Transport for London hereby gives notice that, on 11 October 2002, the Mayor of London confirmed The Greater London (Central Zone) Congestion Charging (Variation) Order 2002 with modifications.

On 26 February 2002, the Mayor of London confirmed The Greater London (Central Zone) Congestion Charging Scheme Order 2001 ("the Confirmed Scheme Order"), with modifications. The Confirmed Scheme Order defines the central London congestion charging scheme.

On 5 August 2002, Transport for London made the Greater London (Central Zone) Congestion Charging (Variation) Order 2002 ("the Variation Order"). This contained a proposed minor variation to the congestion charging central zone boundary at Shoreditch, London EC2 and minor variations to certain operational details.

The Variation Order required the Mayor of London's confirmation before it could come into effect. The Mayor has the power to confirm the Variation Order with or without modifications, or reject it. A limited consultation exercise on the proposed variations was carried out between 5 August 2002 and 30 August 2002 and representations on, and objections to, the Variation Order were invited. Following consideration of these, TfL submitted a report to the Mayor of London on 27 September 2002, and GLA officers have produced a Mayoral Approval Form.

Following consideration of all the representations and objections received up to 7 October 2002, the TfL Report and all other relevant matters, the Mayor confirmed the Variation Order with minor modifications on 11 October 2002.

Transport for London is the charging authority. Charging and the associated enforcement processes are due to commence on 17 February 2003.

Copies of the consolidated Scheme Order including the variations set out in the Variation Order as modified together with other supporting documents may be inspected at all reasonable hours at the offices of Transport for London, Faith Lawson House, 15 Dacre Street, London SW1H 0DJ.
