From Saturday September 27. to Euclday September 30. 1718.

Lisbon, September 18.

N the 12th Instant came into this Port, the British Men of War, Bideford Captain Rowley Commander, and Sheerness Captain Delgarnoe Commander, both from Gibraltar: And on the 15th arrived the Experiment, a British Man of War, Captain Hook Commander, in 16 Days from Plymouth. Toy Morrow, the Experiment, in Company with the Bideford, fails from hence to join Admiral Cornwall.

Bruffels, Sept. 27. Two Battallions of the Regiments of the Great Master of the Teutonick Order and of Holftein, are arrived here from Ruremonde and Dendermonde, and are encamped in the Park, with the other Troops which compose the Garrison of this Place. Orders are given for their obfer-ving exact Difcipline; and 'tis not doubt. ed that all fuch Diforders as have of late been committed by the Populace, among whom Strangers and Vagabonds used to mingle on those Occasions, will for the future be prevented. The Nations (as they are call-ed) or Trading Companies of this Town, have at laft confented to an Excife on Beer fold by Retale, conformably to the Refolution of the great Council. It having been difcovered, that feveral Soldiers mixed with the Rabble in the late Tumults, and that some of them to escape the Punishment they deferve have taken Sanctuary in the Monasteries, an Order has been published for taking them from thence, in Consequence of a Permission obtained from the Pope, purluant to a Decree of the Congregation of Immunity, which will remain in Force a Year longer. On the 25th the Marquels de Prié cauled Te Deum to be fung with great Pomp and Solemnity, for the Empress's being fafe delivered of an Arch-dutchels the 14th Inftant. Bruffels, Off. 1. To Day the Marquels de Prié's Baggage was imbarked for the Hague, whither he will be going by the 5th Inftant at furtheft, accompanied by his Son the Marquels de Pancallier.

Paris, Sept. 30. On the 26th Inftant, an extraordinary Affembly of the Faculty of Theology, or Doctors of the Sorbonne, was held in the great Hall of that College. M. Chaudiere; their Dean, acquainted them, that the Cardinal de Noailles having published his Appeal from the Pope's Conflication Unigenities to a General Council; the Chapter of the Metropolitan Church of Paris, and the Curez (or Parish-Priefts) of Paris, had adhered to that Appeal: And that he would make four Propofitions to them on this Subject. 1. That the Faculty should renew and confirm in all Points, their Adherence to the Appeal made the 1ft of March 1717, by the Bishops of Mirepoix, Senezi Montpellier, and Boulogne. 2. That the Faculty, to leave to Posterity an eternal Monu-ment of their profound Veneration for the Cardinal de Noailles, should record in their Registers his Eminency's Appeal made the 3d of April 1717, and published the 24th of September 1718; without derogating thereby from their Adherence to the Appeal of the four Bi-fhops above-named. 3. That the twelve el-deft Doctors fhould be deputed, to congratulate his Eminency, in the Name of the Faculty, on his Zeal and Firmnels in supporting conftantly the Faith, Religion, the Church and its facred Liberties; and to affure him that they will be always ready to concur with him at all Times in their Defence. 4. That Depu-ties should be nominated, to look to the Registring of the Appeal of the Facul-ty, in the Officiality, the University, and the Parliament: And that the faid Deputies should be intrusted by the Faculty, in their Name to maintain and affert their Rights, as well by Writings as by legal Proceedings, against all Adversaries whatsoever. Of one Hundred and Ten Doctors, all but Two approved every one of the faid Propositions. At Two in the Afternoon the Twelve Senior Doctors, accompanied by a great Number of the others, went in Coaches to the Archiepifcopal Palace, having at their Head M. Chau-diere, Dean of the Faculty. The Cardinal de Noailles, accompanied by feveral other Prelates; came to meet them at the Entrance of bisApartment : The Dean prefented to him the Faculty's Act of Adherence to his Appeal, and made a Speech to him in the Name of his Brethren; to which his Eminency made a Reply to their intire Satisfaction. On the 27th, the Bene-

Benedictines of St. Denys, those of that Order called the White-Friars, and those of St. Germain des prets, appealed, and sent their Act of Appeal to the Registry of the Of-ficiality. The Canons Regular of St. Geneficialiţy. vieve, and the Premontrés, have also appealed. So have-the Carmelites, the Jacobines, and the Canons regular of St. Victor. 'Tis faid the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Meaux, have fent their Appeal likewife to the Officiality of Paris. In the mean time fome of the Bishops who have accepted the Pope's Conflitution Unigenitus, and particularly the Cardinal de Rohan, bave published Declarations, by which they denounce Excommunication, to be incurred ip/o fatto, by those who shall hereafter Appeal; denouncing likewife the fame Penalty against all who have already appealed, unless they revoke and retract the same within the Space of three Months. But thefe will be answered by Appeals to the Parliaments of the Kingdom, who have already declared themselves favourably on this Subject; and who will not fuffer in France any Excommunication to be incurred ipfo fatto in fuch disputable Cafes.

Paris, Off. 4. Yesterday the King's Attorney General complained to the Parliament, of a Decree of the Pope's, intituled, His Letter to all the faithful in Christ, against those who have hitherto refused, or shall bereaster refuse, due Obedience to his Holiness's Constitution which begins Unigenitus. He represented, that in the faid Letter the Pope declares, that he does no longer acknowledge those who refuse such Obedience, as Sons of the Church of Rome; but as separated from him, and from his Cha-rity and that of the faid Church; and that neither he nor the faid Church will have any Ecclefiaftical Communion with with so That he exhorts all the Bilhops and Prelates of the Church, to separate their Flocks from thole of infected Paftures; to admonifh the Rebels to return into the Unity of Doctrine, and to look upon them as intirely cut off from Charity and common Society. And that this Letter had been published in the ufual Forms at Rome on the 8th of September laft. He set forth, in several Particulars, that this Proceeding of the Pope was contrasty to the Canons of the Ghurch, and to the Constitutions and Maxims of the Kingdom; and then withdrew. The Parliament taking the Matter into Deliberation, passed an Arrêt, forbidding all Manner of Persons to print, fell, or disperse the faid Letter. Forbidding likewife all Archbishops and Bishops, their Vicars or Officials, all Redors and Heads of Univerfities and Ecclefiastical Communities, and all others, to receive, read, or publifit the fame, or to put it in Execution in any Manner directly or indirectly; or any other Bulls, or Letters, iffued by the Court of Rome? unless published by Virtue of the King's Letters Patents registred in Parliament : On the Pey-nalty of a Fine of 500 Livres, and of greater Punishment if the Offence be repeated.

It having been observed, that ever fince the Banner of Great Britain was mounted upon the Island of Minor-ea in 1712, fome of the common News Papers of London have constantly published Accounts of great Disturbances which had happened there, between His Maj sty's Troops and the Inhabitants of the Mand; and particularly in June 1717, that 50 or 60 Men had been killed and wounded at Mahon; in September 1717, that the Kirg had taken a Refolution to transplant the Inhabitants from the Island, and send others there; in August 1718, that 12 Spaniards had been executed at Mahon for Mutiny; and in this prefent Month of September, that there had been a fharp Dispute between the English Forces at Port Mahon and the Natives of the Place : Which Several Articles being reprinted in the Nuws Papers of foreign Countries, have given Grounds to believe the fame are true. To the End therefore, that the World may be unde-ceived as to these Particulars, it is here declared, that all the Reports above mentiond are netorioully falle and groundless.

Richard Kane, Lt. Governour of the Island of Minorca.

Whereas & Letter figned W. B. and dated September the 36th, 1718, was jent to one of His Majesty's Princi-pal Secretaries of State, engaging to make certain Dif-coveries upon a Promise of Reward. If the Perfon who wrote the same, will attend at Hampton-Court the said Principal Secretary, and make out what he undertaket, he shall receive a proportionable Reward, as he depres.
