London Borough of Tower Hamlets

THE TOWER HAMLETS (20 MPH SPEED LIMIT) (NO 3) TRAFFIC ORDER 2002

1. Notice is hereby given that the Council of the London Borough of Tower Hamlets, on 10 June 2002, made the above mentioned Order under section 84(1)(a) and (2) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, as amended by the Local Government Act 1985, and the Road Traffic Act 1991.

2. The general effect of the Order will be that no person shall drive a motor vehicle at a speed exceeding 20 miles per hour in any of the following lengths of road:

- (i) Clark Street, between its junction with Damien Street, and its junction with Sidney Street;
- (ii) Clark Street, between its junction with Sidney Square, its easternmost arm, and its junction with Jubilee Street;

(iii) Sidney Square, its easternmost arm, between its junction with Sidney Square, its northernmost arm, and Sidney Square, its southernmost arm;

(iv) Sidney Square, its southernmost arm, between its junction with Sidney Street, and its junction with Sidney Square, its easternmost arm.

3. A copy of the Order, which will come into operation on 24 June 2002, can be inspected by appointment, during normal office hours on Mondays to Fridays inclusive, until the expiration of a period of 6 weeks from the date of this notice at the offices of Traffic and Transportation, Customer Services, Southern Grove Lodge, Southern Grove, London E3 4PN.

4. Any person desiring to question the validity of the Order, or of any provision provided therein on the grounds that it is not within the relevant powers of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, or that any of the relevant requirements thereof, or any relevant regulations made thereunder have not been complied with in relation to the Order, may, within 6 weeks of the date on which the Order is made, make application for the purpose to the High Court.

THE IMPORTATION OF BIRDS, POULTRY AND HATCHING EGGS ORDER 1979

GENERAL LICENCE NO: EGG/2176/01/GEN6

The Secretary of State for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs by this licence, issued under Article 4 of the Importation of Birds, Poultry and

Hatching Eggs Order 1979, hereby authorises the landing in England/Wales in accordance with the conditions set out below, of:

Details of birds: Non-psittacines for zoos, circuses, amusement parks, experimental laboratories and conservation programmes

Originating in: EU Member States and Norway

At: All ports and airports in England and Wales

Authorised by the Secretary of State

27 May 2002.

CONDITIONS

1. Imports of birds under this General Licence must meet the conditions of Council Directive 92/65/EEC.

2. Birds must come from premises which have been registered by the competent authority in the Member State of origin under Article 4 of Council Directive 92/65/EEC.

3. Birds must be accompanied by a declaration, signed by the owner, containing at least the following three statements:

(a) that the birds do not, at the time of export show any obvious signs of disease;

(b) that the premises of origin is not subject to any animal health restrictions applied as a result of an outbreak of disease;

(c) that birds which have been imported from a third country have been resident for at least 30 days in an EU Member State and, at the time of export, are free of quarantine restrictions.

4. The birds must not come from a holding on which avian influenza has been diagnosed in the 30 days prior to export.

5. The birds must not come from a holding or an area subject to restrictions under measures to be applied to combat Newcastle disease.

6. The importer must give at least 24 hours notice in writing to the Divisional Veterinary Manager responsible for the place of destination, of his intention to import the birds, specifying the nature of the consignment, its anticipated date of arrival and the place of destination.

NOTES

1. Birds which are brought into GB should be carried as manifest freight, and not in passenger cabins or hand baggage.

2. In the event of any condition of this licence not being complied with, or in the case of suspicion of disease, a veterinary inspector has powers under the Importation of Birds, Poultry and Hatching Eggs Order 1979 to require the owner or person in charge of the birds to quarantine, re-export or destroy the consignment at the owner's expense.

3. Imports of birds may require export and import permits under CITES (Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species). CITES permits must be issued in advance and applicants should apply 30 days prior to importation for their permit(s). Those species requiring CITES permits must be moved in compliance with the CITES guidelines for the transport and preparation for shipment of live wild animals or, in the case of air transport, in accordance with the relevant IATA regulations. National Assembly for Wales

ANIMAL HEALTH ACT 1981

THE IMPORTATION OF BIRDS, POULTRY AND HATCHING EGGS ORDER 1979

GENERAL LICENCE NO: EGG/2176/01/GEN3

The Secretary of State for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs by this licence, issued under Article 4 of the Importation of Birds, Poultry and Hatching Eggs Order 1979, hereby authorises the landing in England/Wales in accordance with the conditions set out below, of:

Details of birds: Psittacines other than:
 – pet birds accompanying their owner;
 – birds for zoos, circuses, amusement parks, experimental laboratories and conservation programmes

Originating in: EU Member States and Norway
At: All ports and airports in England and Wales

Authorised by the Secretary of State
27 May 2002.

CONDITIONS

1. Imports of psittacines must comply with the requirements of Council Directive 92/65/EEC.
2. Psittacines must come from a holding or business which has been registered by the competent authority in the Member State of origin under Article 4 of Council Directive 92/65/EEC.
3. Psittacines must be accompanied by a document, signed by an official veterinarian in the Member State of origin, containing at least the following four statements:

(a) that the psittacines do not come from a holding, nor have been in contact with animals from a holding, on which psittacosis (Chlamydia psittaci) has been diagnosed within the last two months;
(b) that the psittacines do not come from a holding on which avian influenza has been diagnosed in the 30 days preceding the dispatch;
(c) that the psittacines come from a holding or an area not subject to restrictions under measures to be applied to combat Newcastle disease;
(d) that psittacines which have been imported from a third country have completed quarantine in an EU Member State in accordance with Commission Decision 2000/666/EC; or, in the case of psittacines imported from a third country before 1 November 2001, that they have been resident in the Member State of origin for at least 30 days and are free of quarantine restrictions.

4. Psittacines must be individually identified. This should normally be by means of a tamperproof leg ring or microchip bearing a unique serial number.
5. The importer must give at least 24 hours notice in writing to the Divisional Veterinary Manager responsible for the place of destination, of his intention to import the birds, specifying the nature of the consignment, its anticipated date of arrival and the place of destination.

NOTES

1. Birds which are brought into GB should be carried as manifest freight, and not in passenger cabins or hand baggage.
2. In the event of any condition of this licence not being complied with, or in the case of suspicion of disease, a veterinary inspector has powers under the Importation of Birds, Poultry and Hatching Eggs Order 1979 to require the owner or person in charge of the birds to quarantine, re-export or destroy the consignment at the owner's expense.
3. Imports of birds may require export and import permits under CITES (Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species). CITES permits must be issued in advance and applicants should apply 30 days prior to importation for their permit(s). Those species requiring CITES permits must be moved in compliance with the CITES guidelines for the transport and preparation for shipment of live wild animals or, in the case of air transport, in accordance with the relevant IATA regulations. Failure to observe these regulations may result in the seizure of specimens by HM Customs and Excise.

GENERAL LICENCE NO: EGG/2176/01/GEN2

The Secretary of State for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs by this licence, issued under Article 4 of the Importation of Birds, Poultry and Hatching Eggs Order 1979, hereby authorises the landing in England/Wales in accordance with the conditions set out below, of:

Details of birds: Birds for zoos, circuses, amusement parks, experimental laboratories and conservation programmes

Originating in: Countries listed as Members of the Office International des Epizooties (OIE), other than EU Member States and Norway

Border Inspection Post of entry into the European Community: 1) Heathrow Airport, Gatwick Airport, Manchester Airport

2) Border Inspection Posts approved for the import of birds in other EU Member States, Norway and Scotland/Glasgow Airport

Authorised by the Secretary of State

27 May 2002.

CONDITIONS

1. Birds imported under this General Licence must originate from holdings which are registered by the competent authority of the exporting country.
2. Birds destined for England and Wales must be accompanied by an animal health certificate, signed by an official veterinarian in the country of origin, in the same form used for other captive birds an example of which is shown in Annex A to Commission Decision 2000/666/EC.
3. Birds must be transported in cages or crates which must be individually identified with the identification number that must correspond with the identification number on the animal health certificate.
4. The importer must prove to the Border Inspection Post (BIP) that a quarantine facility or centre in England or Wales, approved in accordance with Commission Decision 2000/666/EU, will accept the birds. The written proof must be signed by the owner or owner's representative of the quarantine premises. Where the birds are in transit to another Member State or Norway, written proof must be provided by an official designated by the competent authority in that Member State or Norway, that the birds will be accepted in accordance with their national requirements.
5. Birds destined for England or Wales must be quarantined for at least 30 days in a quarantine facility or centre approved in accordance with Commission Decision 2000/666/EC. During the period of quarantine, inspections of the birds by an official veterinarian and sampling and testing for avian influenza and Newcastle disease must be carried out in accordance with the procedures set out in Commission Decision 2000/666/EC.
6. If during quarantine, it is suspected or confirmed that psittacines are infected with Chlamydia psittaci, all birds of the consignment must be treated by a method approved by the competent authority and the quarantine must be prolonged for at least two months following the last recorded case.
7. Psittacines must be individually identified at arrival in quarantine, if not already identified, by means of a tamperproof leg ring or a microchip bearing a unique serial number.
8. Birds quarantined in England or Wales will be released from post-import quarantine only on the written authorisation of the Divisional Veterinary Manager responsible for the approval of the quarantine facility or centre.
9. All post-import quarantine costs shall be borne by the importer.
10. The importer must give at least one working day's notice in writing of his intention to import the birds, specifying the number, nature and estimated time of arrival of the birds, to the official veterinarian of the border inspection post through which the birds are to be imported.

NOTES

1. Birds which are brought into GB should be carried as manifest freight, and not in passenger cabins or hand baggage.
2. In the event of any condition of this licence not being complied with, or in the case of suspicion of disease, a veterinary inspector has powers under the Importation of Birds, Poultry and Hatching Eggs Order 1979 to require the owner or person in charge of the birds to quarantine, re-export or destroy the consignment at the owner's expense.

3. Imports of birds may require export and import permits under CITES (Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species). CITES permits must be issued in advance and applicants should apply 30 days prior to importation for their permit(s). Notice is hereby given, that by an Order dated 24 May 2002, made in the above matter, the Court has directed that a Meeting (hereinafter called the "Creditors' Meeting") be convened of the Scheme Creditors (as defined in the Scheme of Arrangement hereinafter mentioned) of the above-named Company (hereinafter called "the Company") for the purposes of considering and, if thought fit, approving (with or without modifications) a Scheme of Arrangement proposed to be made between the Company and the Scheme Creditors and that the Creditors' Meeting will be held at The Great Hall of The Chartered Insurance Institute, 20 Aldermanbury Square, London EC2V 7HY, on 11 July 2002, commencing at 3.00 pm at which place and time all such Scheme Creditors are requested to attend. Scheme Creditors may vote in person at the Creditors' Meeting or they may appoint another person, whether a Scheme Creditor or not, as their proxy to attend and vote in their place. It is requested that voting forms be lodged with the Joint Provisional Liquidators, c/o Omni Whittington Insurance Services Limited, 8 Heritage Court, Lower Bridge Street, Chester CH1 1RD, facsimile 01244 347640, not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for the Creditors' Meeting but if these forms are not lodged they may be handed to the chairman at the Creditors' Meeting. A faxed copy of the voting form will be accepted. By the Order, the Court has appointed Dan Yoram Schwarzmann or, failing him, Paul Anthony Brereton Evans, of PricewaterhouseCoopers, Plumtree Court, London EC4A 4HT, to act as chairman at the Creditors' Meeting or failing either of them, a director of the Company and has directed the chairman to report the result of the Creditors' Meeting to the Court. Copies of the proposed Scheme of Arrangement under section 425 of the Companies Act 1985, and the statement required to be furnished pursuant to section 426 of the Companies Act 1985, as well as blank voting forms, are available from the offices of PricewaterhouseCoopers, Plumtree Court, London EC4A 4HT.

Appointment of Trustees

In the Liverpool County Court No 22 of 2002

IAN FRANK CAINE

I, Peter Forsey, of BKR Haines Watts, 3rd Floor, 70-74 City Road, London EC1Y 2BJ, hereby give notice that I was appointed Trustee of the estate of the above-named Bankrupt on 23 May 2002. All persons having in their possession any effects of the Bankrupt must deliver them to me and all debts due to the Bankrupt must be paid to me. Creditors who have not yet proved their debt must forward their proof of debt form to me at the address shown above. The last date for proving is 18 September 2002. No further advertisement for claims will be made. Notice is hereby given that I do not propose to summon a General Meeting of the Bankrupt's Creditors for the purpose of establishing a Creditor's Committee pursuant to section 301 of the Insolvency Act 1986. Pursuant to section 314(7) of the Insolvency Act 1986, Creditors have the right to request a General Meeting of Creditors to be convened if the request is supported by a minimum of 10 per cent in value, of the Bankrupt's Creditors.

P J Forsey, Trustee

New Law Tracker

Including Daily UK & European Press Releases

A weekly guide to new legislation

Every day, The London Gazette provides a summary of official publications, from press releases to statutes. Each day includes complete listings of all official press releases together with material designed to give a different viewpoint on the activities of Government:

Monday – New Law Tracker. A weekly guide to all new legislation from Westminster including all Statutes and Statutory Instruments.

Tuesday – Statistics & Standards Tracker. A round up of the latest from the Office of National Statistics and the British Standards Institution.

Wednesday – Parliamentary Tracker. A full summary of the events in Parliament including committees and the progress of new legislation.

Thursday – European Tracker. A guide to the latest European materials including consultative documents, draft legislation, treaties, conventions and directives.

Friday – Government Tracker. All new Government publications and what's new on Government websites.

To make it easier to use, everything is put into one of eight broad categories and then further classified according to more specific subject areas.

Home Affairs encompasses items which relate to internal affairs such as law & order, the courts, public records and the workings of Government.

International Affairs covers foreign policy & issues of concern Europe and world-wide.

Trade, Industry & Energy provides a guide to developments in the world of business.

Social Policy concerns matters which affect individuals in their everyday lives, such as education, employment & health.
