ANIMAL HEALTH ACT 1981

THE IMPORTATION OF ANIMALS ORDER 1977 (ARTICLE 3 (2)), THE ANIMALS (POST-IMPORT CONTROL) ORDER 1995

The Secretary of State for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs, by this licence issued under Article 3(2) of the Importation of Animals Order 1977, hereby authorises the landing in Great Britain, in accordance with the conditions set out below, of Cattle for Breeding, originating in Jersey, Guernsey and Alderney, at any port or airport in England.

Authorised by the Secretary of State.

England General Import Licence No IMP/2002/1 dated 5 November 2002 is hereby revoked.

This licence is valid for imports from 17 December 2002 until varied or revoked by the Secretary of State for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs.

Conditions:

1. All landings of cattle shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Importation of Animals Order 1977, the requirements of the Welfare of Animals (Transport) Order 1997, the requirements of the Animals (Post-Import Control) Order 1995 and with the following provisions of this licence.

2. Shipment must be direct from Jersey, Guernsey or Alderney to England.

3. Cattle must be identified in accordance with EU Regulation 1760/2000/EC and be accompanied by a cattle passport.

4. Each consignment of cattle shall be accompanied by the following document:

A certificate of a veterinary officer appointed by the Government of Guernsey, Jersey and Alderney giving the ear number, breed, sex and age of the cattle to which it relates stating that:

(a) the cattle were examined by him immediately before they were consigned to Great Britain and found to be free from clinical signs of infectious and contagious disease and fit to travel;

(b) all the cattle originate from premises that have been declared officially free from enzootic bovine leucosis, brucellosis and tuberculosis according to the methods in force in Guernsey, Jersey and Alderney;

(c) Warble Fly infestation has been a notifiable disease on the island of origin for at least 3 years and has not been recorded during that time.

5. The importer shall give to the DVM responsible for the area of destination, in writing, at least 24 hours advance notification of the expected time of arrival of each consignment.

6. The animals must, having landed at the port/airport, be taken to their final destination, as specified on the health certificate, by a direct route but having due regard for rest and the welfare of the animals.

7. In the event of the consignment being delayed or postponed the DVM must be advised immediately.

8. Health certification must accompany each consignment to its final destination and be retained there for a minimum period of 12 months for presentation to an inspector on request.

9. The importer or other appropriate person in charge of cattle moved under this licence shall comply with any requirement by an officer of the Department to detain and restrain the cattle for the purpose of carrying out sampling for testing to determine the presence of disease.

10. Vehicles being used to transport the animals must be cleansed and disinfected with approved disinfectant both prior to landing and as soon as possible after unloading before carriage of other animals (unless the same consignment is reloaded after a stop for welfare purposes).

11. Cattle must be treated with a Warble Fly preparation authorised to be placed on the market in Great Britain within 24 hours of their arrival at the place of destination specified in the health certificate, in accordance with The Animals (Post-Import Control) Order 1995. The importer must notify the local DVM within 5 working days of the treatment of the cattle for Warble Fly that the animals have been treated as required.

12. In addition to complying with the conditions of this licence, the movement of the cattle from the port/airport of landing to the premises of destination must be in accordance with any other health legislation in force in Great Britain.

Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs, Import Section, International Animal Health Division, 1A Page Street, London SW1P 4PQ.

New Law Tracker

Including Daily UK & European Press Releases

A weekly guide to new legislation

Every day, The London Gazette provides a summary of official publications, from press releases to statutes. Each day includes complete listings of all official press releases together with material designed to give a different viewpoint on the activities of Government:

Monday – New Law Tracker. A weekly guide to all new legislation from Westminster including all Statutes and Statutory Instruments.

Tuesday – Statistics & Standards Tracker. A round up of the latest from the Office of National Statistics and the British Standards Institution.

Wednesday – Parliamentary Tracker. A full summary of the events in Parliament including committees and the progress of new legislation.

Thursday – European Tracker. A guide to the latest European materials including consultative documents, draft legislation, treaties, conventions and directives.

Friday – Government Tracker. All new Government publications and what's new on Government websites.

To make it easier to use, everything is put into one of eight broad categories and then further classified according to more specific subject areas.

Home Affairs encompasses items which relate to internal affairs such as law & order, the courts, public records and the workings of Government.

International Affairs covers foreign policy & issues of concern Europe and world-wide.

Trade, Industry & Energy provides a guide to developments in the world of business.

Social Policy concerns matters which affect individuals in their everyday lives, such as education, employment & health.

Transport & Environment encompasses transport policy & the environment, from pollution to regeneration & planning.

Defence, Science & Technology includes defence issues, research & development and technological advances.

Culture & Sport covers leisure time, the media and sport.

Agriculture & Food includes farming, food & fisheries.

NOTICE

All Notices and Advertisements are published in the London Gazette at the risk of the Advertiser and at the discretion of the Editor. Whilst every endeavour will be made to ensure that the publication is made in accordance with the advertiser's requirements the Crown accepts no responsibility for any loss or damage howsoever arising from either a failure to meet those requirements or in respect of any errors or omissions which may inadvertently be made in respect of those requirements or in connection with any notice or advertisement.

Notices and Advertisements by Private Advertisers may be tendered at or sent direct by post to The Stationery Office Limited, The London Gazette Office, PO Box 7923, London SW8 5WF, for insertion at the authorised rates of payment. All Notices and Advertisements must be pre-paid. The Office hours are from 8.30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Mondays to Fridays, inclusive. Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post must be accompanied by postal orders or cheques made payable to The London Gazette.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes (other than under Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925 and section 28, Water Resources Act, 1963) or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court, by a member of any body of accountants established in the United Kingdom and for the time being recognised by the Board of Trade for the purposes of Section 389 (1) of the Companies Act, 1985, or by a member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators. Notices of Dissolution of Partnership which are signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives will be accepted if signed or attested as above.

A Notice not signed by all the Partners named therein or their legal representatives must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such Notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Section 27, Trustee Act, 1925, will not be inserted unless they are signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court or by a duly authorised official of a London Clearing Bank or the Grant of Probate or Letters of Administration relating to the estate to which the advertisement refers is produced for inspection at the time the advertisement is submitted.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.
