On 23 July 2001, Transport for London made The Greater London (Central Zone) Congestion Charging Order 2001. The Order will require the Mayor of London's confirmation before it can come into effect. The Mayor can confirm the Order with or without modifications, or reject it. Representations on, and objections to, the Order were invited to be made by 28 September 2001.

Transport for London is still considering the representations and objections received. However it is minded to recommend to the Mayor to make a number of modifications to the Order. The modifications under consideration include but are not confined to:

charging hours to be 7.00 am to 6.30 pm, rather than 7.00 am to 7.00 pm;
a new account system for fleets of vehicles;
standard £5 charge payable if licences purchased before 8.00 pm rather than 7.00 pm;
a new system to provide a 100 per cent discount for NHS staff who have to use their cars to carry controlled drugs, confidential patient records, bulky, heavy or fragile equipment or other specified material; in addition to a 100 per cent discount for fire brigade operational vehicles, a new system to provide a 100 per cent discount for firefighters who have to use their own cars to travel between stations for operational reasons;

a 100 per cent discount for:
all public service vehicles with nine seats or more (including community mini-buses operated by charities and non profit-making organisations)
London private hire vehicles (minicabs)—once they are fully licensed; 100 per cent discount, less £10 for annual registration, for:
all alternative fuel vehicles meeting tough emission standards breakdown vehicles operated by accredited roadside recovery and repair organisations all disabled Blue Badge Holders; the 100 per cent discount for Royal Mail liveried vehicles to be removed; the Order to come into force 12 months (instead of 14 months) after the Scheme Order is confirmed; the earliest start date for charging would now be mid-February 2003 if the Order was confirmed without a public inquiry.

Copies of the Order incorporating all the proposed modifications and a Schedule of the modifications with the reasons for them together with other supporting documents may be inspected at all reasonable hours at the offices of Transport for London, Faith Lawson House, 15 Dacre Street, London SW1H 0DJ. It is also intended to deposit documents at the premises of the Corporation of London, the City of Westminster and the London Boroughs of Camden, Hackney, Islington, Lambeth, Southwark and Tower Hamlets. Full details of locations, dates and opening hours where documents may be inspected may be obtained by telephoning 0800 0853939. Information is also available on our website www.streetmanagement.org.uk.

Any person may make representations on, or object to, the proposed modifications. All objections must specify the grounds on which they are made. In preparing a representation or objection it should be borne in mind that some or all of it may be imparted to other persons who may be affected by it. The Mayor will consider all representations and objections received related to the proposed modifications within the time limit specified above before deciding whether or not to confirm the Order, with or without modifications, and whether to hold a public inquiry.
