GREATER LONDON AUTHORITY ACT 1999

Transport for London hereby gives notice that, on 26 February 2002, the Mayor of London confirmed The Greater London (Central Zone) Congestion Charging Order 2001, with modifications.

On 23 July 2001, Transport for London made The Greater London (Central Zone) Congestion Charging Order 2001. The Order requires the Mayor of London's confirmation before it can come into effect. The Mayor has the power to confirm the Order with or without modifications, or reject it. Representations on, and objections to, the Order were invited to be made from 23 July 2001 to 28 September 2001. Following consideration of these Transport for London was minded to recommend to the Mayor a number of modifications. These were subject to further public consultation and representations and objections were invited from 10 December 2001 to 18 January 2002. Transport for London submitted a report to the Mayor of London on 8 February 2002, and GLA officers have produced advice on Transport for London's proposals in a Mayoral Approval Form.

On 26 February 2002, following consideration of all the representations and objections received up to 25 February 2002, the Transport for London Report, the Mayoral Approval Form and all other relevant matters, the Mayor confirmed the Order with modifications. Transport for London is the charging authority. Charging and the associated enforcement processes are due to commence on 17 February 2003. Other parts of the Order (giving powers to allow purchase of licences and discount registrations for example) commence on 14 October 2002.

The zone where roads would be subject to charges will be bounded by the Inner Ring Road ie Marylebone Road, Euston Road, Pentonville Road, Tower Bridge, Elephant and Castle, Vauxhall Bridge and Victoria. There will be a charge for the use or keeping of vehicles within the zone although there would be a range of exemptions and discounts. There will be no charge for using the Inner Ring Road itself. The charging hours will be 7.00 am to 6.30 pm, Monday to Friday, excluding public holidays. The standard charge will be £5 per vehicle per day. There will be a system of penalty charge notices to deal with evaders and a system of vehicle clamping and/or removals, which will apply throughout Greater London, to deal with vehicle keepers with at least 3 outstanding penalty charges that are not subject to representations. The main aim of the scheme is to reduce congestion in central London. It is expected that traffic will be reduced by 10-15 per cent in central London leading to a 20-30 per cent reduction in delays and shorter and more reliable journey times for all road users. The scheme is expected to raise at least £130 million per annum which will be used to improve London's transport system.

Copies of the Order together with other supporting documents may be inspected at all reasonable hours at the offices of Transport for London, Faith Lawson House, 15 Dacre Street, London SW1H 0DJ. It is also intended to deposit documents at the Greater London Authority Visitor Centre, Marsham Street, London SW1. Information is also available on our website www.streetmanagement.org.uk. Copies of the Order may be obtained by either emailing ccs@tfl.gov.uk or by telephoning 020-7941 4500.
