-STREET RESIDENTS PARKING SPACES

1. Notice is hereby given, that the Common Council of the City of London propose to make Orders under section 6 and under section 45 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.
2. The number of on street residents parking spaces in the Golden Lane area would be reduced from fifteen to nine spaces to equal the number of permit holders in that area. The effect of the Orders, would be:
 - (a) in Fann Street, to convert part of a residents parking place to a disabled persons parking place consisting of one bay;
 - (b) in Baltic Street West, to convert a residents parking place to a disabled persons parking place consisting of two bays and extend another residents parking place by one bay;
 - (c) in Charterhouse Square to convert a residents parking place into a disabled persons parking place consisting of two bays and to extend an existing metered parking place by two bays;
 - (d) in Golden Lane, to convert part of a metered parking bay to a disabled persons parking place consisting of one bay.
3. The disabled persons parking bays would be free of charge, and available for City "Red Badge" holders at any time. "Blue and Orange Badge" holders would be able to use the parking places after 10.00 am on Mondays and Fridays subject to a maximum stay of three hours.
4. A copy of each of the proposed Orders, of the City of London (Free Parking Places) (Disabled Persons) Order 1994, of the City of London (Parking Places) (No 4) Order 1994, of the City of London (Residents Parking Places) Order 1995, of the Common Councils statement of reasons for proposing to make the Orders and of plans showing the affected streets can be inspected during normal office hours on Monday to Fridays within a period of 21 days from the date on which this notice was published at the Department of Planning and Transportation, Guildhall, London E.C.2.
5. Further information may be obtained by telephoning the Department of Planning and Transportation, telephone 020 7332 1108.
6. Persons desiring to object to the proposed Orders should send a statement of their objection and the grounds thereof to the City Planning Officer, Guildhall, London EC2P 2EJ, within the aforementioned period of 21 days.

THE IMPORTATION OF BIRDS, POULTRY AND HATCHING EGGS ORDER 1979

GENERAL LICENCE NO EGG/2176/01/GEN1

The Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food by this licence, issued under Article 4 of the Importation of Birds, Poultry and Hatching Eggs Order 1979, hereby authorises the landing in England/Wales in accordance with the conditions set out below, of:

Details of birds:

Captive birds (see condition 1).

Originating in:

Countries listed as members of the Office International des Epizooties (OIE), other than EU Member States and Norway.

Border Inspection Post of entry into the European Community:

- (1) Heathrow Airport, Gatwick Airport, Manchester Airport.
- (2) Border Inspection Posts approved for the import of birds in other EU Member States, Norway and Scotland/Glasgow Airport.

CONDITIONS

1. Captive birds for the purposes of this licence are those birds covered by the definition of 'birds' in Article 1 of Commission Decision 2000/666/EC.
2. Imports of captive birds must comply with the requirements of Commission Decision 2000/666/EC.
3. Captive birds must be transported in cages or crates which must be individually identified with the identification number that must correspond with the identification number on the animal health certificate.
4. The importer must prove to the Border Inspection Post that an approved quarantine facility or centre will accept the birds. The written proof must be provided by a Local Veterinary Inspector or, where quarantine is to take place in another Member State, by an official designated by the competent authority in that Member State.
5. Captive birds will be released from post-import quarantine only on the written authorisation of the Divisional Veterinary Manager (or the appropriate official veterinarian in other Member States) responsible for the approval of the quarantine facility or centre.
6. All post-import quarantine costs occasioned by the application of Commission Decision 2000/666/EC shall be borne by the importer.
7. The importer must give at least one working day's notice in writing of his intention to import the birds, specifying the number, nature and estimated time of arrival of the birds, to the official veterinarian of the border inspection post through which the birds are to be imported.

NOTES

1. In the event of any condition of this licence not being complied with, or in the case of suspicion of disease, a veterinary inspector has powers under the Importation of Birds, Poultry and Hatching Eggs Order 1979 to require the owner or person in charge of the birds to quarantine, re-export or destroy the consignment at the owner's expense.
2. Imports of birds may require export and import permits under CITES (Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species). CITES permits must be issued in advance and applicants should apply 30 days prior to importation for their permit(s). Those species requiring CITES permits must be moved in compliance with the CITES guidelines for the transport and preparation for shipment of live wild animals or, in the case of air transport, in accordance with the relevant IATA regulations. Failure to observe these regulations may result in the seizure of specimens by HM Customs and Excise.

- (1) Heathrow Airport, Gatwick Airport, Manchester Airport.
- (2) Border Inspection Posts approved for the import of birds in other EU Member States, Norway and Scotland/Glasgow Airport.

CONDITIONS

1. Birds imported under this General Licence must originate from holdings which are registered by the competent authority of the exporting country.
2. Birds destined for England and Wales must be accompanied by an animal health certificate, signed by an official veterinarian in the country of origin, in the same form used for other captive birds an example of which is shown in Annex A to Commission Decision 2000/666/EC.
3. Birds must be transported in cages or crates which must be individually identified with the identification number that must correspond with the identification number on the animal health certificate.
4. The importer must prove to the Border Inspection Post that a quarantine facility or centre in England or Wales, approved in accordance with Commission Decision 2000/666/EC, will accept the birds. The written proof must be provided by a Local Veterinary Inspector. Where the birds are in transit to another Member State or Norway, written proof must be provided by an official designated by the competent authority in that Member State or Norway, that the birds will be accepted in accordance with their national requirements.
5. Birds destined for England or Wales must be quarantined for at least 30 days in a quarantine facility or centre approved in accordance with Commission Decision 2000/666/EC. During the period of quarantine, inspections of the birds by an official veterinarian and sampling and testing for avian influenza and Newcastle disease must be carried out in accordance with the procedures set out in Commission Decision 2000/666/EC.
6. If during quarantine, it is suspected or confirmed that psittacines are infected with Chlamydia psittaci, all birds of the consignment must be treated by a method approved by the competent authority and the quarantine must be prolonged for at least two months following the last recorded case.
7. Psittacines must be individually identified at arrival in quarantine by means of a tamperproof leg ring or a microchip bearing a unique serial number.
8. Birds quarantined in England or Wales will be released from post-import quarantine only on the written authorisation of the Divisional Veterinary Manager responsible for the approval of the quarantine facility or centre.
9. All post-import quarantine costs shall be borne by the importer.
10. The importer must give at least one working day's notice in writing of his intention to import the birds, specifying the number, nature and estimated time of arrival of the birds, to the official veterinarian of the border inspection post through which the birds are to be imported.

NOTES

1. In the event of any condition of this licence not being complied with, or in the case of suspicion of disease, a veterinary inspector has powers under the Importation of Birds, Poultry and Hatching Eggs Order 1979 to require the owner or person in charge of the birds to quarantine, re-export or destroy the consignment at the owner's expense.
2. Imports of birds may require export and import permits under CITES (Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species). CITES permits must be issued in advance and applicants should apply 30 days prior to importation for their permit(s). Statistics & Standards Tracker

Including Daily UK & European Press Releases

A weekly guide to statistics from ONS and new Standards published by BSI

Every day, The London Gazette provides a summary of official publications, from press releases to statutes. Each day includes complete listings of all official press releases together with material designed to give a different viewpoint on the activities of Government:

Monday – New Law Tracker. A weekly guide to all new legislation from Westminster including all Statutes and Statutory Instruments.

Tuesday – Statistics & Standards Tracker. A round up of the latest from the Office of National Statistics and the British Standards Institution.

Wednesday – Parliamentary Tracker. A full summary of the events in Parliament including committees and the progress of new legislation.

Thursday – European Tracker. A guide to the latest European materials including consultative documents, draft legislation, treaties, conventions and directives.

Friday – Government Tracker. All new Government publications and what's new on Government websites.

To make it easier to use, everything is put into one of eight broad categories and then further classified according to more specific subject areas.

Home Affairs encompasses items which relate to internal affairs such as law & order, the courts, public records and the workings of Government.

International Affairs covers foreign policy & issues of concern Europe and world-wide.

Trade, Industry & Energy provides a guide to developments in the world of business.

Social Policy concerns matters which affect individuals in their everyday lives, such as education, employment & health.

Transport & Environment encompasses transport policy & the environment, from pollution to regeneration & planning.

Defence, Science & Technology includes defence issues, research & development and technological advances.

Culture & Sport covers leisure time, the media and sport.

Agriculture & Food includes farming, food & fisheries.

NOTICE

All Notices and Advertisements are published in the London Gazette at the risk of the Advertiser and at the discretion of the Editor. Whilst every endeavour will be made to ensure that the publication is made in accordance with the advertiser's requirements the Crown accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage howsoever arising from either a failure to meet those requirements or in respect of any errors or omissions which may inadvertently be made in respect of those requirements or in connection with any notice or advertisement.

Notices and Advertisements by Private Advertisers may be tendered at or sent direct by post to The Stationery Office Limited, The London Gazette Office, PO Box 7923, London SE1 5ZH, for insertion at the authorised rates of payment. All Notices and Advertisements must be pre-paid. The Office hours are from 8.30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays to Fridays, inclusive. Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post must be accompanied by postal orders or cheques made payable to The London Gazette.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes (other than under Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925 and section 28, Water Resources Act, 1963) or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, by a member of any body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised by the Board of Trade for the purposes of Section 389 (1) of the Companies Act, 1985, or by a member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators. Notices of Dissolution of Partnership which are signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives will be accepted if signed or attested as above.

A Notice not signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such Notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925, will not be inserted unless they are signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court or by a duly authorised official of a London Clearing Bank or the Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration relating to the estate to which the advertisement refers is produced for inspection at the time the advertisement is submitted.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.
