P R E S E N Ţ, The King's most Excellent Majesty in

This Day the Right Honourable Nicholas Lechmere, Efq; was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Venice, July 1. By Letters from Corfu of the 12th past, by the Way of Otranto, we have Advice that the Captain General Pisani is sailed with the Gallies to Zant, where the Fleet waits his Excellency's Arrival, confifting of 25 Ships of War well manned and provided with all Necessaries, and expecting to be joined foon by the Maltese Squadron. fame Letters say, the Ottoman Fleet is come to Napoli di Romania, and consists of 25 Sail. Admiral Grimani, with two Men of War and 16 Transports, is sailed to the Coast of Albania, having on board General Schuylemberg, with a Regiment of Italians, 300 Germans, 26 Engineers, and all Necessaries for undertaking a Siege; but it is not known what Place he will attack. At Lido arrived this Week the Battalions of Verona, and of Padua, confisting each of 500 Men. This Week also is expected that of Rurigo of 450 Men, besides several independant Companies. All these are to be fent to Dalmatia for reinforcing the Army there, which is to join the Army in Albania that is commanded by General Schuylemberg, and the Proveditore General Mocenigo is to stay at Sebenigo to cover that Frontier. This Week the great Council has chosen into the Nobility Sig. Charles Zini, with his to Sons, five of whom are to be Priests, and so are excluded from all Benefit of their Nobility.

Rerne, July 6. The Deputies named on the Part of this State for the General Diet of the Helvetick Body, are arrived at Baden, where the French Ambassadour, the Marquess D'Avaray, was likewise expected on the 4th Instant, which Day was appointed for opening the faid Diet. Two Deputies from Neufchatel had Audience on the 4th of the Sovereign Council here, to whom they delivered a Memorial complaining of this Canton's prohibiting the bringing of their Wines into this Country, and fetting forth their Privileges and the Right they had acquired by the Treaty of Comburghership with this State, to sell their Wines in these Parts. Whereupon a Commission has been appointed by the said Sovereign Council to examine their Pretensions, and to make report. They write from Milan the 28th past, that the Governour of that Dutchy had begun to form a Camp near Vercelli, which was faid to confift of 10000 Men; that the Militia had likewise received Orders to be ready to march whenever it should be required; and that great Diligence was used in repairing the Fortifications of Pavia and Novara.

Hambourg, July 8. Yesterday the Burghers of this City had a general Meeting at the Town-House, where the President of the College of Sixty acquainted the Common Council, that Count Fuchs, the Imperial Envoy, had lately sent for some Deputies of the College, and represented to them, that he had Orders from the Emperour to let the Burghers know his Majesty's Intention was not, that they should receive the least Prejudice by the Act or Constitution relating to this City made by Cardinal Schonborn, at the Time of his Residence here as Imperial Commissioner; but that he the said Envoy was instructed to make such Alterations in the said Act, as the College should should think fit; and the President demanding upon this Proposition the Advice of the Common Council, it was agreed, that Thanks should be returned to the Imperial Minister for his Care of their Privileges and Liberties, and two eminent Lawyers were nominated as Plenipotentiaries from the Burghers, to confer with the Count, in order to revile and alter the said Act, in such Points and Articles as they shall think necessary for the common Good. The Hessian General Ranck arrived here last Night, coming from Bremen, and 'tis fupposed he will pass over into Sweden by the way of Lubeck. Letter's from Copénhagen of the 5th Instant advise, that Sir John Norris with the British Squadron was then lying off Stevens-Point in the Bay of Koge; and would keep that Station till the Arrival of the Dutch Squadron. Four Danish Men of War and two Frigates, were ordered to cruize off Sand-Hammer and near Bornholm, to get Intelligence of the Swedes, who had fome Cruizers in those Parts. The King of Denmark is at Classholm, a Seat which his Majesty bought lately in Jutland.

Dresden, July 6. On the 3d Instant M. Manteussel set out from hence for Berlin, to confer with the King of Pruffia's Ministers. 'Tis advised from Berlin, that his Prussian Majesty was on the 24th past at Pillau, where he viewed the Fortifications and was entertained by the English Merchants. From thence his Majesty went to Coningsberg, and afterwards to Memel, where it had been reported he was to have an Interview with the Czar, but the latter continues at Petersbourg. His Prussian Majesty is expected back at Berlin on the 13th Instant. The King of Poland has given Order for his Equipage to be got ready, defigning to fet out for Poland the 26th of this Month, and to be present in the General Diet which is appointed to be held at Grodno on the 15th of August next. By Letters from Petersbourg we learn, that the Conferences held at Aland, between the Swedish and Muscovite Plenipotentiaries, are broke off; those of Sweden rejecting the Czar's Proposals

States General, for preventing the seducing of British Seamen into foreign Service, and for prohibiting all Commerce between the Subjects of this Republick and the Moors. The Earl of Cadogan continues to affift with the Deputies of this State, at the fettling of the Accompts of the Sums negotiated in the Netherlands during the last War; and that Affair will be finished by the 16th Instant. The Marquess de Prié is expected here on the 20th.
