North Kesteven District Council

PLANNING (LISTED BUILDINGS AND CONSERVATION AREAS) ACT 1990

DESIGNATION OF CONSERVATION AREAS

Notice is hereby given that the North Kesteven District Council, pursuant to section 69(1) of the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990, has designated a change to the boundary to the Sleaford Conservation Area. The revision of the Conservation Area boundary consists of cancellation of part of, and extension to, the existing boundary as follows:

Cancellation

1. The removal of 6-19 Church Lane and 28-36 Northgate—these 1960's built properties contribute little to local character.
2. The removal of an area off Northgate, dominated by Tesco's car park and "Robert Tyres" garage. The Tesco's store was developed after the Conservation Area was originally designated and the area now used as a car park no longer merits conservation area status. The site of "Robert Tyres" contributes little to local character.
3. The removal of Somerfield supermarket, Westgate—the Conservation area boundary currently runs through this standard supermarket unit, which contributes little to the character of the area.
4. The removal of a car depot and outbuildings on Boston Road. These buildings have no special character; the boundary is therefore to be re-routed behind these properties.

Designation

1. Extension to include Sleas Cottages, an attractive group of Victorian Cottages. These cottages are largely unaltered and give enclosure and interest to the West Bank street scene.
2. Extension along Riverside Close to include an area of tightly knit dwellings and courtyards and the land formerly occupied by seed warehouses off Jermyn Street. This land is currently being developed to provide sheltered apartments for the elderly.
3. Extension to include The Pines and Clover House, Boston Road. The building and grounds of The Pines make a significant contribution to the distinctiveness of Boston Road, while Clover House is a notable building, which is now visually prominent after the demolition of a modern warehouse.

The main effects of Conservation Area designation are that, subject to certain exceptions, the consent of the District Council is required for the total demolition of buildings or walls. In addition, 6 weeks' notice must be given to the District Council before carrying out any lopping, topping or felling of trees. In assessing the development proposals the Council has a duty to pay special attention to the character and appearance of the area. In this case, it is intended that the designation will act as an impetus for the preservation and enhancement of the area in general. Plans showing the Conservation Area can be inspected at the Council Offices, North Kesteven District Council, PO Box 3, Kesteven Street, Sleaford, Lincolnshire NG34 7EF, during normal office hours.

THE POTATO INDUSTRY DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

THE POTATO INDUSTRY DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL (AMENDMENT) ORDER 2002

The Potato Industry Development Council (PIDC) Order, which established the British Potato Council (BPC), was passed by Parliament in 1997. It was created under the Industrial Organisation and Development Act 1947. An amendment Order in 1999 introduced changes to the way tonnage levies were charged.

Further changes have been introduced by the Potato Industry Development Council (Amendment) Order 2002, which received Parliamentary approval in December 2002, and came into effect on 1 January 2003.

The amended regulations will be applied with effect from the planting year 2003 for producers, and with effect from 1 July 2003 for purchasers. The registration threshold for producers was increased from 1 hectare to 3 hectares. The registration threshold for purchasers was increased from 100 tonnes to 1,000 tonnes.

The statutory register of producers and purchasers can now show names and addresses of directors where the registered business is a company. A two-tier system of levy rates was introduced, comprising an ordinary rate for payments received by the due date and a higher rate for payments received after the due date; this applies to both producers and purchasers.

The due date for receipt of area levies was changed from 1 November to 1 December of the relevant year, to extend the opportunity for producers to pay the lower levy rate. There has been no change for purchasers, whose levies are charged quarterly in arrears.

The statutory date for submitting planting returns was changed from 15 May to 1 June, to make some additional allowance for seasons with difficult planting conditions.

The power to estimate plantings and purchases, where returns have not been received, was increased by up to 10 per cent.

The statutory maximum area levy rate was increased from £40 to £50 per hectare. Producers and purchasers whose plantings and purchases are below the revised registration thresholds are not required to take any action; they will be contacted by the BPC regarding removal from the statutory register.

The PIDC Order provides for action against persons who fail to register and/or provide returns or other information, and against those who make false statements. That entails criminal prosecutions through the Magistrates Courts in England and Wales and the Sheriffs Courts in Scotland.

Additional information can be obtained from the Secretary to the Council at 4300 Nash Court, John Smith Drive, Oxford Business Park South, Oxford OX4 2RT, telephone 01865 714455, fax 01865 782200.

HISTORIC ROYAL PALACES

THE TOWER OF LONDON WORLD HERITAGE SITE MANAGEMENT PLAN

The World Heritage Convention (adopted by UNESCO in 1972) was ratified by the United Kingdom in 1984.

As a contracting party to the Convention, the United Kingdom has an obligation to protect, conserve, present and transmit to future generations World Heritage Sites (WHS) and the Government is committed to ensuring that comprehensive management plans are in place for each of the United Kingdom's World Heritage Sites.

In accordance with this obligation, Historic Royal Palaces has prepared a Management Plan for The Tower of London World Heritage Site. The Management Plan was prepared under the guidance of a Management Plan consultative committee. A draft Plan was put out for public consultation in October and November 2000 and revision was agreed in April 2001.

Specific re-consultation is now taking place between 17 January 2003 and 14 February 2003, seeking comment on the revised location of the northern viewpoint from Tower Bridge.

Copies of the amended draft WHS Management Plan can be viewed at the London Borough of Tower Hamlets, the London Borough of Southwark and at the Corporation of London.
